Miss Hattie Rublin, whose marriage to Andrew Huber will take place tomorrow, was given a surprise miscellaneous shower Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. F. Hoover. The afternoon was delightfully spent. Musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. J. E. Gates, Mrs. Irma Richmond, Wayne and Irvin Lundquist and Danny Murphy, after which refreshments were served. Those present besides the hostess were Miss Hattie Rublin, Miss Clara Rublin, Mrs. E. E. Wellington, Mrs. Carl Dahl, Mrs. Mary Huber, Mrs. Dan Murphy, Mrs. Lulu Osburn, Mrs. Lucy Babcock, Mrs. Irma Richmond, Mrs. J. E. Gates, Mrs. Lucy Donley, Miss Inez Lusted, Mrs. Dan White and Mrs. Ethel Lundquist.

L. D. Calkins has the full basement completed for the modern 8-room house which he will erect on the site of his old home in Clatskanie addition. Oscar Thoren, who is in charge of the carpenter work is being assisted by Mr. Calkins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gutie returned Thursday morning from a two-weeks' trip to Shoshoni, Wyoming, where they were called by the death of their daughter.

William H. Stanley came home Sunday for a few days' stay from Kerby, Oregon, where he has been working for the federal bureau of roads. He expects to leave next week for Wapinitia where he will resume his employment with the forestry service.

Mrs. Ella Oliphant of Portland visited Mrs. C. E. Rusher today. According to Gresham friends who recently received a letter from D. D. Smith of Spokane, Washington, Mrs. Smith has been seriously ill at her home there. She is now thought, however, to be slowly improving.

W. Baer had his hand badly cut this morning, while engaged in ripping lumber at the plant of the General Refrigerating & Manufacturing corporation, on the site of the old Beaver State Motor company. The injured man was treated at the office of a local surgeon, after which he was taken to his home in Portland.

Mrs. J. C. Vandell of Timber, Oregon, is spending the week with her daughter Mrs. Reuben Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore have remodeled a garage on their property north of the fair grounds, making of it a cozy two-room house which they expect to rent. Mr. Moore is now able to be out again after an extended period of illness.

Mrs. J. C. Peterson of Shaw, Oregon, suffered lacerations, and her son, Ernest Peterson of Salem, has a scalp wound, the result of an automobile accident which occurred Sunday on the Pacific highway north of Salem. The machine driven by Mr. Peterson collided with a Portland car. The injuries to Mrs. Peterson and her son are not of a serious nature.

Word has been received of the death of Warren Edward Bostic, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bostic of Pocatello, Idaho. The boy died on Monday from tuberculosis from which he had suffered for a year past. Mrs. Marie Bostic, the mother of the boy, is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts and grew to young womanhood in Gresham.

Mrs. Hannah M. Shaw has returned from a week's visit with her son Grant Shaw and family in Portland. Mrs. Grant Shaw has been called to Kerry, Oregon, by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Brooks.

Mrs. W. L. Gorsage has returned from Portland sanitarium where she recently underwent an operation for the removal of a goiter. She has convalesced satisfactorily since the operation.

At a meeting of the Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Rusher officers were elected for the ensuing year. They are Mrs. C. J. Lundquist, president; Mrs. C. E. Rusher, vice president; Mrs. George Page, secretary; Mrs. W. A. Winters, treasurer. In recognition of the work done during the past year by Mrs. Lundquist as president of the society, she was presented by the circle with a beautiful plant. Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman of Portland was a guest of the circle during the afternoon.

Guests on Wednesday and Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen were Mrs. W. Douglas and son Donald of Portland, formerly of Colby, Kansas, where Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Larsen had been neighbors for 25 years.

Ralph Deaville, former manager of the Gresham Piggly Wiggly store, has been added to the sales force of Brockway & Nelson in the territory covered by the local Dodge Brothers dealers.

