Celery Growers Discuss Problems

An interesting and instructive meeting was held Monday evening at the chamber of commerce in Portland in the interests of celery growers. S. B. Hall was chairman of the meeting. W. C. Spence, Horace McGinnis, August Lisi and Thomas Low, of the Troutdale Co-operative Celery association attended.

The gathering, which was also represented by Japanese celery growers from Milwaukie, was held for the purpose of discussing the marketing angle of the situation as relates to the Troutdale, Milwaukie and Salem areas where the most of the celery in Oregon is grown. Mr. Hall is much interested in the cooperation of Oregon growers with the marketing department of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

From present indications it would appear that about the same acreage will be put into celery as last year, approximately 100 acres. The most of this will be grown in the Troutdale area, where the soil is peculiarly adapted for its development. W. C. Spence of Troutdale has about 10,000 celery plants started for early planting.

At the February meeting of the association August Lisi was elected president; J. R. Spence, vice president; W. C. Spence, secretary and treasurer. Thomas Low, W. Hamilton and John Burns are other directors of the association.

SPRINGDALE

Thos. Northway and Jesse Rogers of Springdale attended the meeting of the fire unit at Corbett last Sunday, when E. W. Wheeler of the Hermon Creek ranger station gave an interesting talk. Wm. Northway of the same station was also present. Luncheon was served the members at the Arneson restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pounder gave a card party at their home Tuesday evening in honor of their sixth wedding anniversary. The following guests were present besides the host and hostess: Mr. and Mrs. Leon Spaybrook, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Northway, Mrs. Harry Rickert, Mrs. Nora Littlepage, Mrs. Minnie Fassett, James Pounder, Miss Crystal Pounder, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pounder, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Salzman, Mrs. Fred Salzman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gebhart and Miss Kathryn Hall. Five hundred was played. High honors went to Mrs. Thos. Northway and Albert Pounder, consolation to Wm. Salzman and Mrs. Nora Littlepage. Refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch were served.

C. Campbell is having some surveying done on the Nelson estate in preparation for building his new home.

Mrs. Wm. Salzman, Betty Jean and Harriet Woods enjoyed a picnic dinner and wienie roast at Dabney park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Northway were dinner guests at the Will Wright family Sunday.

An operetta, "The Flower Shop," will be given by the pupils of the Springdale school at the P. W. L. A. hall Friday, May 4, at 8 o'clock. There will be a minuet by six little girls. Music will be furnished by Mr. Finley and his orchestra. A charge will be made for the entertainment.

Young Business Man of experience and good judgment.
Paid Adv. by Popick for Representative Club.

Dedicated to National "Save Your Vision Week," April 22-28.

PROMINENT LAWMAKER

Gus C. Moser

There is no better known attorney in Portland than Gus C. Moser. He has been in the Oregon legislature so many terms that it would seem strange to try to make laws without his support or opposition. That statement suggests that he is a hard fighter, which is literally true. When he backs a cause you know it and when he opposes a measure others have to fight hard for it if it carries. Moser is one of the eight men on the republican ticket for the senate from Multnomah county of which five are to be elected. He seems to be one of the indispensables.

HURLBURT

Mrs. Clarence Deverell has received word of the accidental death of her brother, Simon Ayers, who was killed instantly while at work on a pile driver at a logging camp at Cochrane, Ore. He was unmarried. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Clark of Portland and two sisters, Mrs. Edith Groat of Portland and Mrs. Lilly Groat of Beaverton, Washington, besides Mrs. Deverell.

Guests Sunday afternoon of Mrs. W. J. Ellis were her mother, Mrs. Helsey, Mrs. Frank Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wint of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Knoefel and son Richard of Oregon City. Mrs. Gillis, Mrs. Wint and Mrs. Knoefel are sisters of Mrs. Ellis. The men attended the ball game at Corbett.

A party enjoying a fishing trip to Crooked river recently consisted of Clarence Deverell, Vick Ellis, Lawrence Evans and Kenneth Ellis. On account of high and muddy water they did not have much luck, but said they had a wonderful trip.

Norwood Johnson will play the ukulele and mouth harp and Louise Johnson the piano for the party to be given this evening at Columbia grange hall. Cards will be provided for those who wish to play. These parties are much enjoyed by the people of the community.

Mildred Ellis, a poultry club girl, has a hen which laid five double yolked eggs in six days. Each measured 6 1/4 by 8 1/4 inches.

Mrs. Ethel Smith Stuart has been engaged as teacher for the Hurlburt school for next year.

Roofing

FOR SHERIFF

A. L. Stephens

A. L. Stephens, familiarly known as "Big Steve," who is seeking the republican nomination for sheriff of Multnomah county, reviews the recent crime situation in Portland and on the county and says that the criminal element appears to have the upper hand in the community.

He pledges himself to a policy of rigid law enforcement, if elected sheriff, to wage immediate, fearless and incessant war upon the criminal and degenerate, to organize and personally lead a force capable of combating with the dangerous elements, and to cooperate with every sincere force available for that purpose.

Mr. Stephens promises, if elected to lower taxes by the careful study and practice of economy in public business.

Favors Lower Taxes.

"It now costs annually approximately one-twentieth of the assessed valuation of every taxpayer's property to live, to do business or maintain a home in Multnomah county," says Mr. Stephens. "This is a heavier load than can be carried by ordinary citizens, and it is entirely too great a burden to be imposed upon the average business man, and struggling home owner, causing in many instances actual deprivation of the real necessities of life.

