

Gresham Locals

H. W. Allen of Portland has been sent to Gresham by the Portland Electric Power company to take the position of lineman in local territory. He will fill the place made vacant by the transfer of Roger Newcombe to line work with the P. E. P. in Portland.

The Gresham circle of the Evangelical Women's Union will hold a bake sale at the Sanitary Meat market Saturday, June 9.

Franklin, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Akin, was operated on for appendicitis at Good Samaritan hospital Wednesday.

Ray Strong, who is now working in Portland, plans to leave soon for Corvallis where he will do the interior decorating on the new Memorial building to be erected at the Oregon State college. The decorations are in imitation marble similar to those recently placed in Portland's modern theater buildings.

A. W. Metzger & Co. have added a new half-ton Dodge Brothers truck to their fleet of delivery cars.

L. D. Calkins has disposed of his two lots and uncompleted large new house in the Clananah addition to the Rev. S. F. Pitts, who is purchasing the property as an investment. Mr. and Mrs. Calkins left Wednesday for eastern Oregon where they will probably locate permanently.

Clover Cooking club of Gresham held its final meeting yesterday at the home of the leader, Mrs. B. L. Walrad Sr., when Frances Cooper was chosen delegate to the O. S. C. summer school. The girls are planning a bake sale of their cooking for Saturday at the Walrad Mercantile store, when they hope to complete the fund necessary for the expenses of their delegate. The officers of the club are Lucile Jennings, president; Marie Kinkley, vice president; and Helen Lewis, secretary.

Invitations have been issued to a number of Gresham people to the marriage of Bertrand F. Aldrich, former Gresham man, and Miss Jeannette Herriott Elliott of Lawrence, Kansas. The wedding will take place on May 28 at the Plymouth Congregational church in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich will be at home after August 1 at their Portland home, 2920 East 55th street South.

Mrs. M. L. Hardingham, Miss Lucy Gedamke and Mrs. M. D. Bortz, all of Portland, were the guests today of Mrs. J. G. Metzger.

Bayard A. Miller, agent for the General Insurance Company of America, left Wednesday morning by auto to attend the annual convention of his company at Seattle.

Frank Hamlin and Fred Hoss, who for more than four and a half years have been associated in the Gresham Garage & Machine Shop, have dissolved partnership and Mr. Hamlin will carry on the business, assisted by Cecil Pulfer. Mr. Hoss will devote his time to his berry farm located southeast of Gresham.

S. C. Jones, who has been under treatment for about three months at Good Samaritan hospital, where he underwent two operations, is able to be out on the porch every day and is allowed to receive visitors. He has greatly appreciated the calls of several Gresham friends.

The recital given Tuesday evening by the pupils of Mrs. Gene Myers Richards was much enjoyed by the parents and friends of the young pianists. Some on the program were from other communities and the members of the Gresham class have appeared recently on programs at Fremont and Clinton Kelly Methodist churches in Portland.

Mrs. A. M. Sherman entertained her Sunday school class yesterday afternoon at her home on Powell street. An hour was spent in study on the Sunday school course in preparation for an examination to be given soon, and three hours were spent in play. Those present were Jack Cannon, Burdette Macaw, Clinton Witter, Oren Sroufe, Clinton Smedsrud, James Metzger, Merle Kruger, Keith Mealey and John Sherman.

Alex Adams suffered an attack of ptomaine poisoning Wednesday. The illness was caused from eating canned sardines.

Charles Taber's mother Mrs. E. T. Taber of Longview, Wash., and her son Frank Taber and small daughter Norma of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Canada, are spending a few days at the Taber home here. Mr. Taber is here to look over the country with a view to locating permanently. His five-year-old daughter will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Taber in Gresham while her father is getting settled, after which he will send for his wife and other children who are yet at Prince Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Adams and three children are here from Hagerman, Idaho, visiting Mr. Adams' brothers Alex and Charley and their families, also his sister Mrs. Ben Hoover. They will visit relatives in Portland before returning to their home.

Mrs. Sophie Hall is spending a few weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Yelding of Portland, and is assisting in the care of Mr. Yelding who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Arthur Dowsett and Peter Lenard are each having 40 feet of paving laid in front of their buildings on East Powell street. Claude Stockton has the contract for the work.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Botkin and family last Monday attended the 65th wedding anniversary of Dr. Botkin's parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Botkin, who reside at Cherryville. Mrs. O. F. Botkin will be 94 years of age in October. Her health has been good until recently when she suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy.

