

Gresham Locals

The W.C.T.U. will meet with Mrs. George Honey Thursday afternoon, May 24, at 2:30. The county institute of the W. C. T. U. held in Gresham Thursday, was well attended and of decided interest.

The J. H. Metzger building at the corner of Main and Powell streets is being repainted by Ezra Thomas and his assistants.

Miss Helen Lawrence, who has been teaching the past year at Pilot Rock, returned home Monday for the summer's vacation. She has been engaged to teach next year at O'Dell, Oregon, near Hood River.

Mrs. Carrie Chappell of Eugene and Mrs. L. P. Gilbert of Portland spent Sunday night with Miss Elva Dolan. Mrs. Chappell is teacher in the boys' training school at Woodburn.

Stafford Dowsett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dowsett, is one of a class of 46 to be graduated the coming month from the school of pharmacy of Oregon Agricultural college. It is an interesting note that every county of the state with the exception of three is represented in the graduation class this year of the state college at Corvallis.

The Southeast circle of the Gresham Methodist church is planning a bake sale to be held at the A. W. Metzger & Co. store, Saturday, June 2.

Public Memorial services will be held on Decoration Day at the Gresham high school gymnasium, beginning at 10 a. m. The exercises are being planned under the auspices of the local American Legion post and the auxiliary. A prominent member of the American Legion post in Portland will deliver the principal address. Special music will be provided.

M. E. Wilson of Portland has been transferred from the Portland office to Gresham to assist in the local branch of the Portland Electric Power company. With his wife he plans to move here as soon as suitable living quarters can be found.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. George Honey. The leader, Mrs. C. O. Hoenig, has announced as the subject for several talks, "Who's Who in the World and National W. C. T. U. Work?" A one-act play entitled, "Mrs. Jackson Sees the Light", will be given. Special musical numbers have been promised. Those who wish transportation are asked to meet at the Gresham drug store at 2:15.

The Rev. H. L. Weiss, pastor of Fremont Methodist Episcopal church, will deliver the address Thursday evening to the eighth grade graduating class at the Gresham grade school. The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The eighth graders with their principal, C. M. Quicksall, are enjoying their annual picnic today at Welches. Among other diversions they have planned to climb Huckleberry mountain.

Margie Shaw, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miller, went to San Francisco Saturday where she will spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Young. Word was recently received that Mrs. Young is seriously ill. Margie made the trip alone on the Coast special.

Mrs. Virgil Haskell arrived Monday from Pilot Rock, Oregon, for an indefinite visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bechill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen visited Sunday with Mrs. Robert Miller in a Salem hospital. Mrs. Miller recently underwent a serious operation.

Mrs. Elna B. Dye, who has been making her home with her son, Hurley Dye on the Base Line road north of Gresham, died Friday, May 18, at the age of 65 years. The body was shipped to McCook, Neb., for interment.

Ted Johnson left today for Bellevue, Kansas. At the A. W. Metzger & Co. store, where Mr. Johnson is employed as bookkeeper, his friends refused to admit that this is a wedding trip, but other friends insist that he will return in about three weeks with a bride. Mrs. Marian Hoss is taking his place in the office during his absence.

Plans are being made by the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school for a daily vacation Bible school to begin next Monday, May 23, and continue for two weeks. Miss Maude Aldrich has been secured as superintendent. She will be assisted by a competent corps of teachers. Plans will be made to care for boys and girls from kindergarten age to those now finishing the grade school. A small registration fee will be asked, otherwise there will be no expense to the children. The school will gladly welcome any who wish to attend.

A much appreciated improvement made this week by workmen for the P. E. P. company is the widening of the crossing of Hood avenue east of the Mt. Hood depot. This has been practically a one-way crossing since its construction several years ago.

An unidentified man was seriously injured at Troutdale this morning when he was partially drawn under the wheels of a moving freight train which he was attempting to board. One hand was cut off and the man was severely bruised and cut. He was brought to Gresham for treatment and later removed to the county hospital.

The Gresham commercial club at a called meeting last night voted to participate in the Merrikana parade on Friday of Rose Festival week, June 15. The club has arranged to enter the Gresham band again this year as its part in the parade. A committee will be appointed by President Mealey to handle the finances.

A guest at the home of J. S. Bush on Friday was his brother, C. C. Bush of Portland, former Ford dealer in Troutdale. C. C. Bush is now writing life insurance for a well known company. Mr. Bush still retains his interest in an auto camp at Taft, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Marlin of Caldwell, Idaho, have been here for a week or more, staying at Miss Lucy Adams' home on Powell street. They were looking for a small farm in this vicinity. They left on Saturday for Hood River.

Excavations have been started for the new modern home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Akin on Second street. Claude Stockton has the contract for the building.
