

NEWS FROM MANY NEIGHBORHOODS

Orient School Has Closing Exercises

Nine young people received diplomas of graduation from the Orient grade school at the commencement exercises conducted Wednesday evening. Those receiving them were Bobbie Beehler, May Hemmers, Billie Holmes, Janie Knapp, Melba Magnuson, Harold Olson, Signe Olson, Clyde Resare, and Robert Sloop. The diplomas were presented by Victor Johnson, chairman of the board of directors.

The address was delivered by Charles N. Walker, president of the Northwestern School of Commerce, of Portland, who spoke on the subject, "Conquering". The address was considered very forceful and appropriate for the occasion.

Janie Knapp spoke briefly and fittingly for the class, concluding her remarks with the presentation of a beautiful picture to F. D. Oleman, the principal, as a tribute of appreciation of his services as a teacher and principal. Mr. Oleman responded briefly, concluding his remarks with the presentation of a beautiful vase to Melba Magnuson who has the enviable and unusual record of perfect attendance for two complete years not having been absent or tardy once during this time.

The music for the program was furnished by the Pleasant Home orchestra, Nellie and Pattie Greenwood, Mary Louise Dodge, Leslie Walrad, and Mrs. Leslie Walrad. The invocation and the benediction were delivered by the Rev. Oliver Gill and the Rev. A. Johnson, respectively.

The auditorium was tastefully decorated with the class colors of pink and white. Large quantities of snowball and pink Hawthorne blossoms were artistically arranged with a background of moss from the woods. An arch of pink and white crepe paper streamers was constructed over the front of the stage with the name of the school and the class motto, "Rowing, not Drifting" done in the same colors and material.

Pleasant Home Locals
The junior choir will meet at the Methodist parsonage Saturday at 3 o'clock.

An interesting day is planned by the Methodists for next Sunday. The services will be held at the usual hours, the Sunday school at 10 o'clock and the church service at 11:15. The Epworth League devotional meeting will be at 7 and the evening church service at 8. The juniors will furnish the special music for the morning service. The Rev. Oliver Gill will take for his subject for this service "Quo Vadis?" A brief meeting of the Workers' conference will follow. The service being planned for the evening hour is out of the ordinary in that it is to be conducted in honor of the grade school graduation classes of the Orient, Cottrell, Victory, and Lusted schools, which classes are to attend the service in a body and sit in a section reserved for them and the teachers of these schools. Of course the parents and other students are expected to come. The pastor's subject for this service is to be: "A Question to Ask—a Question to Answer." It is planned to have some special musical numbers. All people not attending services elsewhere are cordially invited to attend this service.

Mrs. Nellie Price has returned to her home at Orient from Ocean Park, Calif., where she has lived for a year. She expects to remain here for the summer.

The usual order of service will be followed next Sunday at the Baptist church. The pastor, the Rev. Gordon Johnson, will preach both morning and evening, at 11 and 8 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. will meet at 7:30 and the Bible school at 10 o'clock. The contest in the Bible school, which has been running the past three months, was ended last Sunday when the "Blues" reached 212 degrees—the boiling point—while the "Reds" were just beginning to "steam" at 200 degrees. The winners are keenly waiting to know what the reward will be.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nelson and Mrs. W. E. Wheeler represented Multnomah grange at the Pomona meeting of Multnomah county Wednesday at Rockwood grange hall. The next session of Pomona will be held with Multnomah grange in September.

Mrs. Frederick Johnson and her baby daughter Phyllis arrived last Monday at the home of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Nasshahn, for a stay of several days before going to her own home.

Mrs. Laura Stanton and two small sons of Portland were guests at the Miller and Chase homes Thursday. Mrs. Stanton was a former resident here when she was Miss Laura Ulrich.

Mrs. Josephine Anderson and little granddaughter, Dorothy Fields, left Wednesday morning for Port Angeles, Wash., to visit Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Mrs. Ira Dalley, who has been ill for the past three months.

