Gresham Locals

Mrs. John Green of Robinette, Oregon, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Ralph Carothers for the past month, was taken to Portland sanitarium Tuesday and on Thursday was operated on for the removal of two goiters. The operation was unusually critical, but Mrs. Green is now recovering well.

Bobby Tetrick, grandson of Mrs. Mary Tetrick, underwent an operation Wednesday at the office of a local surgeon for the removal of adenoids. He is getting along satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor, accompanied by Fola Fearne Acers of Gresham and Frances Moist of Fairview, visited over the Easter week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Milo Taylor and family of Brownsville, Oregon. Milo Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor and is editor of the Brownsville Times.

The Dorcas circle will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. McManus on Division St.

Mrs. Sam Smith has been absent from her duties on the local telephone exchange board for the past week on account of illness.

A delightful Easter dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss. The guests present were Mrs. Blaine Turner and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stone and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Camp, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Alderman of Portland, Mrs. Eliza Stone and Mrs. Anna Engles.

The finishing touches are now being put on the Evangelical church which is being erected at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, the dedication of which will take place on Sunday, April 29. The painting is being done this week by J. R. Cassidy of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Cole will leave soon for a trip to California. Earl Mattoon of Portland will drive one of the Lewis & Son stages for Cole during his absence.

The Baptist Ladies Guild is planning to give a chicken dinner Thursday evening, April 19, in the basement of the church. All are invited to be present.

Mrs. R. D. Bailey entertained the D and C club, a group of Troutdale ladies, at her home on Main street yesterday afternoon . In addition to the 18 ladies present from Troutdale, Mrs. Rose Lambert, Mrs. Fietta Hibbert, Mrs. Chas. Bailey, Mrs. C. I. Raker and Mrs. E. D. Raker were invited guests. Five hundred was played, after which refreshments were served.

J. Meyers of Portland was in Gresham this morning making arrangements for the moving of his family to Gresham, where for the past three years he has been employed as the foreman of the Strong berry ranch.

The Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Rusher for the annual birthday party. A program is being prepared. The two other circles and their friends are invited to be present.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann entertained at dinner Tuesday evening the Rev. and Mrs. C. Hoffman of Portland, the Rev. and Mrs. C. Warber of Everett, Washington, and the Rev. August E. Binder of Seattle. Official business of the Washington Mission district was discussed. The parties from Seattle and Everett, Washington, came by auto Monday and returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jennings, Mrs. Richard Jennings and Mrs. Maude Wright attended the funeral Thursday at Oregon City of Mrs. Ida A. Jennings who died Tuesday at her home in West Linn. Mrs. Jennings, who was a sister of Mrs. R. C. Jennings of Gresham, is survived by her widower Edward R. Jennings, a son and two daughters, Mrs. Tempest Buckles of Willamette and Mrs. Sunshine Hale of Oregon City.

D. M. Cathey has been at Newberg the past week where he has been engaged in carpenter work on the Free Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sibley and six-months-old son Robert of St. Helens visited Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Sibley's mother, Mrs. Harriet Timmerman.

J. A. Nott, traveling field and passenger agent for the Union Pacific system, was a caller on S. B. Hall at the county agricultural office Wednesday.

Mrs. Margaret Kehrli, who resides at the Skyline dairy, enjoyed a pleasant surprise party Sunday, given her by her seven children and 23 grand-children in honor of her 71st birthday. The weather was ideal and outdoor games were played by the girls, while the boys went on an enjoyable excursion upon the butte, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Caspar Heimman and three children of Cottrell, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Frutiger and three children of Hillsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kehrli and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kehrli, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kehrli and seven children, Mrs. Caspar Kehrli and seven children of Beaverton, and Mr. and Mrs. John Winterberger and little son John.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lounsbury and family have moved from the house they have been occupying on Third street to their farm near Rockwood.

A house moving concern of Portland Wednesday finished moving the former Russel Akin house from Second street to its new location on the property of Walter Markwart, who will have it set over a full basement and put in shape for occupancy soon. Mr. Markwart has not decided what disposition to make of his smaller house which he and his family have been occupying. The house-moving operation was something out of the regular method of moving slowly on rollers. The building was loaded onto a trailer and was hauled to its new location in a comparatively short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powell are entertaining the latter's aunts, Mrs. John Miller and Mrs. Lucy Wheeler of Lebanon, Oregon.

Milton Lake is a recent assistant at the 20th Century grocery. The manager, E. M. Ward, who has been absent for several days on account of a tonsilor operation, is back on the job again.

Gresham Chapter No. 117 O. E. S. will give a card party after chapter next Tuesday evening, April 17, beginning at 9 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Greulich of Pendleton and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Greulich of La Grande, are the house guests of Mrs. John Greulich's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner. Miss Alice Borkman of Salem was an Easter guest at the Turner home.

Mrs. Cecil Metzger, who Tuesday morning underwent a major operation at Good Samaritan hospital, is reported as convalescing favorably.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Weintz and family moved Wednesday from the Free Methodist parsonage to the Richard Beadle house on Roberts avenue.

Ellis Judd, formerly an employe of the Piggly Wiggly store in Gresham, was recently appointed manager of a new Piggly Wiggly grocery on the west side in Portland. Mr. Judd lives at his home in Gresham and makes the trip to and from his work each day by automobile.

