

GRESHAM OUTLOOK

Published every Tuesday and Friday at Gresham, Oregon, by the Outlook Publishing Co., H. L. St. Clair, Editor and Manager.

One year, $2.00, six months, $1.10, three months, trial subscription, 60c. Combination rates with all the Portland Dailies.

ADVERTISING Rates reasonable. Our representative will call.

Entered as second-class matter March 2, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Member of the State Editorial Association, Member of the National Editorial Association.

Apparently some "favorite sons" aren't favored.

If the Smiths would just stick together they might nominate and elect AL.

Hal Hoss was born in Portland. That ought to help put him over for secretary of state.

There's nothing like a substantial man with a suggestive name for public office. For instance, you can bank on Banks.

Wherever you look that hand of Isaac Staples is pointing right at you, reminding you that you should re-elect him to the state senate.

The great republican national convention is only a few weeks off, then the question will be, Who is for Hoover?

The two most prominent names before the American public today are Hoover and Smith. Even Lindy has fallen into the background.

A suggestion: Always have a book of jokes in front of you when you go to the telephone. You won't notice the wait and will be in good humor when central says, "Number 7."

The great, quadriennial, general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, meeting in Kansas City this month, ought to help prepare the way for the great republican national convention in the same city next month.

Frank G. Smith, candidate for nomination for state representative in Multnomah county, is an attorney of Portland and well known in the eastern part of this county. His parents were the late Jacob and Agatha Smith and he was born on a farm near Springdale.

Since the democratic ballot will be mostly blank lines, may we suggest that our democratic friends write in the names of good republicans, many of whom will be elected anyway, but it would be such an advantage for them to be able to say they had the endorsement of both parties.

The Outlook has an unusual display in its front windows. They have been turned into a picture gallery and already some 40 fine portraits or other works of art are hung in the space. It is quite an exhibit. All friends are invited to view the display. There is no charge and, if wanted, a catalog will be furnished.

Evidently the newspapers, and other publications, have been more in favor of the candidates in reaching the public ear than the so-called Voter's Pamphlet. Of the 52 candidates for nomination as state representatives on the republican ticket for the 18th district (Multnomah county) only 35 have their names and faces in the pamphlet.

Some candidates are being criticized for untruthful or misleading statements on their cards or literature. For instance, a candidate for county school superintendent claims to have had experience as superintendent of schools when we are informed on good authority that he never held such a position, or any school position higher than that of principal.

County School Superintendent W. C. Alderson isn't saying much about his candidacy for nomination to succeed himself, perhaps because he is very sure of nomination and re-election. He has the endorsement of many leading school and county officers and citizens.

SOME MAN! It takes some man to be an efficient secretary of state. Sam Koser is that kind of a man and has held the office as long as the law permits. Hence he is not a candidate. But Hal Hoss is, and he is the kind of a man who can do the work needed and conduct the office in an efficient and acceptable manner.

Hoss would make good anywhere. He is that kind of a man. He is young, virile, clean, affable and an indomitable worker. He knows what is required and what he can do, and his friends know he is the man for the place.

Even want ads are news when they appear in the Outlook.

Church Services

MOTHERS TO BE HONORED SUNDAY

All mothers present will be guests of honor at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. There will be several special musical numbers in keeping with the spirit of Mothers' Day. The sermon topic as announced by the pastor, the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm is, "A Mother's Throne."

The Sunday school meets at the usual hour next Sunday. Plans are also under way for a Daily Vacation Bible school to begin on the 28th of May and to continue for two weeks. Miss Maud Aldrich will be in charge.

Sunday evening is Anniversary Day for the Epworth League, with Mrs. Mary Dodge as the leader. Special plans are under way to make this service one of unusual interest. Seven o'clock is the hour. The pastor preaches at 8 o'clock on the topic, "Highways or Byways."

It is a study of the real values of life that will be interesting.

MOTHERS' DAY SUBJECT AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Among the special days that are observed throughout the year it is very appropriate that Mother's Day should have a place. Next Sunday morning the pastor of the Baptist church will speak to Mothers and his subject will be "Mothers That Build Nations." The Bible school will be held at the usual hour beginning at 9:45, and the morning preaching service will be at 11 o'clock. The young people of the B. Y. P. U. will meet the congregation at the door and present each one with the appropriate flower with which to observe the day.

The young people of the church will conduct the evening service which will begin at 7:30 instead of 7 o'clock. The choir will render special Mothers' Day selections in the morning service.

EVANGELICAL PASTOR ABSENT NEXT SUNDAY

The Sunday school of the Evangelical church will meet at 10 a. m. Sunday. The lower classes have been assigned individual class rooms which the children and teachers are greatly enjoying. There will be no preaching services Sunday due to the absence of the pastor who will be attending the annual district conference at Everett, Washington.

MISSIONARY WOMEN PLAN FINE PROGRAM

The jubilee gathering of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ott on Tuesday afternoon, May 15, beginning at 2:30. An interesting program of music, with readings and recitations on the subject of the "Mountain Whites" and the various homes being maintained by the general society will be given.

Solos will be rendered by Mrs. Elsie Cogswell, Mrs. Leslie Wald and June Forbes. Benny and June Forbes will sing a duet and Margaret Ott will play a violin number. The members are expected at this time to bring or send their coin cards with their birthday money.

AGGRESSIVE BUSINESS MAN FOR LEGISLATURE

J. N. Barde

"Put the man in humanity," says Jack N. Barde, well known Portland business man, who is on the republican nominating ticket for the legislature. He stands for Oregon, its people and their welfare, more industries, bigger payrolls.

If elected, Mr. Barde pledges the governor he will aid in the re-organization of the state government, vote to repeal useless laws, work for economy, and in general for the industrial development of Oregon.

In his platform he says: "If nominated and elected I will work for legislation having for its purpose strict economy in government and reduction of taxes; retention of the direct primary; application of business methods in the state's affairs; state aid for children's farm home; stringent enforcement of all criminal laws especially those against vice; promotion of welfare of disabled veterans and ex-service men; elimination of state institutions from politics; protection of fish and game; old age pensions; sensible revision of automobile license laws; promotion of tourist traffic; development of the state's resources and Port of Portland; creation of new taxable wealth; more smokestacks, bigger payrolls."

People of eastern Multnomah county will remember Mr. Barde's activity in connection with the county fair and his interest in humanitarian activities. He is a generous supporter of many charitable activities of Portland.

CANT TALK TO WIFE, TOO CROSS AND NERVOUS

"Even my husband couldn't talk to me. I was so cross and nervous. Vinol has made me a different and happy woman."—Mrs. N. McColl. Vinol is a compound of iron, phosphates, cod liver peptone, etc. The very FIRST bottle makes you sleep better and have a BIG appetite. Nervous, easily tired people are surprised how QUICK the iron, phosphates, etc., give new life and pep. Vinol tastes delicious. Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.
