Mrs. Flora May Owens, of St. Helens, visited for several days last week with Mrs. R. R. Carlson and Mrs. Clara C. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tegart of the Base Line road, have returned from Hermiston, Oregon, where they visited relatives.

The assistant secretary, Mrs. Minnie E. Eastman, has sent out notices of the regular annual stockholders meeting of the Multnomah county fair association to be held this week Thursday night, October 4, at 8 o'clock, in the Gresham city hall. As there are many matters pending of importance to the future welfare of the fair it is desired and necessary that there be a large representation of stockholders and due interest shown.

Mrs. James Elkington, who went to Salem to assist in the office of the state fair, had the misfortune to slip down stairs, dislocating her elbow and fracturing a bone in the forearm. It was necessary to remove a piece of the splintered bone. Mrs. Elkington has returned home although the arm is in a cast and she is still under the care of a physician.

Mrs. Ed. TenEyck returned to her home at Sandy from Thomas Sanitarium last Sunday with her 10 1/4-pound son, Lawrence Edward, who was born September 22.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bergstrom and children have moved from Boring and are now located on the Mrs. J. A. Haley farm, until recently known as the Stapleton farm.

The S. E. circle of the Methodist Aid will have a called meeting at the home of Mrs. C. E. Rusher Thursday afternoon to tack comforters.

Mrs. Alice Hendricks of Portland visited with Mrs. M. E. Williams Monday afternoon. While here she was a caller on Mrs. H. L. St. Clair at the Outlook office.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Stockton plan to leave Saturday for Bend to be gone a week. While there they will visit with Mrs. Stockton's sister.
