Gresham Locals

Among the Vancouver, Washington, marriage licenses listed in a Portland newspaper appear the names of Emil V. Nelson of Portland and Mrs. Maybelle O. V. Jackson of Gresham.

Mrs. Mary Welch visited over the week-end with friends at Seattle and Fall City, Washington. From the latter place she made a visit to Snoqualmie falls, four miles distant. This beautiful fall of water, making a sheer drop of 268 feet, is said to have the greatest volume of water for its height of any falls in the United States, including Niagara. The falls develops 40,000 horse power which furnishes part of the energy for lights in Seattle and other coast cities. Fall City is 35 miles east of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen called Sunday on Mrs. Larsen's brother, J. F. Wilmarth of Sheridan, Oregon, who has been ill for several months. They were accompanied by Mr. Wilmarth's sons, Morris and Ward, of Portland, and Mrs. Morris Wilmarth and children.

Dick Johnson has improved the appearance of the Triple "A" Service station by the addition of some shrubs and flowers.

J. A. Douglas, who with his yoke of cows and covered wagon has been staying for the past week on the fair grounds, has rented ten acres and a house from Mrs. Mary Fritz south of the Cedar school, and will move at once to begin his occupation of farming. Mr. Douglas is 77 years old, but looks forward to his spring plowing and other farm work with as much enthusiasm as a young man.

M. D. Kern moved yesterday from the upstairs rooms he has been occupying in the Sell building to the Hornish apartments on First street.

Mrs. Harold Richmond, formerly on the local telephone exchange, is now employed as saleslady at the Newberg Packing company. Mrs. Edith Shoupe of Troutdale has begun work on the exchange boards.

Mrs. C. D. Cathey has been elected a delegate by the local society of the Woman's Missionary society to a four-day missionary convention to be held at the Alberta Free Methodist church May 3-6. The Cathey quartet, consisting of D. M. Cathey, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cathey and son Alan, will sing Thursday evening at the opening exercises of the convention.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenman of Fairview Friday, April 27, an eight-pound son. Mother and baby are doing well at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bushong.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Knox, who moved into their home on East Powell street during the week-end, are lamenting the loss of a good kitchen range and a full set of dishes which they purchased with other furniture at the time they bought the house five years ago. The removal of these articles was made without their knowledge at some time between the occupancy periods of their tenants. Mr. and Mrs. Knox recently came from Usk, Washington, near Spokane, near which place Mr. Knox was engaged as a teacher and his wife as a housekeeper for 18 years in an Indian school under the supervision of the federal civil service department. Mr. Knox has now been retired on a pension.

Elmer Judd, proprietor of the Judd Fuel company, has leased the building recently purchased by A. Barnes joining his residence property on the east, and is having it converted into a four-room modern residence and fuel office. Mr. Barnes, Olof Virrell and Tom Miller are doing the carpenter work, and Ralph Davidson the plumbing. Four rooms and a bathroom are being partitioned into living quarters for the family, while the southwest corner will be used for an office. A coal and briquet shed, 16 by 60 feet in size, will be erected at the rear for the housing of fuel. Mr. Barnes purchased the building, formerly known as the Beaver property, from Mrs. Mary Tomlinson of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex O'Dell and sons Kenneth and Roy moved yesterday into the Michel house on West Powell street. The O'Dell family came to Oregon about two years ago from California. Recently they have been living at Eagle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Roberts, Mrs. John Hansen and a Portland friend, Mrs. Harold Anderson, drove to Vernonia Monday where they visited friends and made a tour of the large mills.

Virginia Felton, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Felton, is recovering from the effects of a tonsil operation which she underwent Friday in a Portland hospital.

Mrs. Charley Pfohl of Livingston, Montana, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. W. Rose of Portland, will spend a few days at the home of Mrs. J. Q. McClure. Mrs. Pfohl and Mrs. Rose came today, the latter returning to her home the same evening.

Mrs. T. A. Felton has accepted the position of saleslady for electrical equipment handled by the Portland Electric Power company and will demonstrate the various appliances as opportunity offers. She will make her headquarters at the local office of the P. E. P.

Darrel Cowden, his aunt Mrs. Laura Beauchamp and her son Earl of Lusk, Wyoming, arrived this morning for an indefinite stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen. Mrs. Beauchamp was slightly injured and her nine-year-old son sustained cuts around the mouth as the result of an accident near Palmer, Utah, when their car left the road, striking a fence. While their injuries are not serious, they will receive further medical aid. The Wyoming people may decide to stay in this part of the west if they find a satisfactory location.

S. E. Hall, county agricultural agent, was operated on yesterday at Good Samaritan hospital for sinus trouble by Dr. Augustus B. Bailey. Mr. Hall stood the operation well. He will remain at the hospital for a few days.

Mrs. Etsell Jones of Bremerton, Washington, returned to her home Saturday after a week's visit in Gresham and Portland. While here she was the guest of her husband's father and sister, Frank C. Jones and Mrs. Pearl Mack. Mrs. Jones was accompanied on her visit by Mrs. Mabel Cox of Bremerton.

Mrs. H. S. Alexander has returned from an extended visit with two sons and several nieces and their families, her visit extending over seven months. The time was spent in Wichita and Emporia, Kansas, Pueblo, Colorado, and Los Angeles. She reports a delightful visit and is much improved in health. She is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Ott.

