

Hotpoint

Electric Range Campaign

BEGINS October 1

Hotpoint Electric Ranges have been improved to the extent that they offer the "last word" in modern, efficient cooking.

They are economical to operate and add hours and hours to your week. Foods are tastier and more thoroughly cooked, too.

Sold on convenient terms — small payment down.

Hotpoint Electric Ranges

- have "speed units" which make cooking and baking faster.
-have full enamel lined oven making them cleaner.
-are clean as a white plate - just to be wiped off.
-enameled to protect against stains and blemishes.
-keep your kitchen fresh and sweet.
-do not make your pots black.

Wait for the Campaign Opening Monday October One

GRESHAM OUTLOOK ELECTRIC COOKING SCHOOL

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Berry, Walter Hensery and his father, Henry Hensery, spent a few hours with the F. G. Gillett family Thursday morning on their way to their home in Oregon City, after spending a week in eastern Oregon on a hunting trip.

Mrs. G. T. Meyers and children left Tuesday for their home in California after spending a week here with Mrs. Aletta Myers.

Tom Felton has returned from The Dalles where he has been hauling wheat for the past two months. Mr. Felton brought a truck load of sheep to the stockyards in Portland on his way home.

H. G. Andrew expects to move his family soon to the Anna Hendrickson place about four miles west of Gresham, which he has rented for the winter.

Mrs. P. E. Brockway returned Wednesday evening from a two-week business and pleasure trip to Seattle. Mrs. Brockway says that she found Seattle doing quite a bit of building and that the property that her mother is holding for sale there is increasing rapidly in value.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wilhon, who recently purchased the Elvis Stockton residence through B. W. Thorne, local real estate agent, moved to their new home last week end.

Mrs. Roy E. Cannon was hostess to an intimate group of ladies at a bridge luncheon at her home Thursday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak had as guests during the past week Mrs. Peak's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cramley of Brae, Calif., who have now returned home. Dr. Peak and William Walker, Mrs. Peak's brother who has spent the summer here, have gone for a trip in southern Oregon. Mr. Walker will go on to his home in San Francisco.

An important meeting of the Evangelical Womens' Union will be held at the home of Mrs. Olive Strebin at Victory next Thursday. All members are urged to be present as details for the coming bazaar will be planned. The meeting will begin promptly at 2 o'clock.

The Gresham circle of the Evangelical Womens' Union is planning a bake sale for Saturday, October 6, the place to be announced later. Word has been received from W. H. Baillie, county club agent, who is at the state fair, that the car of club stock will arrive at the Mt. Hood Depot in Gresham Monday noon instead of Sunday, as previously announced.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Myers who live on the Section Line road east of Gresham left this morning for a visit with relatives at La Grande and other eastern Oregon points. While away Mr. Myers expects to go deer hunting.

The Misses Mina and Nellie Emery, sisters of B. W. Emery, are here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Emery and other relatives. They drove through from their home in Monterey, Calif., and reported a most enjoyable trip. They were especially pleased with the fine auto camps along the way, many of which they patronized. Both ladies were teachers for many years in California schools.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Manning of Great Falls, Mont., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning and other relatives. The men are brothers. All were in Portland last night at a family gathering at which were present L. H. Manning and Mrs. Bessie McRoy, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning. The visitors are planning to go to Oakland, Oregon, for a visit with other relatives and on their return will again visit in Gresham.

Officers elected Wednesday in the Methodist Ladies Aid for the coming year are Mrs. A. G. Lambert, president; Mrs. W. L. Gorsage, vice president; Mrs. W. A. Forbes, secretary; Mrs. C. E. Rusher, treasurer. Mrs. Lambert was the recipient of a beautiful bouquet of roses in appreciation of her work as president during the past year. Asters were presented to Mrs. William Thom in honor of her birthday. The date for the annual dinner and bazaar was set for Thursday, December 6.

The marriage license has been published of Albert Welty of Gresham and Miss Irene F. Bell of Eagle Creek.

Among Gresham visitors at the state fair Wednesday and Thursday of this week were Mrs. W. A. Winters, Mrs. Pearl Mack and Miss Winnifred Osburn. Mrs. Winters entered 15 pieces of fine needle work and received on them 11 blue ribbons and three reds, while Mrs. Mack won two blues and a red on three entries. Mrs. C. J. Lundquist is another Gresham housewife who entered her handiwork. She made six entries in canning and received four blue and two red ribbons. She also won first on bread and rolls.

Chas. Hansen is tearing up the old plank walk on the Fourth street frontage of his property and will replace it with a cement walk 125 feet long.

An 8-pound son was born to Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Oakes Saturday, September 22.

Florence and Irene Rusher, 10 and 7 years old, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher, will be heard over the radio from the KXL broadcasting station, this evening between 6:30 and 7:30 at the Sperry Flour children's hour. These children have been studying piano for only about six months and show great promise. They will play solos and a duet.

A. H. Lewis, who recently sold his property in Clamahan addition, has moved to Portland in the Peninsula district near his former home.

The drill team of the Rebekah lodge gave a surprise farewell party for Mrs. Bert C. Baker at the home of Mrs. F. A. Lundquist Tuesday evening. About 16 ladies were present to enjoy the evening with Mrs. Baker. A large bouquet of beautiful asters was presented to the honor guest. A number of games were played and later refreshments were served. Mrs. Baker is leaving with her husband and two sons for Grass Valley this week-end.

Ed Larson of Palmer has purchased a Whippet-six sedan of the Hessel Implement Co. This makes a total of four Whippet-six sedans owned by workmen at the Palmer mill above Bridal Veil. To reach the camp one must drive four miles of extremely steep grade. The Whippet owners are well pleased with the power and brake performance on the trip to and from the mill.

Gresham Garden club has arranged for an illustrated lecture to be given in the auditorium of the Gresham grade school Monday evening at 8 o'clock by a speaker from Portland, who will show deciduous trees, shrubs and flowering perennials. The talk will be on the beautification of home grounds and city parks. There will be no charge and all are welcome.

Through an error the list of Kiwanis club committeemen published in the last Outlook omitted the name of Phil Hepp, who should have been mentioned on one of the committees. The announcement of the omission was made at the Kiwanis meeting but the list given the Outlook did not include it and the matter was overlooked.
