PLEASANT HOME

A splendid attendance at the B. Y. P. U. rally Sunday afternoon was gratifying to those in charge. An entertaining program of vocal solos, trios, quartets and instrumental numbers was enjoyed. Dr. Cline, who is one of the instructors at the Western Baptist Theological seminary in Portland, gave a very helpful address and stressed the point that you never can tell what a fellow can do just by looking at him. A social hour was enjoyed after which a dainty luncheon was served to all present. Rally songs and yells were a feature of the luncheon hour, then all gathered in the auditorium for the final service. The Gresham union presented the evening's B. Y. P. U. lesson in a very original and entertaining manner and Mr. Hodge furnished the climax of the many splendid things offered during the day. His address was given especially for the benefit of the younger people, but was also helpful for those older.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Altman of Ingleside farm entertained at dinner on Sunday Mr. Altman's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Altman of Sherwood.

The program presented at the Orient school last Saturday evening was attended by a large crowd and about $29 was added to the piano fund of the Baptist church.

The Sunday school association, composed of the Sunday schools of Boring Methodist, Haicy Baptist, Powell Valley Mission, Kelso community, Pleasant Home Methodist and Baptist, and Cottrell community churches will convene in their semi-annual gathering next Sunday, April 22, at 11 o'clock at the Cottrell community church. A basket lunch will be enjoyed at noon, followed by a program in the afternoon. All are asked to bring a well filled basket and take away a deeper spiritual life, and more firmly cemented community fellowship.

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter recently to the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Cotton of Madras, Oregon.
