

Gresham Locals

Mrs. Belle Beers, accompanied by her granddaughter Mrs. Adolph Zenger, left recently for her home in Kimmell, Ind., where she will reside with a son and family. On the way east Mrs. Beers visited with a son at Billings, Mont. Mrs. Zenger expects to return to Gresham soon.

A. I. Kruger, shop foreman at the W. W. Metzger Buick agency, sustained a severe injury to his right eye last Tuesday afternoon when he was hit by a heavy steel spring which slipped from its place. On account of the swollen condition of his eye, the extent of his injury cannot yet be determined. Mr. Kruger is being cared for at his home near Ruby Junction.

Clarence Kruger, former athletic coach at Gresham Union high school, and Mrs. Kruger are planning to move to Portland in a few days. Mr. Kruger has been appointed to the position of basketball coach of Jefferson high school in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Dusen will occupy the Frank Jones house on Division street which Mr. and Mrs. Kruger are vacating.

Harold Judd left Tuesday for Freewater, Oregon, where he is working on a fruit ranch a few miles distant from his brother Hermon. Leslie Judd expects to come home from Milton-Freewater in a short time and prepare for a second trip to Alaska.

Kenneth Roberts left today for Camp Lewis near Tacoma, Wash., where he will attend the training school of the United States engineers' branch of reserve officers. The encampment will continue for two weeks and will be represented by officers from all parts of the Pacific coast. Mrs. Roberts drove her husband to Camp Lewis, accompanied by Mrs. George Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zeek of La Center, Wash., visited over Memorial Day with George Leslie and with Mrs. Zeek's sister, Mrs. A. W. Easton and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pullen Jr., have moved from the W. L. Gorsage house on Division street to the Dean house on Third.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning returned last evening from a two-weeks' trip which included visits at Grants Pass, Coquille, Bandon, Gold Hill and Oakland, all in Oregon. At Grants Pass they attended the graduating exercises of the high school class, of which their grandson, Charles Howard, was a member. From there they went to Coquille where Mrs. Manning has a brother. At Bandon they got their granddaughter, Miss Louise Howard, who had completed her first year as teacher in the public schools of that place, and took her to her home at Grants Pass. They spent Decoration Day at Oakland where Mr. Manning's parents are buried.

Mrs. George Lusted and daughter, Mrs. Olive Goff, attended the graduating exercises Friday of Mrs. Lusted's niece, Mrs. Helen Westell Chase, who completed her work in the nurses' training course of Pacific hospital at Eugene. Mrs. Chase plans to continue her work as a special nurse.

Recent deliveries of automobiles by the Hessel Implement company include a new 56 Willys-Knight sedan to Glen Davidson; a Whippet six to Oscar Noreen; and a Whippet coach purchased by George Kenney.

Mrs. Walter Metzger and daughter Doris, Mrs. Metzger's mother Mrs. W. R. Telford and son Wallie of Boring and Mrs. William Telford and children of Portland are occupying the Telford cottage at Seaside for a few days. Mrs. Metzger drove the party down to the beach in a Buick.

Mrs. G. Olby of Portland is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Wallin, and incidentally getting acquainted with her new granddaughter, Echo Delores Wallin.

The Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will hold a bake sale Saturday at 1 o'clock at the A. W. Metzger store. Fancy work will also be on display.

The Caroline Lewis club, an organization of the 1926 matrons of the O. E. S., met with Mrs. C. J. Lundquist Saturday for luncheon. A short business session was held. Mrs. W. E. Tegart of Troutdale and Mrs. Florence Keller of Parkrose assisted the hostess.

Alvin Copeland of Troutdale, who has been employed at the Bailey barber shop, has left for Yakima, Wash., where he is looking up a location for a shop. Max Ashenfelter of Portland has taken his place and may decide to move to Gresham with his family later.

Miss Ada Beegle, assistant superintendent of the Peniel Mission in Seattle, is spending a week with her brother W. E. Beegle, her sister Mrs. G. A. Cox, the Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Yates and other Gresham relatives and friends. She will also spend some time in Portland before returning to Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Towle, accompanied by Miss Cora Green, Mrs. Susan Harding and Miss Mabel Porter, returned Friday from a week's trip to Newport, Netarts and Rockaway beaches.

The Rev. S. F. Pitts, who a short time ago purchased the uncompleted house in Clananah addition belonging to L. D. Calkins, lost about $40 worth of building material a few nights ago at the hand of a petty thief. Nails, building paper and other equipment were among the loot.

Mrs. Jackson Jones recently received word that a younger brother, Roscoe Bell, had died last Sunday at his home in Milwaukee, Wis., from heart trouble. He is survived by a widow and three children.

Who Saves Your Money?

You earn the money that comes in your pay envelope—but who saves it. Do you put a part of it away pay-day in a savings account?

Or do you let the extra dollars slide through your fingers into the hands of others who bring it here for their savings account? Think it over, and see if it is wise to let someone else save all the money that you have worked hard to get?

Your new account will be cheerfully started on a single dollar.