Ernest Karlen surprised his relatives and friends yesterday by returning to Gresham with a bride, formerly Miss Mildred Wohlshlegel, a Portland milliner. The ceremony was performed Wednesday at Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Karlen was a member of the 1926 graduating class of Gresham Union high school. He is employed at the White Rose dairy two miles south of Gresham on the Hogan road. He and his wife will live in one of the houses at the dairy farm.

Francis Peak, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak, is now a registered D. M. D., with authority to practice dentistry anywhere in the world on passing the required examination of the state he desires to practice in. The graduating class of North Pacific Dental college of which he is a member will hold its commencement exercises June 1 at the White Temple in Portland. Dr. Peak has not announced his plans as to the future.

Strawberries are now making their welcome appearance and have the same old delicious flavor as in the days of yore. The first ones on the market are being offered at a comparatively low price, which makes them all the more desirable.

Alexander Beaver has completed the painting of all the buildings on the farm of the Mountain View Floral company. The color is a dark ivory with a brown trimming and makes a most desirable effect. Mr. Beaver has been there since March 1, with part of the time a helper.

HALEY

Sunday school of the Haley Baptist church will convene at 10 a. m. There will be no morning service. The Rev. Mr. Roberts will preach in the evening at 8 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. John S. Nordell and Mrs. Nordell left Thursday for Tillamook where the state convention is being held this week.

BORING
 Ethel Spooner, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spooner, is recovering from an acute attack of pneumonia.

R. B. Jones, who was severely injured when his home was blown up early in March and who since that time has been in a Portland hospital, most of the time hovering between life and death, is rapidly recovering and friends are in hopes that it will not be long until he will be able to leave the hospital. The girls who were injured, Ethel Jones and Gladys Roe, are out of the hospital and have gone to Alsea to stay with Gladys' parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Roe.

The Boring school closed a very successful year Friday. The school closed its work on Thursday, and Friday was given over to the annual school picnic, which was held on the school grounds. Games and races took place in the morning, and at noon all partook of a basket dinner which had been prepared by the patrons of the school. The tables were loaded with all the good things of the land. The teachers of the school treated the children to ice cream, which was served under the supervision of Mrs. R. E. Richey and Mrs. H. G. Knox. L. H. Mallicoat will be principal for next year, but the other teachers who have been with the school for a number of years will find work elsewhere. Mrs. Gregson, who has had charge of the primary grades for three years, will teach near Milwaukie at an increase in salary. Miss Edith Anderson, who has been in the school for eight years, has not announced what she will do another year. The members of the eighth grade graduating class are Sam Mallicoat, Grace Mallicoat, Erwin Childs, Eunice Carlson, Kenneth Valberg, Henry Gantenbein, Otto Kampfer, Marion Duley, Mildred Aubin and Alvin Giese.

Mrs. W. R. Shattuck spent most of last week in Portland where she was taking treatments for neuritis. Little Evangeline spent the week at the home of O. W. Boring. On Friday Mr. Shattuck and Evangeline joined Mrs. Shattuck and spent the week-end with Mr. Shattuck's mother, Mrs. Moon, at her home in Portland.

Saturday evening Mrs. Fred Steiger entertained at a birthday party at her home in Boring in honor of her grandfather, David Hedermann.

The L. H. Mallicoat family spent Sunday with relatives near McMinnville.

L. H. Mallicoat, O. M. Rich, Wm. Morand and Mrs. Amy Morand and Edith M. Anderson are in attendance at the I. O. O. F. convention in Roseburg.

Guests at the home of D. Hedermann Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hedermann of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ridderuch of Sandy and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Steiger of Boring.

Darrel Siefer's new home west of Boring will soon be completed.

There is considerable activity in road work in and near Boring. The oil for the loop road is shipped to Boring and a fleet of state trucks distributes it. The county machinery has been getting the Boring-Oregon City road smoothed for pavement. The county caterpillar has fixed the rough place on the Tacheron hill.

IF YOUR BOSS ASKED --
 just what you had done with the salary he paid you last year—what could you tell him? Could you show a bank book with the record of a little something added to your account every month?
 Many bosses use this method of determining just how good an employe you are, and if you are the right one, to be advanced to a bigger place. The proof that you can manage things well for yourself is the greatest recommendation that you can properly manage things for him.
 Don't let him catch you napping. Start your account at once.