A. H. Mealey attended yesterday and today the convention of the Oregon Retail Jeweler's association held in Portland. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Mealey will be present at the banquet and entertainment which will bring the gathering of the association to a close at the Multnomah hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. T. U. Burnside, who recently purchased the cleaning and pressing business operated by Newell Edwards in the Sell building, closed up their business today and have returned to their former home in Portland.

Mrs. C. H. Lane has expressed herself as much grieved over the death of a dear friend, Mrs. L. W. Wood of Portland, aged 76, who was so severely burned Wednesday that death occurred that evening. Mrs. Wood has visited at the Lane home in Gresham many times. Mrs. Lane spent part of yesterday at the home of Mrs. Wood in Portland and, with Mr. Lane, is planning to attend the funeral of the aged woman, which will be held in Portland tomorrow.

The Allen fruit grader is being installed at the local cannery this week, having been shipped here by truck from Salem. A crew of men from the factory has charge of setting up this machine, which is the last word in grading of small fruits for the cans or barrels. There has often been a shortage of help at the local plant hence the change to machine grading. It will eliminate about 100 women. Mr. Allen, of Hunt Bros., Salem, perfected the machine and is protected by patent rights in the United States.

Miss Winifred Osburn has received honorable mention in the handicraft contest being held at the Lipman-Wolfe store in Portland. As there were 754 entries in this needle work display, it is considered well worth the effort to have a place on the honorable mention roll.

Mrs. A. F. Hoover entertained at dinner Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. William Wyant in honor of Mr. Hoover's birthday.

During the high wind which prevailed over this section Monday afternoon an old landmark, a cherry tree 56 years old, was blown down on the south side of the John Roberts house. The tree was full of white blossoms with every prospect for a harvest of fruit this year, but it is thought it was partly rotted at the base. The tree bore its first cherries 56 years ago, the year Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were married.

A meeting of the general Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Rusher. A committee from the Southeast circle will serve refreshments.

PLEASANT HOME

Joe Drew and Amy Sloop were guests of Mr. Drew's sister, Mrs. Poynes of Centralia, Washington, over the last week-end. Upon their return they brought with them Master Roland Poynes who is spending the week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell.

The Sandy Lumber Company, Incorporated, in which M. Lennartz and others of the community are interested, is now making preparation to begin operations in the near future. The machinery is being put in running condition.

Miss Inez Bell is now enjoying a month's vacation which she plans to spend with her grandmother and friends.

Clem Bartsch has gone to the hot springs for treatment for the nervous breakdown which he has suffered.

J. B. Hutchens, who is employed by the Dixon Lumber company, received an injury to his hand and is spending the week at his home.

The Methodist Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Mabel Carlson Wednesday for a workfest and silver tea. About 28 ladies were present. Mrs. Carlson was assisted in serving by her mother Mrs. Grant Sloop.

The Methodist choir met at the Grant Sloop home for practice and a social time recently. The casts of characters of the two plays presented by the young people of the Methodist church several weeks ago were entertained at the Walter's home. Both events were much enjoyed by those present.

Alice Melton is again confined to her home with a malady resembling the flu.

Mrs. Emil Bartsch, who has been ill with the current epidemic, is reported to be recovering.

The first of the series of leadership training classes to be conducted for two evenings a week for three weeks was held Tuesday evening, with 14 in attendance. These classes under the instruction of Professor Andrews of Salem give promise of great interest and benefit.

The junior choir of the Methodist church will meet at the parsonage Saturday at the usual hour. Parts for Bible story dramatization will also be assigned.

The only morning service at the Methodist church Sunday will be the Sunday school which will meet at 10 o'clock. Following the school session will be the district convention of the Sunday schools of this and neighboring communities, to which all Methodists are invited. There will be the usual evening services, the Epworth League at 7 o'clock and the church service at 8 o'clock.

The president of the Pleasant Home-district Sunday school association, Miss Ellen Stone, has announced an interesting program for the meeting next Sunday, April 22.
