Make Her Proud of Her Diamond

There are diamonds and diamonds as most people ought to know.

Our diamonds are bought with exceeding care and are full of fire.

A diamond now days is often examined with scrutinizing eyes and it hurts many a recipient's pride to be told that the stone contains a bad flaw. We realize this and sell only diamonds worthy of admiration.

We have Diamond Rings, not very large, but perfectly clean stones, as low as $50.

Food for Thought

It's almost time to think of your winter fuel supply. Give this matter the thought it merits. You want a coal with the minimum of slack, soot, and clinkers. UTAH-GRAND COAL is different. It makes no stringy soot, no clinkers and because it is harder, it has less slack, stores better and burns longer. Think it over, then order UTAH-GRAND COAL. Equally as good for brooder, range, heating stove or furnace. Phone your Dealer

Mrs. Ara Lusted of Mabery was a guest of Mrs. Christina Humason over-night Monday to be present at the Rebekah dinner.

Ted Wright is driving a new Chevrolet coach purchased through the Fieldhouse-Shearer Chevrolet company.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of Salem, and Mrs. E. A. Baker and daughter Jacqueline of Montavilla, were here Friday evening to surprise H. C. Larsen on his birthday. Mrs. Zetta Williams, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Miller, was also one of the party. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Larsen were old time friends in Colby, Kansas, 29 years ago. Saturday the Larsens, Millers and Mrs. Williams called on the Orville Myers family in Portland, other Kansas friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin of St. Helens visited with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse and Mrs. Clara C. Miller Saturday on their way home from the Pendleton Round-up.

Ross Brown, a local realtor, made a business and pleasure trip to Cottage Grove last week, returning Sunday evening. George Clark accompanied him as far as Corvallis and will remain there for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse had as their guests recently, Miss Jean Pulliam, teacher in the Portland schools and W. S. Roberts, county assessor of Columbia county.

Friends will be interested to know that Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Potter of Portland have a 9-pound daughter born at the Portland Sanitarium Monday morning. Mrs. Potter will be remembered as Miss Annie Hbover.

An interesting item that was overlooked last week was the birth of a daughter to Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Blanc of Portland on September 18. The little miss, weighing just eight pounds, is the first grandchild of Mrs. W. A. Dixon of Gresham, and her mother was known here as Miss Clyda Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Barber and daughters Eva and Frieda of Portland were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Simonsen have returned from a vacation spent in Stockton and Long Beach, Calif., visiting relatives. They report the roads very good excepting about 12 miles near Dunsmuir, where the curves are being widened and straightened. The 1200-mile return trip was made in three days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Suhr of Suhr's Flower farm on the Base Line road east of the 12-mile corners have bought two acres on Powell Valley road and the Mt. Hood Loop road, a part of the old Simonsen place. The ever increasing business of the flower farm made it necessary to have more land. The new place will be used as a branch to the Base Line gardens.

B. L. Nokes and family of Alhambra, Calif., who have been visiting for a few days with Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Pitts, left today for Seattle. Mr. Nokes is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Pitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse had as guests Sunday Mrs. James McNary of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell of Pleasant Home, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Robinson of St. Helens.

The local P.-T.A. held a meeting Friday evening and among the other business affairs taken up was the work concerning the cafeteria they are planning on putting in the grade school. State president, Mrs. Gabriel, state president, gave an interesting talk on the advantages of uniting the local organizations with the state organization. The members voted on the question of joining the state association and decided that it would be a very beneficial step to take at this time.
