

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hedden and sons Kenneth and Edwin moved to Gresham recently from Portland where they had come a few months previously from Fairfield, Idaho. They have purchased four acres on Birdsdales avenue north of Powell street from Andrew Brugger of Portland and are erecting a house. Mr. Hedden is a carpenter and has worked at present in Portland.

Mrs. Roy H. Gibbs and children, Bobby and Frances, went to Newberg yesterday, called there by the serious condition of Mrs. Gibbs' brother, Charley Mewhirter, who has been ill for about two years past from tuberculosis.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hayden of Estacada are justly proud of their 6 1/2-pound son born to them Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bushong.

Mrs. Clark Melugin arrived Sunday evening from Archer City, Texas, where she has been for several weeks past. After spending a short time with her brother, G. A. Cox, and other relatives, she will go to Wahkiacus, Washington, where her son, Howard Power, is working.

Excavations are being made for the Lester Spencer house on Division street west of the W. L. Gorsage property.

Mrs. H. H. Ott returned Wednesday from Salem where she has been assisting in the care of her sister, Mrs. Emmett Welling. Mrs. Ott brought with her the two-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Welling and will care for him until the mother regains her usual strength. Mrs. Welling's condition has not been satisfactory since the birth of the baby and she is still receiving attention in a Salem hospital. As soon as she is able to make the trip, Mrs. Welling will be brought to Gresham to recuperate.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Yates and son Jesse arrived Wednesday from Hillsboro and are becoming settled in the Free Methodist parsonage on Fourth street. The Rev. Mr. Yates was recently appointed to fill the pulpit here for the remaining three months of the conference year. The present modern parsonage was built during his pastorate here seven years ago.

Ruth Winfree, until Friday a pupil in the Gresham grade school, left that day for Oregon City where she is staying with her mother and attending school. The girl was given into the custody of her father at the time a divorce was given him from his wife.

Clean-up Day.

Wednesday, May 2, has been designated as clean-up day in Gresham, and as is annually the custom, junk must be placed in boxes or other receptacles and placed at the edge of the sidewalk, where it may be reached conveniently by the city truck which will call for the refuse.

In the statistical list of Vancouver marriage licenses appearing in the Portland papers are the names of George Hale and Mrs. Rosa Elliott.

Alvin Kaser, a freshman at the Oregon State college at Corvallis, is out for pitcher on the rook baseball squad. The rooks have won their first two games of the season, taking into camp Grant and Washington high schools in Portland, the latter considered to have one of the strongest prep teams in the northwest. The rooks will make several trips, including a two-day trip to Portland.

Mrs. Myrtle Myers Chester of Seattle left Thursday morning after a four-day visit with old acquaintances in Gresham. From here she went to visit with a sister at Chinook, Washington, across the river from Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clow visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Hill and small son at Longview, Washington.

A wash rack is being built by Charles Hunt, proprietor of the Gresham Service station. It will be located south of the large grease rack at the rear of the service building.

An all-day meeting of the Rebekah Welfare club will be held Tuesday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Anna Beers. Mrs. Bessie Dixon and Mrs. Mary Huber will assist the hostess. The business meeting will be called about 1:30 to permit those who wish to attend the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association at the Gresham grade school at 2:30. All Rebekahs are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox are moving into their property on East Powell street. They recently came from Usk, Washington, where he was engaged in the work of an agent on an Indian reservation.

The pastor and members of the Zion Evangelical church are working hard to get the new church building and grounds into complete readiness for the dedication which will take place Sunday, Wednesday the ladies of the congregation took possession of the residence which is soon to be occupied as a parsonage by the Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann and gave it a thorough renovation from cellar to garret. At the same time several men with pick and spade leveled the rough ground surrounding the new church and set out a number of fine dwarf shrubs. Grass seed will be planted for the development of a lawn.

About 25 friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. R. D. Bailey on Thursday evening of last week for a surprise birthday celebration in her honor. The evening was spent in playing 500, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. C. I. Raker and Miss Marguerite Bailey planned the pleasant surprise.

Melvin Brugger underwent an operation Tuesday at Good Samaritan hospital for the relief of hernia. Mr. Brugger is reported as convalescing favorably.

Mrs. M. E. Patterson is ill at her home on Third street with an aggravated form of heart trouble. She is being cared for by her sister, Mrs. O. A. Eastman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Horr had as guests Sunday their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Horr and little daughter Marietta of Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Walrad Jr., plan to leave early Saturday for Tillamook for a week end trip. They are hoping for good fishing luck.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. W. W. Hastings Wednesday, May 2, at 2:30. Mrs. L. L. Kidder will be the leader, the topic being Utah and Wyoming. This will be the day for the annual mite box opening for the women's society and the Mother's Jewels, and an effort is being made to get a full attendance of all members of both organizations. Mrs. A. McManus is mite box secretary. Mrs. C. J. Lundquist, Mrs. Wm. Thom and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson will serve. Cars will be at the church at 2:15 to accommodate any wishing transportation.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chase E. St. Clair Tuesday evening were Mrs. St. Clair's sister, Miss Myrtle Schmale, Miss Cora Schiltbeimer, Miss Margaret Jensen and Mrs. Lillian Matthews, all of Portland.

Owing to the strain of school examinations at the Gresham grade school near the date previously announced for the operetta, May 9, the time of the play has been changed to a week later. The operetta, "The Maid of the Golden Slipper" will be given in the grade school auditorium on the evening of May 16.

Donald and Jean Page have been receiving considerable comment on their playing over radio KEX, requests having come in for a repetition of their work from distant states. They played in March and will be heard again next Tuesday evening between 6:30 and 7 over the Telegram's broadcasting station KEX. Word has been sent to their grandmother, Mrs. Page in Pasadena, California, and it is safe to say she will be listening in attentively at that time.

Dinner guests at the A. W. Shipley home Thursday evening were
