

TUBERCULOSIS TAKES FORMER GRESHAM MAN
 Charley Mewhirter died at Newberg, Oregon, Monday, April 30, from tuberculosis from which he had suffered for the past year. The young man, who was 32 years of age, resided in Gresham for three years, leaving here about seven years ago.
 As a member of the United States marines for five years, Mr. Mewhirter saw service during the entire late World war, two months of this time being spent in France. He was in Nicaragua for two years. A military funeral was conducted Thursday for the deceased under the auspices of the Newberg post

American Legion.
 The survivors are the widow, Mrs. Estella Mewhirter; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mewhirter; two brothers, Howard of Langlois, Oregon and Max of Portland; three sisters, Mrs. Ethel Gibbs, of Gresham; Mrs. Edna Moore of Newberg; and Miss Elsie Mewhirter at the family home.
 Roy H. Gibbs, Frank and Clifford Gibbs drove to Newberg Thursday to attend the funeral. Mrs. Roy Gibbs, who had been at the home for several days, returned to Gresham with them.
 For expert window cleaning see S. Tajima, or leave orders with J. Ross Brown, Gresham, phone 2501.

Wilkes School Gets Clever Entertainer

Corliss (Grandpa) Bulger, affectionately known to thousands and thousands of radio fans as founder of "Our Gang" Sperry Flour company's children's hour, KEX, will take part in the closing exercises of Wilkes school Thursday evening, May 17, at 8 o'clock.
 Mr. Bulger is a cartoonist and very versatile and clever entertainer who has the gift of causing tears or laughter in his talks to hundreds of audiences during each year.
 Through his work in teaching children the value and good in kindness to animals and birds, Mr. Bulger has recently been awarded the Abraham Lincoln Humanitarian Medal by the National Humane association. As this is one of five medals of its kind awarded, its bestowal on Mr. Bulger is an indication of the wide recognition he has received in the humanitarian field in the United States.
 Sperry Flour company shares in the honor of the granting of this medal because of its wonderful work with the homing pigeons of which hundreds have been flown from schools where they have been used in nature studies by the teachers and pupils.

Dr. O. A. Hess, assistant county physician, and Miss Maud Hicks, public county health nurse, visited Wilkes school Tuesday and administered the second toxin anti-toxin treatment for the prevention of diphtheria. At this time 27 pupils received the second treatment and 14 received the first treatment. This makes two-thirds of the pupils who have taken advantage of this service offered through the county health department. Dr. Hess congratulated teachers and pupils on their good fortune in having escaped all epidemics during the school year.

W. H. Baillie, county club leader, visited Wilkes school Wednesday. He addressed the members of the Double Seven camp cookery and Busy Bee Sewing clubs, encouraging them to plan an exhibit at the county fair at Gresham telling of the various prizes offered for club work. The boys of the cooking club entertained Mr. Baillie with some snappy songs.

The primary room was the scene of a doll party Wednesday afternoon. Each girl took her doll to school that day. After the party refreshments of ice cream cones, candy and gum were enjoyed, a treat from the teacher, Mrs. Lucile Plunkett.

Miss Edna R. Carlyle, intermediate teacher, was given a pleasant surprise by her pupils on her birthday, April 30. She received a "shower" of handkerchiefs. Appropriate refreshments were served. Friday afternoon the Wilkes ball team defeated the Rockwood team 7 to 5 on the Wilkes field. Wm. Olney umpired the game. A number of Rockwood girls were present and proved very good boosters for their team.

W. H. Wells of Toppenish, Wash.,

"Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard"
 A Comedy in Three Acts. will be presented at
THE ARBOLEDA CLUB HOUSE
 Powell Valley Road
 and Fern Avenue
Wednesday Evening, May 9, 8 p. m.
 ADULTS 25c Children 15c

COMMUNITY SUPPER
 in honor of Mothers' Day given by Pleasant Home M. E. Ladies Aid at the Pleasant Home Methodist Church
Saturday, May 12 beginning at 7:45
 Fine Program to follow
 Children 20c ADMISSION Adults 35c

spent Tuesday night at "The Oasis" auto camp. Mr. Wells was on his way to Seaside with 14 horses, some of them riding ponies to be rented during the beach season, others large horses that will probably be used by the government at its training camp between Seaside and Warrenton.

Joe Fritz has gone to Longview, Wash., where he is employed by the Long-Bell company.
 P. Mason recently had his residence on the Barr road repainted. This is one of the outstanding homes in that section.

Jimmie Calcagno has returned from Good Samaritan hospital, where he recently underwent a minor operation.

Mrs. Edward Wilkes spent several days in Portland last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Brown of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich Burgener. The members of Lents grange gave a farewell party at their hall April 30 for their master, W. L. Hotchkiss, who left May 2 for St. Joseph, Missouri, where he will be employed by the Sam Hotchkiss manufacturing company. Those attending from this community were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edwards, Miss Mamie Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Miller.

