

Garden Club Plans City Improvement

Shrubs and flowers will be planted on the grounds of the city hall, according to a decision made at the regular meeting of the Gresham Community and Garden club which voted to use the iris bulbs awarded at the fair by Crissey's Alpine garden and the shrubs awarded by Villa Nurseries for that purpose.

The Community and Garden club received an invitation from the auxiliary of the American Legion to cooperate with that organization in the endeavor to improve the Gresham cemetery. The invitation was accepted and the following committee was appointed to assist in the arrangements: Mrs. E. M. Boice, Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and Mrs. A. W. Easton.

A delightful excursion was made last Saturday by members of the Gresham club to the dahlia and gladiolus show at Longview, Washington, sponsored by a flower club of that city. The flowers were said to be beautiful, especially the dahlias. The ladies were the guests of the management of Monticello hotel at luncheon. The hotel won first on dahlias and the prize blossoms were presented to the Gresham visitors. Those who went on the excursion were Mrs. U. G. Smith, Mrs. Frank Heiney, Mrs. Chas. Cleveland and Mrs. J. C. Thompson.

Plans are under way for organizing a caravan of Gresham flower lovers to visit the Woodburn display of fall flowers on September 4.

Gresham Locals

E. S. Hawker, brother of Mrs. U. G. Smith, visited two days this week with his sister at Linnemans Junction. He is with the state highway commission and has been working on the Mt. Hood loop road. His group has now been transferred to Medford and will work on the Crater Lake-Medford highway in the completion of some oiling operations.

For a while yesterday the report was going the rounds that a serious fire was menacing the Twin Umbrellas and other auto camps on the Base Line near Rockwood. By night, however, volunteer fire fighters who hurried to the scene had brought the fire under control. It was said to have been started by workmen engaged in taking up the rails along the old P. E. P. right of way. Sparks from the "dinky" had ignited the dry grass.

Gresham Grange will meet in regular session Saturday evening August 11.

Mrs. E. M. Ward went Wednesday to Portland Sanitarium where she will undergo an operation for goitre removal in a few days.

Won and Lost

Three young men were dining. After the meal one of them wagered another that the latter could not balance a glass of water on each hand. The challenge was accepted. Placing his hand palm down, flat on the table top the challenged one let his companion place a glass of water on each of his outstretched hands. "Easy," said he. "You win," replied the other two, and they placed the meal checks in his coat pocket and departed. Amid the laughter of the other diners the hoaxed youth had to invoke the aid of a waitress before he could be relieved of his embarrassing burden.—Boston Globe.
