FAIRVIEW

The sewing girls of Fairview are to be congratulated on the prizes they carried off at the Multnomah county fair. Ten girls entered their sewing and eight of them received prizes. Jean Copeland won first in county and Alice Welbes and Melba Simpson won second in county in handwork and division one. Mrs. J. W. Moller is the leader of the girls' sewing class.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soderquist of Portland are spending their vacation at their summer home at Sleepy Hollow, on the Mt. Hood highway, and visiting the latter's family in Fairview, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Buckner.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Moller drove to Cannon Beach and Seaside over the week end.

Miss Nina Langley, who has been visiting relatives at Huntington, returned home Sunday evening.

Miss Pauline Buckner is spending the week at Forest Grove visiting the Misses Frances and Mary Moist.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Spivey and son Bobby and Miss Ethel Wills of Columbus, Ohio, are visiting their niece, Mrs. Melvin Moller. They came out by auto and will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. C. N. Buckner, who has been quite sick, is improving and able to be out again.

Mrs. Latourelle has rented her cottage to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Troutdale. Mrs. Latourelle will go to California for the winter.

C. E. Scott has been appointed vice principal of Grant high school in Portland. He was formerly head of a department in Jefferson high.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and children have gone on a trip to Puget Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lumsden have returned from a two-weeks' trip to Manhattan beach. They report splendid roads with but few exceptions between Tillamook and Seaside.

Mrs. Iola Copeland has as guests this week her mother Mrs. Chappell and her sister Mrs. Allen, both of Camas, Wash.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. R. D. Hollensted have left for a two-week outing at Manzanita beach. With them are their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Hollensted, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perry and children of Portland.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

At a meeting at Columbian high school Monday night it was voted to furnish transportation for the students. Busses will be purchased for the purpose and are expected to be in readiness when school opens in the fall. This new venture is expected to fill the school with young people, many of whom could not take the advantage because of the long distances to go. It was voted also at the meeting to levy a tax above the six per cent limitation for school purposes for the coming year.

Considerable activity is seen in building operations in this vicinity. O. M. Plummer of Portland, secretary-manager of the Pacific International Livestock exposition, is building a summer home on the acre he bought a few years ago from P. Andersen. Claude Woodie is the builder. Mrs. Thebault, a buyer for the Meier & Frank company, has purchased the acre from Mrs. Holmes Lawrence, formerly owned by Mr. Andersen. She plans to build a summer home here next year. A most wonderful view is obtained from all this acreage.

Invitations are out for the wedding next Sunday of Omer J. Monger and Miss Gladys Hawthorn. Mr. Monger was the manual training teacher in the high school for several years. He has signed the contract as principal of the Junction City school next year.

Miss Helen Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, of Springdale, has returned from a pleasant vacation trip to Colorado. Miss Bertha Larson, her sister, spent her vacation at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Doering of Beaverton were guests at Columbia View farm on Thursday of last week.

Miss Anna Etling and her half-sister, Miss Lydia Metzger, have gone to the coast for two weeks of recreation.

Mrs. Dick of Eugene, mother of Mrs. Marie Morgan of Chanticleer Inn, is on an extended visit at the inn. Her son, Cecil Dick, and family are planning to move to California soon.

GUESTS FROM AFAR VISIT SPRINGDALE

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rogers were Elder and Mrs. George Enoch of Ceylon, India, and their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. W. Brashaw of Central America. Elder and Mrs. Enoch have spent 25 years in missionary work for the Seventh Day Adventist church in India, and plan to sail on October 5 for that country. They do not expect to return to America.

Dr. Brashaw will be one of two physicians who will be connected with a hospital which is building on a large fruit ranch in Central America by his father. Dr. and Mrs. Brashaw will sail for the south on August 26.

Rural letter carriers of Multnomah county enjoyed a picnic Sunday on the Dabney park beach near the Will Wright home. It was well attended. The day was spent in swimming, boating and pitching horseshoes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Butler of Oswego visited Saturday evening at the Will Wright home. The occasion was in honor of the birthdays of the little daughters of the two families.

Mrs. Tom Northway entertained at dinner Friday evening Mrs. Paul Scranton and two sons also the Misses Nathalie and Helen Scranton. Mrs. Scranton and sons are leaving today for their home in Los Angeles.

Albert Seidl has been appointed clerk for the P. W. L. A. lodge to fill out the unexpired term of Vancil Evans, who has moved to Walla Walla. Fred Lampert was appointed auditor for the lodge in place of Mr. Seidl.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salzman and Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Markworth and four sons enjoyed a trip around the Mt. Hood loop Tuesday. The Markworths, who are from Los Angeles, were charmed with the beautiful Oregon scenery and majestic Mt. Hood.

Mrs. W. W. Northway enjoyed a visit Thursday from her daughters, Mrs. Emery B. Chapman and Mrs. Harry Sargent of Portland and their children.

Mrs. Fred Hicks and children visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Henkle. Mrs. Hicks is from the Mt. Hood loop road near Rhododendron.

POWELL VALLEY

A unique service will be held by the Saron Lutheran Congregation Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when the great outdoors at Dodge park will serve as the tabernacle and the singing of the choir will be supplemented by the warbling of the birds. Carl Muhr, who has been supplying the pulpit for the past weeks to some extent, will speak at the open-air meeting. A lunch with ice cream will be served at the close of the service. Cars will leave the church in Powell Valley at 10 o'clock.