S. B. Hall, county agricultural agent, who underwent an operation at Good Samaritan hospital last week for sinus trouble, has returned to his home.
SANDY BLUFF
 Mr. and Mrs. William Beatty are the proud parents of a son, born to them at the home of Mrs. Alonzo Radford May 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Burgseth are much pleased over the arrival of a seven-pound boy born to them Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkenson entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilkenson and two sons and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caldo, Sunday.

LUSTED SCHOOL TO HAVE FULL BASEMENT
 At a mass meeting of the Lusted school district patrons held last night it was unanimously decided to place a full cement basement under the present schoolhouse. The building will be raised four feet and excavations made for a basement to conform in size to a room suitable for gatherings. The Parent-Teacher association will make the basement its future meeting place, also it can be utilized by the children in winter as a playroom.

The Top Notch Jersey Calf club at Lusted now has 17 members, with W. M. Newlands as club leader. A fine meeting was held by them Saturday evening. Enough money has now been raised to pay the expenses of the boys to the state fair at Salem this fall.

The regular meeting of the Lusted Parent-Teacher association has been postponed from the coming Friday evening to Friday evening, May 18, at which time the eighth grade graduating exercises will take place. Officers for the coming year will be elected at that time.

DIVORCE GRANTED MARY A. PETERSON
 A divorce was granted last week in Circuit Judge Evans' court to Mary A. Peterson against Samuel Peterson on charges of cruelty and abuse of her minor children by a previous marriage. Mrs. Peterson was formerly Mrs. Mary Milne. She was married to Peterson March 6, 1922.

COTRELL
 Mrs. Mary Turner and Miss Helen Maxwell, teachers, deserve much credit for the splendid program which was presented by the school children Thursday evening. The play was entitled, "The Enchanted Garden." About a third of the students took part. The costumes were beautiful. The school children also carried off a big share of prizes at the track meet held at the Sandy Union high school Friday. Cooking, sewing, manual training and exhibits in the commercial department were given by the high school students. Several students from this community received ribbons for their splendid exhibits.

PLEASANT HOME
 Mrs. B. C. Altman will entertain for the Ladies Aid of the Baptist church Thursday afternoon with a silver tea. All women in the community will be welcome.

Mrs. Ara Lusted returned to her home last Tuesday from southern Oregon where she has been for nearly two months past, in Ashland and Eugene.

Phyllis Irene is the name chosen for the little daughter who came to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson. Their two older daughters Betty June and Mary Jean are spending this week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Nashah.

Miss Olive Rich, who has been in Portland for some time, is at her home here while recovering from a threatened attack of appendicitis.

The Orient P-T.A. convened at the schoolhouse Friday evening for the last meeting of the year. Election of officers was the leading event of the evening with the following result: president, the Rev. Andrew Johnson; vice president, Mrs. Mary Milne; secretary, Mrs. H. M. Tucker, treasurer, Mrs. Jas. Melton. After the business session a social hour was spent and then refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Lauderback are moving back to their home at Orient from Brightwood where they have resided for some time. Mr. Lauderback has been employed by the Sully Lumber company as bookkeeper, but has severed his connection there and will seek a location elsewhere. Mrs. Lauderback and son Billie will remain at Brightwood until the close of the school term.

Mrs. L. K. Miller was a visitor at the home of her brother, Kenneth Lauderback, and her mother Mrs. John Lauderback, who has been ill but is somewhat improved at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cannon of Portland were guests of Mrs. Cannon's sister, Mrs. James Melton, Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Melton of The Dalles are at the Melton home for an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. James Melton and daughter Alice spent the week-end at their former home at Molalla.

Jimmie Lauderback celebrated his fourth birthday Saturday with a party.

A special program and service appropriate to Mothers' Day will be given at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. All mothers in the community are invited to be present.
 Mrs. A. B. Wood has returned to her home on the Pipe Line road after many months' absence in California and in Portland. She is delighted to be at home again.

CORBETT
 Columbia grange met in regular all-day session Saturday, May 5 with 18 members, 13 visitors and five children. Edward Brown of Portland was the principal speaker. He gave a very interesting story of early land settlement, and seemed optimistic of the future for the farmer. Mrs. Lydia Ostrand planted a balm of Gilead tree on the grange grounds in memory of her father and mother, and the date of their coming to Oregon, also the date of their death was placed in a bottle at the base of the tree.

Mrs. M. E. Henderson has not sold her famous place, Crown Point chalet, as was stated in last week's items. The writer regrets this error in news items.

