Mrs. Alameda Benson, charged with possession and the sale of liquor at the Mount Hood Loop grocery, three miles east of Gresham, on October 11 and 13, was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail, when she pleaded guilty before Federal Judge McNary in Portland Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Taylor, Miss Lois Ebbey and Wesley Ebbey, all of Portland, spent last week as guests of Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Yates of the Free Methodist church, during the district meeting. They returned to their home Sunday afternoon.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Improved Dutch Colonial house that is being built for Mr. and Mrs. Hengstler on Powell street. It is expected to be completely finished in about two weeks.

Philip Hepp's Racket store on Main street received its semi-annual coat of red paint Wednesday. Mr. Hepp is one of the more progressive business men of the town who has his store painted twice a year, "whether it needs it or not."

The local Kiwanians are looking forward to the Monday evening meeting in the grange hall, when they will be the guests of the Portland club. The Portland members are planning a rousing program and a big time.

Edmund P. Teevin of Oakland arrived Tuesday, and his sister, Mrs. M. L. Cleaver and small daughter, of Dunsmuir, arrived Monday to be at the bedside of their father, John Teevin, who had been seriously ill since he suffered a stroke of paralysis a week ago. Mr. Teevin died Friday morning.

The finishing touches are being added to the eight-room English colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Starbuck, near Powell street on Hogan road. The Starbucks are living in their new home, having moved in recently.

Mrs. Ben Mathews has been ill at her home on Roberts avenue for more than a week. At present she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Winchester and family of Portland spent Tuesday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ward.

E. H. Kelly, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to the Portland sanitarium Wednesday for X-ray examination. He is again at his home.

T. Miyasaki of Gresham and his daughter-in-law and her children, entertained a number of their friends Wednesday evening, before leaving for Portland where they expect to take passage on a boat bound for Japan. Mr. Miyasaki expects to remain in Japan but his daughter will return after a few months' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubert and son of Chehalis, Wash., have been visiting with the former's cousin, F. G. Gillett and family during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Andrew and family have announced that they are still in the same location on South Roberts avenue. A few weeks ago they expected to move to the Hendrickson place near Lynch, but have decided to remain in Gresham during the winter. The reason for their change of plans is that the place which they had leased for five years was sold about the time they expected to move.

Mrs. Henry Tilgner and children are spending this week in The Dalles at the home of Mr. Tilgner's parents. They are expected home Sunday.

The sales and shop force of the W. W. Metzger Buick garage held another cooperative meeting at the Oregon City showrooms Wednesday evening. During the evening Mr. Metzger explained the entire make-up of the Buick automobile and Mr. Anderson of Oregon City gave an instructive talk on salesmanship. Later in the evening a dinner was enjoyed at Gabriel's. Those from Gresham who motored to Oregon City for the evening were A. I. Krueger, Frank Yokell, Ray Metzger, Roy Hubert, Gilbert Knott, W. W. Metzger, Delmer Baker and Walter Zenger.

W. C. Metzger is away from his duties in the A. W. Metzger grocery store this week, spending part of a two-week vacation at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin I. Sunday and children of Hood River spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sunday's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Camp. Other guests at the Camp home at the same time were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Camp of Montavilla.

Mrs. A. G. Lambert is spending the most of her time in Portland helping to care for her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Clark, who is ill with pneumonia. She is reported to have passed the crisis.

J. E. Gates is having an addition made to his Funeral Home in the form of a 24x30 foot room to be used as a chapel. This room with the one adjoining will be made to seat approximately 200 people at one time. W. C. Gates, carpenter of Portland and brother of J. E. Gates, has charge of the work.

Friends of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman, who moved away from Gresham several weeks ago, are surprised to learn of her recent marriage, though what her present name is and where she now lives seem to be secrets so far as Gresham friends are concerned.

The general meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church has been changed from Wednesday, October 24, to Wednesday, Oct. 31.

Mrs. Earl Stanley entertained with a bridge luncheon Thursday. High honors went to Mrs. Clyde Jones of Portland and the consolation award to Mrs. W. C. Akins. Those present were Mrs. Rudolph Kaser, Mrs. W. C. Akins and Mrs. E. J. Brugger of Gresham, Mrs. George McCormack, Mrs. Sam Parker, Mrs. Rose Bailey and Mrs. Clyde Jones all of Portland.

It is expected that the cafeteria at the Gresham grade school will begin operation next Monday. The menu to start with consists of vegetable soup, rice pudding, plain and filled sandwiches and milk, any or all of which may be bought by the children at a nominal price. One or more of these articles may be taken to supplement lunches which the children bring or they may take the entire meal at the cafeteria. Letters have been sent by Principal Quicksall to the par-

Don't Leave the Wife and Children in the Dark

There is an old axiom to the effect that "at the foot of the lighthouse it is dark," and in the past in many homes the wife and children were kept in the dark as to the business and financial affairs of the head of the household.

But the old order has changed, and the modern woman looks into the future with the same keen and practical mind that has so materially advanced her position in the past quarter of a century, an attitude that is contributing a large measure of influence to the advance of our country.

A family budget and a bank account in a good bank will help solve the problem. Ask us how.