In a letter received a few days ago by the Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Judd from Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Guile who were recently called to Shoshoni, Wyoming, by the death of their daughter, they stated they reached their destination safely on Friday and the funeral took place the following Monday. The daughter who passed away was their only child. The Guiles have not determined just when they will return to Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra G. Lewis and son, Dick Phair, moved yesterday from Portland to the Fred Powell place on Powell road, which they have leased for the purpose of starting into the rabbit industry. Dick, a 17-year-old junior in Benson Polytechnic, expects to finish his school year in Portland, making the trip to and from the city daily. Mr. Lewis is a traveling salesman for a tea and coffee house in Tacoma, Washington. The service man of the local P. E. P. office was busy yesterday wiring the house for installation of electric range and hot water heater.

The local Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges will help celebrate the 109th anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in America by an entertainment to be given on Thursday evening, April 26, at the I. O. O. F. hall. Preceding the program a pot-luck supper will be served in the dining room to the Odd Fellows by the ladies of the Rebekah lodge. All members of both orders are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kohl and two children and Mrs. Helen Groat were Easter dinner guests of Mrs. M. B. Splawn and mother-in-law, Mrs. M. C. Splawn. All enjoyed the occasion very much and after dinner motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. G .W. Staffenson for a visit with them and to see the new baby. Mr. Splawn, who is working near Pilot Rock, Oregon, was unable to come home for Easter.

Mrs. Elton Eastman is under a physician's care at her home on B street. Her mother, Mrs. S. A. Miller, is expected to arrive from Spokane today to assist in her care.

Mrs. Lida Anderson of Silverton left Thursday after visiting a few days with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Palmquist. Easter dinner guests at the Palmquist home were the Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Weintz and family.

Mrs. A. F. Hoover and Mrs. Gus Donley yesterday afternoon attended a stork shower in Portland, given for their niece Mrs. Joseph Blanc, formerly Miss Clyda Cunningham of Gresham.

Ralph Deaville, manager of the local Piggly Wiggly store since its location in Gresham, has severed his connection with the company and will probably engage in other lines of business, several propositions of which are open to him. E. R. Walser of Portland, former manager of the Piggly Wiggly at Sellwood, has been transferred to Gresham to take charge of the store here. At present Mr. Walser goes to and from Portland daily, but he is contemplating moving here with his family later if his position proves to be a permanent one.

Miss Leone De Laet of Portland, assistant operator at the Bailey Bob & Beauty Shoppe, has now moved to Gresham and is rooming at the Todd apartments.

Miss Betty Thorne entertained 16 members of the Tri-Y at an Easter breakfast following the sunrise services in the Honey grove. Miss Joyce Kidder, who was home for the week-end holidays from Willamette university, was a guest of the Girl Reserves at the breakfast.

The Sawatori family, Japanese who have been in Chico, California, since the first of the year, have moved back to Gresham and are again located in the George Kenney house on Third street and Hood avenue.

An eight-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray of Cherryville at the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman on March 31. The name of Jacqueline has been given to the newcomer. Another recent arrival at the Timmerman home is a boy weighing 8¼ pounds, born April 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Alexander of Orient.

Mr. and Mrs. William Trimble arrived Wednesday evening by automobile from Stockton, California. They are visiting at the several homes of their children in Gresham, before deciding on plans for the future. On the way north they were detained for nine days on account of a heavy snowfall.

Bobby Raker entertained 18 little friends Saturday with an Easter party at his home on Powell street.

The occasion was a merry one, an egg hunt among other things being a pleasing feature of the afternoon. Brick ice cream and rabbit cookies were served the children. The centerpiece for the table was of bunnies and eggs on a grass plot. Besides the small host those present were Lenore and Bobby Inglis, Russell Mealey, Doris Metzger, David Ott, Stanley and Vernon Sture, Billy Everett, Frankie and Betty Akin, Bobby Schneider, Marjorie and Jean Gray, Bobby Jennings, Betty Jean Donley, Janet Johnson ,Jean Page and Jimmie Davidson. Mrs. C. I. Raker and Miss Jean Inglis assisted Mrs. E. D. Raker in the entertainment of the children.

Potatoes.

The latest market information from Corvallis says the quantity of potatoes held by growers and local dealers in 35 late potato states on January 1 and available for sale after that date was estimated to have been 96,625,000 bushels against 84,117,000 a year earlier, 71,344,000 two years before and 119,223,000 after the large crop of 1924. Stocks were 7 per cent below the five-year average, 1923-27, below last year in the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin and Maine, but heavier than a year ago in the western states.

"Pride Goeth Before a Fall"

Are you letting FALSE PRIDE ruin your life? "Keeping up with the Smiths" has been the cause of many a business failure—it has caused men to steal and wreck their entire family, it often turns happy homes into hateful prisons. WHY? Because trying to keep up with someone else—who is trying to keep up with another someone—forces you to live beyond your means.

THINK IT OVER. What good is it doing you? Is the pride of driving the "latest model" worth the secret worry of knowing that there are unpaid bills and that you haven't a single cent in reserve for the unexpected emergency, or for the future?

FACE THE REAL TRUTH—live for yourself, within your means—and SAVE SOME.
