Fruit Organization Votes to Dissolve

The special meeting of the stockholders of the Gresham Fruit Growers association was called Saturday and nearly 85 per cent of the stock was found to be represented.

It was unanimously decided to instruct the executive officers to transfer the cannery property to the Berry Growers Packing company.

An announcement was made that all owners of stock who hold assignment receipts of certificates should present them at the cannery office when par value will be paid, plus a six per cent dividend.

Another event of interest to the berry growing industry was the organization last Saturday of the directors of the Cooperative Berry Growers.

Saturday, May 12, was chosen as the date for berry field inspection, details of which will be announced later.

The semi-annual meeting of the cannery association members will

Extensive preparations are going on for the Jenny Lind concert which will be given at the high school gymnasium Friday evening in the interests of the building fund of the Saron Lutheran church.

The numbers for this program have been under rehearsal by the 20 members of the chorus for a year past. Perfection is their motto, and the concert to be presented Friday evening is one of polished detail.

Among the eight first sopranos of the chorus is Mrs. Enoch Sandeen, who possesses a voice of most pleasing quality. There are six second sopranos in the chorus, four first altos and two second altos.

The Boring I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges attended the Clackamas county convention at Oregon City on Saturday. The various lodges of the county were royally entertained by the Oregon City lodge.

After the long period of worship in the old church on Roberts avenue, the present optimistic move to the larger building and more central location at Fifth and Main street is decidedly a signal note of progress in Christian warfare.

These pictures show the home life and customs of the people and some of their ceremonies, as well as the methods used by the missionaries to reach these heathen people.

Dr. W. B. Holden, superintendent of Portland sanitarium, will speak in the Gresham Seventh Day Adventist church Friday evening, May 4, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Holden is an entertaining speaker at all times and it will be well worth the effort to hear him Friday evening.

Jenny Lind Chorus to Sing in Gresham

The day replete with fitting exercises, both of farewell to the old and welcome to the new, the dedicatory services of Zion Evangelical church, were held Sunday.

A brief service beginning at 11 o'clock was held in the old church on Roberts avenue, which for the past 18 years has been the place of worship of the Evangelical congregation.

The morning sermon was delivered by the Rev. C. Warber of Everett, Washington, and was followed by an address by the Rev. August E. Binder of Seattle. Local pastors, the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm and the Rev. E. G. Judd, and the Rev. C. Hoffman of Portland participated in the afternoon service.

The dedicatory services were uplifting and inspiring. The total attendance for the day was 330. The excellent sermons and talks by the visiting pastors and the ministers of Gresham were much appreciated.

TEMPERANCE WOMEN SEEK LAW OBSERVANCE

The Gresham Woman's Christian Temperance Union met with Mrs. Frank Peak last Thursday. The attendance and interest was very good.

Since the last meeting a dozen palmans had been completed and sent to the Childrens Farm Home. This was made possible through the courtesy of Mrs. Percy Giese.

What is called the patriotic roll has been circulated in the Sunday schools, and nearly 100 signatures were received. This is an enrollment of young people between the ages of 14 and 24, who pledge themselves to abstain from all intoxicants and as patriots work for law observance.

There will be six events. The races proper will start at 2:30 p. m., preceded by the time trials starting about 1 p. m.

In the race program will be eight of the fastest cars classified in the time trials in a ten-lap race; then the eight fastest cars for ten laps, eliminating the money-winners of the first race; then the next fastest cars in ten laps, eliminating the money winners of the first two races. Then will come the consolation race for non-money winners, followed by the big free-for-all, 25 laps, which promises to be one of the most spectacular races ever witnessed on a half-mile dirt track in these parts.

The association has guaranteed to have all the speed the track will take and the best drivers who pilot northwest race cars.
