ROCKWOOD MAN IS PAINFULLY BURNED

From Rockwood comes the report of a distressing accident which occurred Monday night of last week at the home of Lloyd Grimshaw, when he was painfully burned about the hands and one shoulder by an explosion which took place as he was siphoning gasoline from his automobile into a receptacle.

Mr. Grimshaw was awakened near midnight by a cousin who informed him his automobile was stalled a short distance from the Grimshaw home on account of running out of gas. The man lit a match and stood at what he considered was a safe distance, while the fluid was drawn out of the machine. As it was impossible to see properly, the man was told to come a little closer with the match, when the explosion took place. The auto was practically destroyed.

Mr. Grimshaw is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Arza Smith of Gresham.