The Corbett Sunday school is planning a short program for Mothers' Day next Sunday morning at the close of Sunday school.
 Miss Evelyn Reed, a student at Monmouth, was at home Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sidwell from Beaverton were guests in the Frank Reed home Thursday.
 The Corbett baseball team played a game with Odell team at Odell and lost 6 to 12.

Eighteen ladies were in attendance at the silver tea given by the Dorcas society at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Bramhall last Wednesday. The society was divided into two groups for a membership drive. Mrs. George Perry and Mrs. Geo. Knieriem were chosen leaders.
 Mrs. Harry Tuttle of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed Thursday.

What you want, when you want it, as you want it—Want Ad it.

Areme Club Dance
 Masonic Hall, Gresham
FRIDAY, MAY 11
 MAY-DAY SPORT DANCE
 Wear Summer Clothes for Comfort
 Last Dance of the Season
 Ladies 25c Gentlemen 35c
 Gigray's Orchestra

Always... a square USED CAR deal from the Buick Dealer

 The Buick dealer is in business to stay. His future reputation depends upon his treating used car buyers fairly.
 He wants to please used car purchasers because he knows that satisfied used car customers are prospective new Buick buyers.
 The man who buys a good used car—honestly represented—at a fair price—receives splendid value in transportation.
 In his enthusiasm for the car he has bought, and the value he has received, it is only natural for him to look upon the dealer as his friend.
 The Buick dealer has many such friends because he represents the true condition of the used cars he offers for sale.
 And that is good business—for the Buick dealer, as well as the used car buyer.

BUICK MOTOR COMPANY
 FLINT, MICH.—DIVISION OF GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION
Walter W. Metzger
 Gresham SALES AND SERVICE Oregon City

"STAPLES"
 The Jewelry and Optical Store of the common people
 One of the finest stocks of Diamonds and Watches in the Northwest
 Optical Parlors second to none, and you will find prices very reasonable
356 Alder St., Portland
 Phone BEacon 8080

SERVICE
 Our equipment is at your disposal day or night. Our success is built on being ready to serve at any and all times.
Gates Funeral Home
 Gresham Lady Assistant
 Telephone 2471

Look Ahead!

 FARMALL TRACTORS
 BUY a McCormick-Deering Tractor now
 For many years of Successful Power Farming
 Built in several sizes—10-20 Regular Tread; 15-30 Regular Tread Farmall, for row crops.
H. O. TENNEY, 300 Belmont St., Portland, Ore.

ROCKWOOD
 The Rockwood Parent-Teacher association will sponsor a well-baby and pre-school clinic at the schoolhouse May 21 at 1 p. m. Dr. Helen Dennis of Portland will be the consulting physician. The contribution of the clinic to the community is to keep the well baby well and to send to school in good physical condition the children who will enter for the first time next September.

FAIRVIEW
 The Fairview grange will give a card party at the grange hall Friday evening. The grange will meet Saturday evening for its regular meeting. A varied program will be presented at the lecture hour at 8 o'clock to which the public is invited. A talk on research work has been promised. It is expected that the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis will be made the subject of an address. Musical numbers will also be contributed to the evening's program. The suppers which have been given at the grange hall during the winter will now be discontinued until fall.

POWELL VALLEY
 The young people of the Swedish Mission church will hold their meeting Thursday evening at the home of Emil Satterstrom. All young people of the community are invited to attend.
 For lowest rates on automobile, truck and general insurance see B. W. Thorne.—Adv.

Boys! make your own airplane at total cost of $1.25. Flies 600 feet, 2 1/2-foot wing spread. See Leslie St. Clair at Outlook office.

Buy with Confidence!
 for Economical Transportation

 During the last ninety days more new Chevrolet cars were delivered in this community than in any similar period in Chevrolet history—and most of these new car sales involved the trade-in of the purchaser's previous car. As a result, we have at this time a wide selection of used cars that have been thoroughly reconditioned—and which may be identified by the red "O. K. that counts" tag. Come in and make your selection while our used car stocks are complete.

USED CARS
 "with an OK that counts"
 A few of our exceptional Used Car values "with an OK that counts"

CHEVROLET FOUR-DOOR SEDAN 1927 Model at a Great Saving.
 CHEVROLET COACH 1927 Model...Refinished, retired, overhauled. This car is set up to give you a lot of dependable use and has an appearance you will be proud of. $225 down 12 months.

CHEVROLET TOURING 1924 Model. A car that has had a good home and stands ready to give the second purchaser many miles of the dependable service he pays for at $75 down; $15 per month.

CHEVROLET DELIVERY 1925 Model. One of the Improved Chevrolets reconditioned and O. K. d to insure you a lot of service. This would make an excellent berry car.

These cars all carry the O. K. that counts.
 Many more good cars to select from, ranging in price from $55 to $555

Shearer Chevrolet Co.
 GRESHAM, OREGON
 Dependability, Satisfaction and Honest Value