

Gresham Locals

Mrs. Edwin Shelley of Portland is here with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Shelley, for an indefinite period. Edwin Shelley is cooking on a train running between Portland and Seattle.

Gresham friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Barker of Long Beach, Calif., have received the announcement of the arrival of a daughter, Edith Lorraine, born to them September 28. Mrs. Barker was formerly Miss Esther Elford.

J. S. Dellinger, owner and publisher of the Morning Astorian, and J. A. Emerson, also of Astoria, were callers Tuesday at the Outlook office on their way from the sale near Sandy of the Jersey herd belonging to the Carl Power estate. Dr. Dellinger bought eight head of cattle for the Delmore cranberry farm of which he is owner. William Thom of Gresham bought a cow at the sale.

A black and white spotted dog which is killing chickens in the vicinity of the Mt. Hood depot is "riding for a fall." Thursday morning soon after daylight it wounded a young rooster belonging to Millard Sharp and, as its prey escaped under the barn, it went through the fence into the St. Clair property where it attacked Mrs. St. Clair's flock of three fine capons, wounded one and got away with the others. Sharp is watching for the dog with a gun.

The Areme club will meet at the home of Mrs. A. McManus Monday, October 8. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Richard Tegart, Mrs. William Stanley and Mrs. Clara Puffer.

Friends of Byron H. Conkle will be interested in learning of his marriage early in September with Miss Florence York, home demonstration agent for Jackson county. The bride was on the faculty of the summer school for club children at Oregon State Agricultural college at its session last summer. Mr. Conkle, who is principal of Medford high school, is a brother of Mrs. James Sterling and has many friends here. Mrs. Conkle will continue her work in the county until the first of the year.

An exchange of plants, shrubs and flowers has been arranged by the Gresham Garden club for Tuesday afternoon, October 9, from 2 to 5 in the city's building on Powell street near the city hall. The exchange will be free to club members but a small charge will be made to others.

The Masters and Wardens association of Portland will visit Gresham Lodge No. 152 A. F. & A. M. at its regular meeting which will be October 9. A good attendance of members is desired.

Two new Dodge cars were sold to local men Saturday afternoon by Brockway & Nelson, local dealers. The lucky possessors are Dr. J. G. Sture, who chose a Victory Six sedan, and James Cogswell, who bought a Standard 8 sedan.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils are practicing very diligently on the play "Heart Trouble" that will be given as part of the program put on Monday evening in the grade school auditorium in behalf of the Community Chest work that is being taken up in Gresham. William F. Woodard of Portland will be the speaker of the evening. Miss Eleanor Davis, also of Portland, will sing. The public is invited.

Mrs. Gene Richards Myers will present the following pupils informally at the home of Mrs. C. E. Rusher Saturday evening, October 6. Florence and Irene Rusher, Vera and Marjorie Stone, Anita Scott, Jean Woodhead and Luella Lewis. Friends are invited.

The regular meeting of Gresham chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was held Tuesday night. The business was dispatched with promptness and speed, after which Mrs. Edith Tegart, worthy matron; A. R. Morgan, worthy patron; Mrs. Marie Morgan, conductress; Mrs. Josephine Haley, marshal, and Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth, warder, motored to Portland and attended the meeting of Portland chapter, where the matrons, patrons, associate matrons and secretaries of Portland and vicinity were special guests.

Benj. H. Davies of the Outlook force, who has been unable to attend to his work for the past two weeks on account of illness, expects to go Saturday for hospitalization under the Veterans' bureau of Portland. If room is available in the veterans' hospital in Portland he will be treated there, otherwise he will be sent to the veterans' hospital in Tacoma. A pneumonic condition and general ill health will be given attention and it is likely that he will be away several weeks.

Mrs. J. M. Hillyard, Mrs. James McBain, Mrs. R. Beadle, Miss Hattie Buoy, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss represented the Neighbors of Woodcraft at the funeral services in Portland Tuesday of Raymond F. Van Slyke, the late son of Mrs. Charles E. Van Slyke, local guardian neighbor of Woodcraft.

The regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will be held Tuesday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall at 8 o'clock. All members of the drill teams are asked to be present at 7:30 if possible to practice.

Miss Laura Sha who has spent the last three weeks in the hospital is expected to resume her duties as teacher of the fifth grade the first of the week.

Saturday, October 6, will be the last day for registering for the general election on November 6. If not sure of your registration call on Ross Brown at Gresham or J. S. Hudson at Troutdale and make sure of your vote.

"OLD GANG" SURPRISES SWIFT'S WEDNESDAY

Twenty-seven old-time friends and acquaintances came from Portland Wednesday evening and very greatly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Swift. When the Swifts lived in Portland the same crowd of jolly people would get together and spend the evening listening to the accomplishments of the various musicians among them. Wednesday evening was spent much in the same way. A. R. Pinney playing the violin; Mrs. Lewis Meeker, the piano; Lewis Meeker the drums; Larry Lull, the saxophone and trumpet; Charles Russell the banjo and Ivan Swift the banjo, made up a very entertaining orchestra.

Those who came from Portland to surprise the Swifts and incidentally be with the "old gang" once more were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Pinney, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lull, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Don Guarra, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ven Tura, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brumbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brroughs and daughters, Dorothy and Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Thebuge and son Miles, Dr. and Mrs. Diviney and Mr. and Mrs. Grady. Mrs. Meeker and Mrs. Diviney will be remembered by the old-timers of Gresham as Emma and Erma Hamilton, daughters of the late W. H. Hamilton, former business man of Gresham.