Dance Halls Get Licenses.
According to a recent decision of the Multnomah county commissioners, licenses for the operation of dance halls will be granted to A. F. Devereaux at Cedarville park and to James McGill at Blue Lake.

POWELL VALLEY MAN IS LAID TO REST

Funeral services, attended by a good-sized crowd, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Undenominational temple for the late Samuel Carrell who died at his home in Powell Valley Monday at the expiration of three months of suffering. The Rev. S. F. Pitts brought words of comfort to the grief-stricken family, the members of which thought that Mr. Carrell was recovering until shortly before his death.

A beautiful array of floral offerings conveyed to the relatives the deep regard in which Mr. Carrell was held in his community. Miss Martha Hagberg, accompanied at the piano by her sister Mrs. Fred Hoss, sang, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", "The Old Rugged Cross" and "There'll Be No Dark Valley". The pallbearers were L. A. Wrenn, J. M. Hillyard, A. J. Ault, H. G. Lake, Henry Withon and John Williams.

The widow, Mrs. Cora Carrell, and five children survive. Interment took place in Douglass cemetery.

HATCHERY CLOSES SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ekstrand, proprietors of the Maple Hatchery, have closed a very successful season, having hatched over 25,000 baby chicks since the first of January, besides 2300 little turkeys. The turkeys were hatched for Mrs. Ekstrand's brothers, Tonkard and Chester Edholm, who own a farm near Albany. The Edholm brothers expect to raise about 5000 turkeys this season.

Pleasant Valley Personals.
W. L. Kesterson and son Willard were home over Sunday, from the logging camps.

An enjoyable event of last Sunday was a luncheon given by Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brasswell at their home, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bramblett of Birmingham, Alabama. Mr. Bramblett is a nephew of Mrs. Brasswell. A number of guests from Portland were present on the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rolfe of Damascus were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sager Monday afternoon.

Carrol D. Bush of the Gilbert district was a valley visitor on business Tuesday.

O. J. Forsgren has sold his 55-acre farm on Foster road to H. Paulson. Mr. Paulson is an experienced dairyman, and has been conducting a dairy in this locality for a number of years. At present he has the J. Z. Olson place leased.

Miss Mariam Savo was home from Monmouth over Saturday and Sunday.

Tonkard Edholm of near Albany was a caller at the C. A. Ekstrand home Tuesday.

W. J. Gilchrist of Seattle visited Wednesday with his brother, F. H. Gilchrist.

Muriel Bowen of St. Helens is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ruby Johnson.

Miss Florence Richey came from Westport to spend the week-end with home folks. School will close at Westport this week, when Miss Richey will come home for the summer.

LUSTED
Mrs. E. Dhulist entertained the two teachers of the Lusted school, Miss Edith Baker and Miss Lois Trimble, also Mrs. C. A. Baker, at dinner recently. Music made the evening pass enjoyably.

HILLSVIEW

No church service will be held Sunday at the Hillsview Mission church as the pastor, the Rev. O. F. Larson, will be in Everett, Wash., in attendance at the Pacific Northwest conference of Mission churches. Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock.

The Misses Edith and Elsa Johnson and Miss Amy Noreen came home from the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth to spend the Mothers' Day week-end with parents and friends. Miss Edith Johnson will teach her first term of school next year at Greenwood, three miles east of Sandy.

How to make Your Kitchen inviting
The kitchen of the modern home combines charm with utility. You can make your kitchen inviting—a place where you'll love to work!
Start with the walls and woodwork. Paint them with FULLERGLO. Use it also for the built-in fixtures; and for the kitchen furniture.
With the pleasing pastel tints of this finish, you can make your kitchen actually a beautiful room—yet entirely practical; for FULLERGLO is remarkably durable. Even indelible pencil marks can be washed from its smooth, hard surface!
FULLERGLO is so easy to apply that you can use it yourself with assurance of success, but for large jobs it is better to get a Master Painter. A descriptive color card is yours for the asking. See your Fuller Dealer, listed below.
