

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins and family have moved into the B. W. Telford cottage on Hood avenue from a farm south of Gresham near Damascus. There are five children in the family, two of whom are in school. Mr. Jenkins plans to go the latter part of the week to Hood River to work in the apple harvest.

Mr. Telford has gone to Bend, Oregon, to make his home with his son.

Mrs. J. A. Hopper and son Howard, former residents of Gresham, spent the week end visiting with friends and relatives here. They returned Monday morning to Seattle, where Mr. Hopper is attending the Seattle-Pacific college.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones returned Saturday to Gresham after spending a few days at Canton, Netart and Seaside beaches.

Robert Barnes, who recently enlisted in the air service of the United States army, has written the Outlook from Rockwell field, Coronado, Calif., that he is getting accustomed to army life which, as a whole, he does not much like, though there are some things about it, he says which would be a benefit to anyone. The soldiers are quartered in tent houses but arrangements for wooden barracks buildings are under way. Between army, naval and marine air services, there are around 500 airplanes on Rockwell field.

Members of the Areme club are planning a card party which will be held at Chanticleer inn Friday evening, September 21. The affair is open to all, whether they are members of the club or not.

Twenty-five or thirty people enjoyed a social in one of the new rooms of the Methodist church last Friday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Masako Owamoto, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sadaichiri Owamoto of the McKinney road in Pleasant Valley, died Friday, September 14, after an illness of four days from pneumonia. Funeral services were held Monday in the J. E. Metzger funeral parlors by a Buddhist priest from Portland. The funeral was largely attended by friends of the family.

The Gresham circle of the Evangelical Woman's union will meet Thursday afternoon, September 20, at the church. All members and friends are invited to be present.

The Dorcas circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will meet Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. C. N. Taber.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Yates spent the greater part of last week visiting in Seattle, Tacoma and South Bend, Washington. While near South Bend Mr. Yates spent two days with a brother he had not seen for almost 11 years and an uncle whom he had not seen for 17 years.

Last Friday afternoon the Neighbors of Woodcraft held a special meeting at the home of Mrs. John Metzger. During the business hour three new members were balloted upon and will be initiated at the next regular meeting on September 29. On Tuesday afternoon of this week a Thimble club will be organized in connection with the lodge work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Markwart and children spent an enjoyable afternoon Sunday visiting with Mr. Markwart's brother Ralph, in Portland.

Monday afternoon the missionary society of the Free Methodist church held its regular business meeting at the parsonage.

A slashing fire that occurred on the Fred G. Anicker place Sunday afternoon and evening created much interest in the surrounding country. Fortunately there was no damage done.

Friends will be interested in learning that Mrs. Marie Muller, who has been ill at her home for the past two weeks, is now rapidly improving.

Here's a Surprise
A 32-Piece Set of Beautiful Ivory Floral Dinnerware at $3.98 a Set
On Sale Saturday While Stock Lasts
On display in our window
Hepp's Racket Store GRESHAM Phone 1236

Guy A. Cox, who has been visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cox, while recovering from a recent operation for goiter, returned to his home in Wahkiacus, Wash., early Sunday morning. Due to loss of strength Mr. Cox will not be able to resume his work until in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McGuire and children are now settled in their new home in the Mitchell residence on Powell avenue, having moved there last week from the Ben Raney house.

Last week in the Meier & Frank baking contest Mrs. C. J. Lundquist of Gresham was awarded third prize in the whole wheat bread division with a premium of one case of 24 cans assorted Del Monte foods; fifth prize in the raised rolls, one dozen assorted Del Monte foods; and second prize in custard or pumpkin pies, a $7.75 Westinghouse Automatic iron.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambert left early Sunday morning for their future home in Longview, Wash. The Lamberts have lived in or near Gresham for the past 12 years and have many friends in this locality who will regret their departure.

Walter C. Burch and son Clair have returned from Hemlock, Wash., where they have been for the past three months in the government forest service. Mr. Burch has been a lookout on Lookout mountain, and a fire dispatcher, and has also had work in weather bureau reports. He said the work this summer was difficult and monotonous on account of the heavy pall of fog which limited visibility. Clair spent the most of the summer as fire patrol but was promoted to lookout recently. He is now in charge of a filling station for his brother-in-law at Alberta street and Albina avenue, Portland, and is attending night school at Jefferson high. Clair spent the most of the summer as a fire patrol but was promoted to lookout recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher called on Mrs. J. N. Faris, a former resident of this vicinity, at her home in Portland Sunday and report her seriously ill.

Miss Margaret Acers has returned home after spending about a week visiting with relatives in Brownsville, Oregon.

Callers on Mr. and Mrs. Chris Satter Sunday were the former's brothers, Ed of Salem and Olaf of Oregon City, and brother-in-law, Wm. O. Melum of Canby. Ed is a linotype operator on the Salem Statesman. Mr. Satter is employed at the local pickle plant.

A change in the reportorial staff of the Outlook went into effect Monday. Mrs. Jessie Miller, who has been working half time in the office, will now represent the paper in a more general way, covering items in the territory in eastern Multnomah often overlooked by community newswriters. Mrs. Fern C. Mulkey, who has had considerable newspaper experience in Baker, Oregon, will handle local reporting and also assist in various ways in the shop, putting in full time.

Clarence D. Chase of Minneapolis, a nephew of Mrs. H. L. St. Clair, is visiting relatives in Gresham. Mr. Chase expects to return to his home in time to enter the University of Minnesota, in which he is a junior in forestry. He has spent the summer in western Montana in government forestry work in combatting white pine blister rust.

The Eastman FURNACE
Saves fuel dollars for you every year

Even, penetrating warmth all over the house is both comfort and economy with the Eastman. This furnace, with its principle of separate hot and cold air duct, provides 35 per cent faster circulation—hence quicker, more even heat, and 35 per cent greater heating efficiency.

