

A Red Hot Problem

The problem of selecting the right kind of coal for this season is easily solved if the retailer and consumer will store UTAH-GRAND COAL, a harder, longer lasting coal, a coal that makes no stringy soot and NO clinkers. UTAH-GRAND COAL burns like Anthracite, hence is ideal for all purposes, brooder, range, heating stove or furnace.

Cedar District Team Wins at State Fair

One of the winning teams at the state fair is from Cedar district. Leroy Rhoads and Robert Townsend, who put on a crop demonstration and were awarded first place with a score of 95 points out of a possible 100. This means that each will have a free course at the two-weeks' summer school at Oregon State Agricultural school next summer. Their schoolmates, teachers and the patrons of the district join in congratulations to the boys.

CEDAR

At a meeting held Friday evening, September 21, the Parent-Teacher circle of Cedar district was reorganized. Patrons of the district were well represented and considerable interest was shown in the social and business problems which came up for discussion. Mrs. H. A. Curry was the temporary chairman. Officers elected for the year are Mrs. E. P. Townsend, president; Mrs. Davis, vice president; Miss Grace Palmiter, secretary; Al Maybee, treasurer.

A reception was given last Friday evening at the schoolhouse in honor of the teachers, Miss Grace Palmiter and Miss Alice Richey. A pleasant social evening and generous refreshments were enjoyed. Miss Palmiter is the principal and Miss Richey, primary teacher.

FAIRVIEW

About 35 relatives and friends enjoyed the house warming which was given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Art Copeland. It was also their 16th wedding anniversary. They have recently finished the interior of their home, which is modern in every respect. Besides receiving many useful gifts, Mr. and Mrs. Copeland were presented with a beautiful mantel clock, a gift of the members of Fairview grange.

Five hundred was played during the evening, after which refreshments were served.

The P.-T. A. will hold a business and social meeting at the schoolhouse Thursday evening, October 4, at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of several musical numbers and a play presented by the local seventh and eighth grade boys and girls. The play called "Heart Trouble" is being presented by a number of different schools at this time in the interest of the Community Chest. Refreshments will be served near the close of the evening.

SCHOOL DIST. NO. 7

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bell on the Rockwood road is nearing completion. This home is of the bungalow type, containing seven rooms, bath and breakfast nook. At the south end of the living room, which, with the dining room occupies the entire front, there is a large fireplace, while at the north end of the dining room there is a built-in buffet. The kitchen is convenient with a pleasant breakfast nook at the rear. Two bedrooms occupy the second story. Every convenience is included in this cozy home, hardwood floors, built-ins, furnace and a full basement. Cecil J. Pounder of Springdale is the contractor.

J. T. Hattan has returned from Copper near the California border, where he went on a deer hunting trip. He was successful in securing one deer.

Wm. Tegart accompanied A. L. Kronenberg to Pendleton, where they attended the Round-up. A very pleasant time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Worthington of Bellingham, Wash., are visiting relatives in this community. Mrs. Worthington is a sister of Mrs. J. W. Edwards, Henry and Paul Fisher.

Mrs. Luigi DeThory underwent an operation for gallstones at a Portland hospital Saturday.

Lee Wills, who has been ill with the grip for some time, has recovered and is able to be at work again.

Among those from this community attending the state fair were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tegart, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hall and William Tegart. Claude Hunziker, who has been confined to the house with an attack of the grip, is improving.

Ted Cronk of "The Oasis" service station is the proud possessor of a new Hupmobile roadster.

ROCKWOOD

A farewell party was given at the Rockwood M. E. church for Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Dunlop. An attendance of 70 showed the appreciation of the people of Rockwood for the family. The program of the evening included two piano solos by Mrs. W. P. Landes; two vocal selections by Mrs. Don Young, accompanied by W. O. Shaver; two readings by Mrs. D. M. Donough. A short talk by Mr. Dunlop and a word of appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop for their labor in the community by Dr. C. L. Haynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Pate and daughter Margaret recently returned from Salem where they have attended the state fair where "Queen" Margaret's pig, took sixth prize.

The Rockwood dance club will start its fall season October 16.

Mrs. Henry Barger, Mrs. Donald Young and Mrs. W. P. Landes were hostesses for a card party given under the auspices of the Home Economics committee of the Rockwood grange at their hall, Saturday night. Although the crowd was not large those attending report that a very pleasant evening was spent. High honors went to Mrs. J. Worthington of Bellingham, Wash., who is here visiting relatives, and Otto Skalstad. Consolation went to Mrs. J. W. Edwards and Harold Lionberger.

Robert McIlvanna, the new pastor of Rockwood M. E. church, with Mrs. McIlvanna and two children arrived Thursday.

A birthday surprise party was given at the home of Mrs. A. Obrist for Miss Clara Gerig Saturday evening. A most enjoyable time was reported.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Dunlop and daughter Mildred left Thursday for their home in Estacada. Mr. Dunlop was superannuated at the last annual conference.
