It is a matter of great credit to Porter Brothers, a contracting firm of Portland, that they have been awarded a $6,000,000 contract to construct a vehicular tunnel under the Detroit river between the cities of Detroit, Mich., and Windsor, Ont. This will be a big job and will take two years to complete.

Congress has adjourned after the last few days rush to get certain legislation over. It has been a busy session and some legislation shows the influence of the approaching presidential campaign. President Coolidge has been fearless in vetoing bills that did not meet his approval. Not being a candidate he cannot be accused of any personal interests in reference to the effect of his action on his nomination or election. What party interests his approval or disapproval of legislation may have had is a matter hard to determine and opinions may differ. It is certain he has been uncompromising and fearless.

The great republican national convention will meet on June 12 at Kansas City. It is believed Hoover's chances for nomination are very good. Some, however, think Coolidge will be drafted and, if so, would consent to run. We do not know, but it would disappoint us if he did after his many flat refusals to become a candidate. Hoover is a candidate and will possibly have enough delegates pledged to nominate him on the first ballot. If Hoover is nominated the republican party will, we believe, go into the campaign with great confidence in the man and his probability of election in November.

These are days to make a sensitive person nervous. The things that are occurring stir the mind and move the heart. For instance, just when the world is rejoicing over the successful polar flight of Noble in the dirigible Italia comes the saddening news of disaster and the rush of means to find, relieve and rescue the hero Noble and his associates. From rejoicing we are suddenly thrown into uncertainty and fear. Then comes the taking off of the Southern Cross from San Francisco for Honolulu, and possibly Australia for that is the goal of the intrepid Englishman if all goes well. We are keyed up with interest and hope of his success. The report this morning is that all is well with the giant tri-motored Fokker away out over the Pacific. By the time this is read probably the great monoplane will have reached its first landing place. In the meantime, and along with it all, others are planning to hop across the Atlantic. Such things will in time become as common as automobiling is now, that we'll not be so stirred.

MEMORIAL SERVICE ONE OF INSPIRATION The Memorial Day service held at the high school gymnasium under the auspices of the American Legion auxiliary was one of unusual interest and helpfulness. Many expressed disappointment that the audience was small. The musical numbers were well received, also the reading by Mrs. A. P. Christensen of Portland. Dr. J. Carlos Gormley of Portland gave an address which was thoroughly approved by those who heard it. But one Civil War veteran was present. J. H. Morrison of Gresham. The audience arose in his honor. H. L. St. Clair presided at the exercises. The musical numbers included violin and drum by Donald and Jean Page, accompanied at the piano by their mother, Mrs. George Page; duo piano number by Helen Althaus and Margaret St. Clair; solo by C. E. Ruser and quartet by Mr. Ruser, Mrs. C. E. Cogswell, Mrs. Benj. H. Davies and Jackson Jones. The last two numbers were accompanied by Miss Amy Cooper at the piano.

ICE Scoured ice made from Bull Run water. Cash and Carry Ice station at Walrad Mercantile Co.

THINK THINK THINK Cooperation leads the way The only way to freedom. The way to rid the world of thrives The world no longer needs them. H. W. SNASHALL.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN

"Mrs. Jackson sees the Light," a playlet put on by Mrs. Mabel Clow, Mrs. W. J. Cooper and Mrs. Florence Jones, was one of the interesting features of the program in charge of Mrs. Lulu Horning at the W. C. T. U. which met with Mrs. George Honey Thursday of last week. "Mrs. Jackson," over the tea cups was persuaded that it was her duty to her children, family and city to join the W. C. T. U., register and vote. Miss Elizabeth Horning delighted the women with a piano number by Beethoven. "Who's Who in World's and National W. C. T. U." was presented by Hattie M. Wolfe and Mrs. W. F. Honey. This insight into, not only past activities but those of the present, were of much interest.

The corresponding secretary was instructed to write letters of inquiry as to the reported activity of several persons of business note, and the reasons for which they are lined up with the association against the prohibition amendment. The Gresham Union will conform, as nearly as possible, to the request of the national officers and the evangelistic director, Mrs. Mary Harris Armour. This includes pulpit recognition, and special prayer services preceding each presidential convention.

Mrs. Mary Mallet, former president of the state W. C. T. U., was present early in the afternoon, but was called for before the meeting had well begun, much to the regret of the rest of the women. Mrs. Mitchell, a real W. C. T. U. pioneer in Montana and west Washington, but now of Portland, was a guest and contributed to the interest of the meeting by many references to happenings in the past.

The board of directors are called, by the chairman, to meet with Mrs. W. J. Cooper at 11 o'clock Thursday, June 14, each woman to bring her school-girl lunch. Special topics to be presented are the Loyal Temperance Legion, Conservation and Expansion of Time and Effort. Others than directors will be welcome.

A "Talent Tea" will be a part of the events on June 28. At this time every member of the Gresham Union will be asked to bring, as the result of the exercise of her talent, at least $2. This will enable the Union to complete its state budget, close all other financial obligations, and leave a good working sum for the beginning of next year's work.

LAUREL ACRES

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Wolfe of Baker are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sinks and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wolfe, at Powell Valley road and Laurel avenue. Mr. Wolfe has just completed his fourth year as instructor of trades and industries in the high school of Baker, and will return in a few days to superintend the repairs of all the school buildings of the eastern Oregon City.

Mrs. Ira Gilchrist and daughter Iris of Homestead, Oregon, have recently visited Mrs. Gilchrist's cousin, Mrs. Earl McMahan of Powell Valley road and Laurel avenue. She was accompanied by Mrs. McMahan's sister, Miss Glendora McDowell, who has been teaching near Weiser, Idaho. The ladies have gone to California, where Miss McDowell will visit her twin sister, Mrs. Harvard Steve, a bride of recent months. Mrs. Gilchrist will later meet her husband, a mining engineer, who expects to locate either in Arizona or California.

This locality boasts of one spring graduate from the Gresham high school, Leland Cochran. The neighbors are hoping the Cochrans will continue to stay here, even though the immediate cause of their residence is passed, namely, that of a pleasant country home while the son finished high school.