An Eastman costs little to install, and is a real fuel saver. Send for the free Eastman Plan Sheet.

A pipeless furnace for as low as $94, installed in your home.

L. L. Kidder Hdw. Co. Phone 1421 Gresham

An important meeting of the Gresham P.-T. A. will be held in the auditorium of the grade school Friday afternoon at 2:30, when Miss Maude Aldrich will speak on "America's present crisis." All are invited to attend.

Mrs. L. Radford and daughter Athaline came Saturday from Siletz, Oregon, with Mrs. Jack Moore and son Elbert. They returned Sunday. Mrs. Radford will move soon to Newport, where her daughter will attend school.

Mrs. Harry Donley of Spokane and Mrs. Ida Melcher of Walla Walla are the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair.

About 20 players of the Gresham Golf club motored to Hood River Sunday afternoon to play a return match with the Hood River men. Although the final score proved to be disastrous to the local 29, the match was well contested throughout. An unusual stroke made the sixth hole, 125 yard hole in one for Earl Townsend, an incident that has not happened in recent years on the golf course. Although the game Sunday makes a win for each team it has not been decided to play the tie off.

Miss Marjorie Machen of the high school faculty has been unable to take up her duties on account of illness. Principal Cannon is organizing her classes and expects to secure a substitute to take them until Miss Machen's return. The registration in the high school is now 397.

The Rev. E. G. Ranton of Independence, Oregon, called on Gresham friends this morning on his way to Hood River to attend the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. He was formerly pastor at Pleasant Home and had arranged to go with the Rev. Oliver J. Gill.

The registration at Gresham grade school to date is 418, an increase of 42 over the first week's registration last year. Two teachers, Mrs. Gladys Hoyt and Miss Laura Sha, are ill and their places are being taken by Mrs. J. F. Jones and Miss Helen Hammond, respectively. Friday evening was a happy occasion for Mrs. E. R. Walser when a number of friends remembered her birthday and made an especial trip from distant points to be with her. About 35 in all, some from Camas, some from Vancouver and some from Portland helped to

RAIN OUTFITS for Women and Children
We are prepared to supply your wants.
FOR MISSES—Our heavy Flannelette Lined Coat with patch pockets, all around buckle belt. Hat to match. This is a No. 1 garment, water and wind-proof. Sizes 6 to 14. Each $5.50 Colors, Red, Blue and Green
FOR WOMEN—Our Heavy Novelty Plaid lined is a good one. Has large patch pockets and belt. Assorted colors. Each $6.95
A real special on children's light weight Waterproof Coats
Sizes 4 to 12 years. Colors, Blue and Green. Regular value, $4.95 Special at $3.75
Same in women's. Regular price, $6.95 Special at $4.85
RUBBER FOOTWEAR
We are agents for the Beacon Falls guaranteed rubbers for men and boys. Red and white booties. Knee and sporting lengths.
NEW TODAY
Goloshes for Women and Children
WALRAD MERC. CO. Phone 1411 Gresham, Oregon

A Big Reduction!
will be given on all Eastman Kodaks for the month of September.
Kodaks and Films for sale
DEVELOPING AND PRINTING
Siemens Photo Studio
Gresham, Oregon

Reason a-plenty!
Doubly ground in oil! Reason enough for the smooth-flowing greater-covering features—so emphatic of Rasmussen quality. . . Ask for the color cards.
Rasmussen Paints Varnishes Lacquers
A. W. Metzger & Co. GRESHAM

make the surprise a real one and incidentally brought many presents with them. After a very enjoyable social hour refreshments were served. W. F. Honey left this morning on a trip to the middle west to look after property interests. Mrs. Jessie Cathey and children returned Saturday from a two-week vacation spent at Yachats. The Misses Frances Welling and Pauletta Dowsett are at Welch's summer resort near the foot of Mt. Hood enjoying a few days' outing. They are expected to return Wednesday evening. (See additional locals on page 1) MEMBERS of Gresham Lodge No. 152 A. F. & A. M. will visit Sunrise Lodge No. 196 at East 79th and Stark streets, Wednesday evening, September 19, and confer the M. M. Degree. W. J. TODD, W. M. W. L. GORSAGE, Secy.

Why Accept Less Than the Best when the best can be had for the same price as many an article of undoubted inferiority?
Remember it is always economically advantageous to buy your Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry at Mealey's Jewelry Store
Powell St. Phone 44 Gresham

Hardware Department Specials
Seasonable Items Specially Priced for the Week
DOOR MATS Large size, heavy Mats Each 89c
LUNCH PAILS Fancy Colored Pails for the Kiddies School Lunches Each 25c
WATER GLASSES Beautiful Etched Glasses, a very pretty design 6 for 25c
Colored Glass Ware Beautiful assortment of Vases, Bowls, Dishes, Etc. To see them is to want them. Special 98c each AMMUNITION, Guns, Etc., for the hunter. Complete line of shotgun shells, metallics, Etc.
A. W. Metzger & Co. The Winchester Store
Phone 1451 Gresham

COMFORT that's what you want when it's cold
There's nothing so discouraging to comfort as wandering little currents of cold air playing a tune on your spine and frolicking about your ankles—nothing so damaging to health either.
So you want the Montag Furnace
The Montag system of "ventilated heat" warms all the home evenly—no vagrant cold spots—warm, clean air, circulated, permeating and comfortable.
MONTAG WARM AIR FURNACE
Call without obligation, of course, at phone 1233 Gresham Plumbing & Heating Co. JOE S. CHIODO, Prop.

SPECIAL! 8c Loaf of Bread Free
With each 30c cake or 25c pie. While they last
Myer's Bakery GRESHAM