Gresham flower lovers are making an effort to form a club for mutual benefit and pleasure and for the purpose of making their home grounds and their city more attractive. A meeting will be held at the library Wednesday evening, May 2, to discuss the matter and, if advisable, form an organization. All interested in the cultivation of flowers are invited to attend.

J. A. Bushong was happily surprised Monday evening when 40 friends gathered at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. V. Whetzel in honor of his birthday. The evening was spent in reminiscences and in listening to several fine musical selections, while James Bushong gave a reading, "When Paw He Was a Boy". Refreshments followed the program. Portland guests were Mr. Bushong's son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bushong, his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rugg, and his brother-in-law and niece the Rev. S. G. Roper and Mrs. Carl Cunningham.

A birthday surprise was tendered Miss Inez Lusted at her home Saturday evening at which were present besides Miss Lusted, Mrs. C. E. Schurr, Mrs. Gus Donley, Mrs. Carl Dahl, Mrs. Keith Bertleson, Mrs. E. L. Stafford, Mrs. F. A. Lundquist and Mrs. E. B. Kirkwood. Music and lunch were enjoyed.

The members of the Gresham Rebekah lodge are making plans for a general social and get-together program to be staged Monday evening, May 7, at the I. O. O. F. hall. Vocal and instrumental musical numbers are being arranged, also readings and comic songs. The entertainment will be open to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Todd and son Richard and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Irwin of Portland enjoyed a week-end fishing trip to the Deschutes river near Maupin. They made a fine catch of Rainbow trout.

House guests of the Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann over the week-end were Mrs. M. Goos, Miss Amanda Schaefer, Miss Leona Beckman, and Miss Amelia Beckman, all of Spokane, Washington. The visitors were members of the Rev. Mr. Horstmann's former charge at Spokane. They greatly enjoyed their visit and the fine dedicatory exercises of the new Evangelical church which took place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller have returned to their home on Roberts avenue, after spending seven months in Portland. Arrangements have been made to keep their daughter, Virginia, in Kern school in Portland, where she will finish the fourth grade in June.

Word received from Mrs. Roy H. Gibbs, who for several days past has been at the bedside of her brother, Charley Mewhirter, at Newberg, announces his death which occurred Monday. He had been in failing health for the past year. Mr. Mewhirter, who was an overseas man, was for several years a resident of Gresham. The funeral will be held at Newberg Thursday.

MAN SO NERVOUS GETS SORE WHEN SPOKEN TO "It actually irritated me to have anyone talk to me. I was so nervous. Vinol ended this and I feel wonderful now."—Wm. Fahy.

Vinol is a compound of iron, phosphates, cod liver peptone, etc. The very FIRST bottle makes you sleep better and have a BIG appetite. Nervous, easily tired people are surprised how QUICK the iron, phosphates, etc., give new life and pep. Vinol tastes delicious.—Gresham Drug Co. Adv.

SANDY BLUFF Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wilkenson entertained the former's brother Ray and wife of Portland and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wilkenson at dinner Sunday. Mrs. C. J. Wilkenson was on a shopping tour in Portland Friday. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Watkins entertained Mr. Watkins' mother and three brothers George, Jewell and Frank and Miss Rachel from Portland Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Watkins' wedding anniversary. Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Caldo and Mrs. G. S. Wilkenson attended the Baptist Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. A. R. Goger and report an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilkenson called Sunday afternoon at the G. S. Wilkenson home. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ault visited Sunday at the Carrell home. They found Mr. Carrell slowly improving. He is able to be up part of the time. H. H. Watkins, G. S. Wilkenson, A. J. Ault and Jos. Caldo received line from the car load that arrived in Gresham Saturday from the state lime plant. The lime is quarried at Wilderville and shipped to Salem where it is ground and distributed throughout the state. Mrs. A. J. Ault visited with Mrs. Helmer Johnson one day last week. On Saturday Mrs. Johnson was taken to Portland sanitarium where she will be operated on for goitre.

Ruby Junction. Howard Pate has finished re-tinting and painting the interior of his new home, recently purchased from Mrs. Ruth Troy. He has also erected a new up-to-date chicken house on his premises. Mrs. Lloyd Taylor and children, who have been staying for some time at the home of Mrs. Taylor's father George Stockton, have returned to Hoquiam, Washington, where Mr. Taylor is still under the doctor's care. They plan on returning to stay indefinitely with Mr. Stockton, as it will be several months before Mr. Taylor can work. Mrs. Taylor received in a Washington logging camp in September.

Mrs. Kate Kaser is still with her sister, Mrs. Rose Hunter of North Bend, where she was called two weeks ago owing to the serious illness of Mrs. Hunter who has heart trouble. At the last writing Mrs. Hunter was slightly improved. A jolly time was enjoyed Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brunner when 14 friends of their daughter Anna came in to help celebrate her 16th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keith and little daughters Dorothy and Jacqueline and Mr. and Mrs. N. Hudgens of Oregon City were Sunday callers on Mr. and Mrs. Kaser. Mr. Keith has recently moved from Knappa, Oregon, and has purchased an auto paint and repair shop in Portland where the family will move soon.
