BOOST THE FREE FAIR.

Are you back of the fair? The county fair means much to this community and this community can make the fair mean much to the county.

With free gate admission the fair this year should be more largely attended and more heartily supported than ever.

This is a very important consideration. It should not mean, as in many cases, that what is free is little appreciated.

And why should not the public be invited and admitted free to observe and learn and enjoy when the people tax themselves to make the fair possible?

BACK UP THE FAIR BOARD IN THIS IMPORTANT MOVE.

The Outlook is proud to feel that it is identified with the National Editorial association and the Oregon Editorial association, having been a member of both associations for many years.

It gives one a feeling of satisfaction to be associated with so large and influential a body of men as the editors of the state and of the nation.

There are no amenities worth mentioning that go with the editorial office today. Perhaps a few tickets to lecture or show—more often than not unused.

But, withal, it is a fine profession. Ask any editor. It has its rewards worth far more than the gift of a "spring" chicken, a sack of potatoes or a ticket to the show.

Insurance funds for farm loans. No commission or brokerage. Very easy terms. B. W. Thorne.—Adv.
