Someone "borrowed" Clarence Christenson's Chevrolet roadster Sunday as it was parked at the grange hall, where Mr. and Mrs. Christenson of Portland were attending all-day religious services. It was taken during the forenoon and found parked in the afternoon at Corbett, nothing the worse for its adventure. Whoever took it had supplied the engine with needed oil.

Harry Johnson of Rock Creek has taken Fred Jennings' place in Carl Dahl's shoe shop while the latter, on the advice of his physician, will enjoy a much-needed rest. Mr. Jennings has not been in the best of health for some time past. Mr. Johnson formerly resided in Gresham where he was employed by Mr. Dahl.
