SARON LUTHERAN TO CELEBRATE RALLY DAY

The Saron Lutheran church will celebrate rally day next Sunday. There will be children's service at 9:45, special sermon by the pastor, music by a quartet, and worship in Swedish at 11 o'clock included in the morning program.

At 8 p. m. there will be a Bible program during which this year's confirmation class will be presented with Bibles. The pastor will speak on the importance of the "Word of God." Special music will be furnished by the mixed quartet.

A very interesting feature will be added in the form of an outline of the recommendations made by the Church Building Investigating committee about the new church building. The pastor hopes to have a surprise for the congregation in this respect.

Columbian High Notes
(By Owen Emily)

Gerald Emily and Kenneth Bramhall, who were chosen by the county club agent, W. H. Baillie, to represent Multnomah county in the boys' and girls' potato judging contest at the state fair Monday, won second prize. The boys score was 184 points. Lane county was first in the particular contest with 196 points and Wasco was third with 149 points.

Last Thursday evening Kenneth Bramhall was hit by the Gresham Meat market truck. He suffered a number of bruises which kept him from school for a few days but was not seriously injured. Mr. Bramhall was inspecting a tire and did not see the truck as it came out of the Pleasant View side road.

Roland Morgan sprained his thumb Tuesday in the boxing match with Otto Aschoff.

The senior class received samples of class rings this week and selected their choice from them. An order was sent for the rings and they expect to have them here in about three weeks.

The manual training class has completed four new drawing tables for the mechanical drawing students.

The athletic season will commence about October 10.

POWELL VALLEY

There will be Sunday school at the Swedish Mission church at 9:50. Children's sermon at 10:55. The morning sermon at 11:10 will have "But He Was Full of Compassion" for the subject. In the evening at 7:30 a sermon will be delivered on "Summer is ended and we are not saved." Monday evening there will be a business meeting of the congregation at 8 o'clock at the church.

MRS. H. P. SHAFER DIES AT SANDY WEDNESDAY

Anna Elizabeth Shafer, who died at her home in Sandy Wednesday afternoon, was the wife of Henry P. Shafer and the mother of 19 children. Mrs. Shafer was born in Illinois 77 years ago and had lived in Sandy a number of years previous to her death.

Besides her husband and a number of friends she leaves five sons, five daughters, 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren to mourn her death. Her children are G. W. Shafer and E. C. Shafer of Bend; Mrs. C. Osterveer, Portland; R. S. Shafer, Klamath Falls; Mrs. A. R. Wolfe, Portland; Mrs. A. Krotzmen, Yachats; H. P. Shafer Jr., Independence; Mrs. Kizer, Bend; Mrs. J. C. Loandree, Sandy; and W. G. Shafer, Toledo.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock at Independence and interment will be made in the Independence cemetery under the direction of J. E. Metzger, undertaker of Gresham.

Lynhurst Sewing Club Resumes.

After a brief vacation, Lynhurst Ladies Sewing club resumed activities September 11 at the home of Mrs. Angus MacGregor, corner of Saxon Line and Rockwood roads, her mother, Mrs. B. M. Adams, acting as hostess. The second meeting was held September 25 at the home of Mrs. Wm. Dryden, Barker road. A delicious pot-luck luncheon was served at 12:30, after which a short business meeting was held when the hostess received a gift from the club in honor of her birthday. Five hundred was the diversion for the afternoon. Miss Helen Petzold took first honors and Mrs. Lillie Sergeant second. A very enjoyable time was spent. The club will meet again October 9 with Mrs. Herbert Lynch, when the election of officers will take place.

LYNCH

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Frank and sons have recently moved into the district from Klamath Falls. The boys, 10 and 12 years of age, will attend the Lynch school. Mr. Frank has leased the "White Cabin" auto camp and filling station, the property of R. H. Fellows of Longview, Wash., situated on the Base Line and Barker roads. R. H. Confrey handled the transaction.

Donald Confrey has gone to Los Angeles where he has signed up with a vaudeville circuit of southern California. Miss Eleanor La-Mae of Portland, with whom he has done considerable theatrical work during the past two years, will be his partner. Confrey attended Reed college for two years and was recently employed in a Portland bank.

TROUTDALE

At the card party held Wednesday night in the Masonic hall, 11 tables of 500 were played. High honors went to Mrs. J. R. Cavanaugh and LeRoy Wideman while consolation went to Mrs. Paul Osburn and Corbett Hopkins. Refreshments were served and all seemed to enjoy the evening.

Services and Sunday school will be held as usual next Sunday at the community church by the pastor, Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted.

Mrs. Electa Parsons' Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bramhall, Mr. and Mrs. Z. G. Schenck and sons John, Archie and Dan, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parsons.

L. A. Harlow with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam

Harlow, and Judge L. P. Hewitt of Portland, spent Saturday at Wind river, Wash., fishing and report a good catch.