Rev. and Mrs. Enoch Sandeen and their small son Orville left for southern Oregon Thursday this week where Mr. Sandeen will have charge of the inspection of the field there in connection with his church. They plan to be gone several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lundquist left Sunday for a vacation trip to Carlton and other points of interest.

A. C. Arvidson is having six modern living rooms added to his store building on Powell Valley road and with the family will occupy them during the coming month. Mr. and Mrs. Arvidson some time ago disposed of their house and seven acres near the store to Ole Olson of Clear Lake, Wis., who will move his family west within the next few weeks. Oscar Thoren is building the addition to the Arvidson store.

The road for a mile east of the Christensen garage is being improved by gravel and necessary road work. It had become full of chock holes and exceedingly rough for travel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Karnath, of Camas, Wash., were guests Sunday of Mrs. Lydia Ostrand.

Young men from the Portland Y. M. C. A. will conduct the services at the Corbett church Sunday, August 19, at 11 o'clock.

Miss Marjorie Bush of Bridal Veil was the guest of Miss Mabel Harding Saturday night.

Mrs. Roy Emily and Mrs. L. H. Arneson were shopping in Portland Tuesday.

Friends of Fred Ough and Miss Emma Honke will be pleased to learn that they are much improved. Both are in Portland hospitals.

HALEY

Services will be held as usual at the Haley Baptist church, Sunday school at 10 a. m. and preaching in English at 11 o'clock. Following the preaching service a fellowship dinner will be served by the Cheerful Workers on the church lawn which all are invited to attend and enjoy. There will be no evening service, to permit all who wish to attend services at the Pleasant Home Baptist church where the pastor, the Rev. Gordon Johnson, assisted by William Fairweather, is holding a series of special meetings.

The vacation Bible school, which is held annually at the Haley Baptist church, will begin Wednesday, August 15, at 9 o'clock, and will continue till Friday, August 31. The pastor, the Rev. John S. Nordell, says: "We shall be glad to have your children in our care during that time for the one purpose of teaching them the precious Word of God."

COMPTON'S CORNERS

H. C. Compton and family returned Saturday evening from an outing in Tillamook county. They report a delightful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnson of Portland and Harold Johnson their son and wife of Corvallis, were callers at the A. B. Calder home on Monday. They were formerly neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Calder in Portland.

Rev. A. B. Calder will supply the pulpit at the Boring Methodist church on the 12th and 19th of this month in the absence of the pastor, Rev. O. J. Gill.

The new brick veneer house of M. Petricevic is nearing completion. It will be one of the most beautiful homes on the Loop highway.

F. Van Dolemen recently sold 18 acres of land. It is understood the price was $3000.

Geo. Schaeffer has been confined to his bed for two weeks under the doctor's care. At this writing he is reported to be a little better but far from well.

BORING

Mrs. L. H. Caverley of White Fish, Mont., has been visiting for the past three weeks with her sister, Mrs. Rebekah Lund, also with a niece in Astoria, Mrs. Ella Hite. She expects to go home next week when joined by her daughter Mrs. Mabel Fraser and three children, who are at present visiting in Tacoma.

Ruby Junction

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brunner and children Anna and Alfred have just returned from a delightful week's visit to Mr. Brunner's brothers, John and Chris Brunner, of Addy, Wash. They also enjoyed a trip to the mountains after huckleberries.

James Allen of Omaha, Neb., arrived Saturday morning for a week's visit with his sister, Mrs. G. C. MacLeod. They motored over the Mt. Hood loop highway Tuesday.

The families of George Pullen and Reuben Kaser were agreeably surprised when Mrs. Mary Burke and Mrs. Burnside of Oakland, Cal., arrived Tuesday morning. Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Burnside are making a two-weeks' auto trip from Oakland. Mr. Burke is trainer for the Oakland baseball league, and Mr. Burnside is umpire. The visitors, accompanied by Mrs. George Pullen and Lucile and Mildred Kaser, enjoyed a trip to the beach at Seaside.

E. E. Lounsbury had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire Wednesday morning, the cause of the fire unknown. He lost in the flames a horse, several farm implements and some tents.

ROCKWOOD

The many friends of Mrs. Eva Mercer and Harry Cowan will be interested in the announcement of their marriage which took place Monday, August 6, in Judge Tazewell's courtroom, the judge performing the ceremony. Mr. Cowan is the owner of the Twin Umbrellas auto camp and has reserved a cottage there for himself and wife. They plan to go to California next month to spend the winter.

Our Best Grade of Coal is Now Being Given Away

We take pride in announcing that we have been appointed to furnish the coal to those lucky people who purchased Heatrolas in the Seventh Annual Heatrola Free Coal Campaign, August 11th to September 1. The coal which every Free Coal Club member will receive is our finest grade—a grade especially selected for Heatrola consumption.

Why not let us deliver your entire winter's supply together with your free ton? You'll be assured then of uniformly good coal for your Heatrola throughout the winter. And you'll escape the high fall and winter prices. Four tons at the price of three—and the cost will be lower than you've paid for your winter's supply in a long time.

If you're a member of the 1928 Free Coal Club, phone us today and tell us how many tons to deliver with your free one. If you haven't investigated this extraordinary offer better go so at once.