"The administration of our county government is far from perfect and, if an executive could be elected who would address himself diligently and intelligently to the task, undoubtedly numerous methods of effecting economy could be put into effect.

"Therefore, as sheriff of the county, I would issue an invitation to all our county officials to meet in conference with me at least once a month with a view to eliminating duplications, waste, extravagance and inefficiency and to put into practice from time to time more economic and efficient methods of administration. I will at all times stand ready to cooperate with every willing official and citizen to reduce our county administration cost.

Favors Home Industry.

Mr. Stephens most emphatically pledges himself to further the practice of buying Oregon made goods for use by the public bodies in Oregon, thereby furnishing employment for our people and encouraging Oregon capital to embark in Oregon industries.

Smith-Hughes Boys Have Happy Evening

The boys of the Smith-Hughes agricultural department of the high school had a big meeting Wednesday evening. Twenty-seven of the boys were present and lots of enthusiasm was shown in all the sports of the evening. Two double basketball games started the program. Other features were boxing, wrestling, three-legged races, potato contests, a barnyard chorus, a few union contests and a final tug-of-war.

Dorsey Dent assisted Edward B. Starkey, the agricultural instructor, in the evening's entertainment.

After the games in the high school gym, the boys assembled in the cafeteria and agricultural room, where ice cream and cake were served. A cheer was given Tracy Anderegk for the ice cream. Howard Lindrooth, the agricultural club president, made a short talk urging the complete support of every boy in the club activities.

VICTORY

Mrs. H. W. Cooley arranged a pleasant surprise dinner last Sunday in honor of her husband's birthday. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong and children, Walter and Eva, and Mrs. Hazel Stockton and Chris Mullen of Portland.

T. E. Scott recently purchased a new White truck and is doing general trucking.

HILLSVIEW

The county librarians visited Hillsview school Tuesday and were delighted to find that every one of the pupils in the upper grade room had earned a reading certificate by reading and then writing a report on five especially recommended books.

Tom Donahue was quite seriously injured when he fell from a scaffold on Miss Pauline Heacock's house which he and Arthur Heacock were reshingling early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Huber, whose wedding was an affair of last week have returned from their honeymoon.

FOR LOWER HOUSE

Allan Bynon

As will be seen from the above picture, Allan Bynon is a young man of clean-cut appearance, an attorney of Portland, and has had legislative experience. He is a candidate for nomination to the state legislature on the republican ticket.

His slogan reflects his character. It is this: "Clean government; laws to promote the prosperity and happiness of our people."

VICTORY

Mrs. Leon Caddy, who has been confined to her bed, is somewhat improved in health. Mrs. Frank Caddy is assisting in the care of her and about the house.

What might have been a very serious accident occurred last Saturday night at the Victory school corner when a car, in making the turn, left the road and went over a 15-foot embankment. No one was seriously hurt.

At a board meeting of the Victory school directors recently held, Mrs. Bernice Holmes was elected to teach the next term.

The Victory baseball team defeated the Rockwood team Sunday afternoon on the latter's field, the score being 13 to 6.

Miss Alma Bickford of Portland and Miss Crystal Hayden of Gresham were week-end guests of Vera Stafford, while Eva Stafford spent the time at the Bickford home in Portland.

The Victory Calf club will hold its next meeting at the home of A. O. Stafford May 5. He is asking all members to be present.

St. Johns Bridge Is Urgently Needed

People who figure closely on their tax expenditures can find no cause for alarm in the measure on the ballot at the primary election May 18, providing for the issuance of bonds in the sum of $4,250,000 for the construction of a bridge across the Willamette river at St. Johns, according to a statement issued by the Peninsula Bridge committee. The tax increase will be but a scant half mill on each $1000 assessed valuation. This simply means that if a home owner is assessed for $1000 each year his increase would be but 50 cents. It is doubtful if there can be found in the whole city one man or woman who would refuse to contribute 50 cents or a dollar to any project that has for its purpose a bigger and better Portland.

The Peninsula district where it is proposed to locate this bridge is Portland's great industrial area.

North of Broadway may be found one-third the population of the city and 70 per cent of its industries. These industries are valued at between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000, with a monthly payroll of more than $1,000,000 distributed in all parts of the city and county. In this important section there is not one bridge across the Willamette river, business and traffic having to depend entirely on an inadequate and obsolete ferry. South of Broadway there are seven bridges.

Men and women living in St. Johns and working in Linnton particularly feel the unreliability of this ferry. Frequently they arrive at the ferry slip in the morning only to find the boat out of commission. Sometimes they may be able to make the trip via the Broadway bridge a distance of about 15 miles. At other times they find this impossible. Only a few days ago, 12 men were deprived of a day's work and pay because they could not reach their places of employment, there being no ferry that day. They were all married men to whom a day's pay means much these times. It is their wives and children who particularly suffer.

High school children of Linnton cannot depend on the ferry and necessarily must make a 15-mile trip daily, whereas one of the best high schools in the city is located in St. Johns less than a mile away.

Aside from all this the ferry approaches are dangerous, nine lives already having been lost there.

These are facts and conditions for the voters to take into consideration on May 18 and vote in all fairness to relieve the situation.

Insurance funds for farm loans. No commission or brokerage. Very easy terms. B. W. Thorne.—Adv.
