Gresham Locals

Elmer Ashwell, who suffered a crushed elbow while working on the Bear creek dam at Bull Run, was treated several days at the Thomas sanitarium. Russel Norquist was received at the Thomas sanitarium Tuesday night. He suffered a broken left shoulder and a broken right hip while at work on the Bear creek dam at Bull Run.

Nick Goyak, who has spent the past eight weeks at the Thomas sanitarium on account of a fractured hip, expects to leave Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen report a wonderful service which they attended Wednesday evening at the Lighthouse in Portland, when they listened to a girl evangelist, Hal-line Smith, 15, and her younger brother Bruce, who assists her in the singing.

Miss Avis Rogers of Portland spent a day or two this week with her sister, Miss Helen Rogers.

Mrs. U. G. Smith expects to go on Thursday of next week to Hillsboro, where she will judge the art display in the Washington county fair.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Gillette have gone to the hop fields at Newberg. Mrs. Fred Wineberg of Portland is staying with the children during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Gillette.

W. H. Baillie, county club agent, left Wednesday for Moro, Sherman county, where he will be a judge at the fair. From Moro he plans to attend the Hood River fair where he will also judge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnson of Marshfield and their daughter, Mrs. Edith Alderman of Portland, were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss.

Elvis Stockton has sold his house on Miller street to Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wilson.

Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a special called meeting at the home of Mrs. John Metzger, Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Marie Lau has returned to her work at the Bailey beauty parlors. Mrs. Lau, with her husband, H. J. Lau, recently enjoyed a motor trip to Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Burton and baby, Dean, of Bend, Oregon, spent the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor. The Burtons have been on a vacation trip including Bandon-by-the-sea and Vancouver, B. C.

Principal R. E. Cannon has been asked by several high school boys and girls to assist in finding them places to work for their board during the school year. He will be glad to receive applications from any who can help in this way.

The So and Sew circle of the Methodist Episcopal Ladies Aid will meet next Wednesday, September 19 at the home of Mrs. James Sterling. Mrs. A. McManus and Mrs. Albert Rodlan will serve.

Mrs. Earl Stanley and daughters, Maxine and Virginia have returned from a two-month trip spent in the east. Mrs. Stanley's mother, Mrs. Ida Girod of Salem accompanied her daughter on the trip. They first visited friends and relatives at Berne, Ind., where they formerly resided. This was Mrs. Stanley's first visit to her old home in 13 years. She also visited in Grand Rapids, Mich., and Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Girod remained for a longer visit but expects to return later.

The Sewing club of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet Tuesday at 2 o'clock, September 18 at the home of Mrs. Walter Omscheid on South Roberts avenue.

Mrs. Eleanor Boughner received word Wednesday of the sudden death of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Montgomery, of Hood River.

Mrs. Montgomery had been suffering from chronic asthma and it is understood that an acute attack was the cause of her death, which was quite unexpected. Mrs. Boughner had just received a letter from her when the message came announcing her death. She is survived by four daughters and two sons, all married but the youngest, who is 14 years of age. The Montgomery family lived in Gresham for several years. Mrs. Boughner, accompanied by a daughter from Portland and one from Salem, left this morning for Hood River to attend the funeral, which was held this afternoon.

H. A. Lewis has sold his house and lot in Clanahan addition to T. E. Sloop of Bull Run, who recently purchased the Fred Ferguson place adjoining it. It is understood that Mr. Sloop will build a home here in the future. Mr. Lewis expects to move to Portland to be nearer his daughter, Mrs. Mary Welch Shuttles.

Miss Maude Aldrich of Gresham is state campaign lecturer for the Hoover-Curtis club, the women's movement to elect the nominees of the republican party for president and vice president. Miss Aldrich will spend the entire time until election lecturing in various parts of the state.

Mrs. Hazel Eastman has gone to Oakland, Calif., to make her home. Mrs. Eastman was recently granted a divorce from H. E. Eastman, who allowed the case to go by default.

A theater party to a Portland show was enjoyed Monday evening by a party of Gresham women in honor of Mrs. C. M. Quicksall, who is about to move from South Roberts avenue to her new home on Wallula Heights. Those in the party were Mrs. Quicksall, Mrs. E. E. Wells, Mrs. C. J. Lundquist, Mrs. J. E. Gates, Mrs. W. A. Winters and Mrs. George Page.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Rithard of Palmblad station this morning at the Thomas sanitarium.

Mrs. A. Hughes has returned from Grants Pass, where she has been visiting her brother, Dr. Chas. Pixley.

Ted Wright and Ray Lueth have gone on a deer hunting trip near Heppner. They expect to be gone about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fancher returned Saturday from The Dalles, where they have been for the past two months. Mrs. Ida Shepherd of Fairview and Mrs. O. Volker of Salem, grandmother and aunt respectively of Mr. Fancher, stayed at their home during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Copeland and family have moved from Troutdale into the Charles Cleveland house recently vacated by Mrs. Mary Welch. Mr. Copeland is a barber at the Bailey shop. They have two daughters, Vivian, who is in the first year at high school, Vermell, who is in the 4th grade and one son Jack, who is in the second grade.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Yates and little son Jesse and Mrs. Yates' parents, the Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Blackman, went Monday to Seattle for a visit with friends. They were accompanied by Miss Mabel Shipley, who came a few days previously from Santa Cruz, Calif., and who will continue her studies in Seattle-Pacific college. This is Miss Shipley's senior year.

The first meeting for the school year of the Parent-Teacher association of the Gresham grade school will be held at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon, September 21 at 2:30. Discussion of plans for school lunches and other matters of importance will be the business of the day and all interested are urged to be present.

Seedling dahlias grown by Mrs. Chas. Nordling of Palmer are on exhibition at the Outlook office. They are of unusual size and beauty and are considered outstanding for seedlings.

HOGAN

Mrs. Mark Doryland and two little children Jackie and Arthur, returned last Sunday evening from a week's vacation spent in Portland with Mrs. Doryland's mother, Mrs. Samuel Mueller.

Considerable excitement was caused in this vicinity Monday evening when the board fence enclosing part of the Daly property was discovered to be on fire, and augmented by a stiff breeze, was gaining good headway toward the J. R. Green residence. Neighbors hastily formed a bucket brigade and soon had the fire under control.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Green and daughter Billie, are spending a couple of weeks camping near North Bend. The trip was made for the benefit of Mr. Green's health.

Mrs. A. J. Stout enjoyed a week's vacation visiting with her sister, Mrs. Carl Alt, of Sandy.

Miss Frances Stout began her duties as teacher at the Hillview school Monday morning, teaching the first four grades. Miss Olivia Beehler of Boring teaches the four upper grades.

Miss Emma Doryland spent the last two weeks with her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Forsythe, assisting her with her work. Mrs. Forsythe has been suffering with a sprained ankle.

Miss Juanita Palmquist, a student of Gresham Union high school, is the proud owner of a new Victor piano.
