Grade Cafeteria Serves Hot Lunches

The first lunch was served in the Gresham grade cafeteria Monday noon. The menu consisted of vegetable soup, peanut butter and honey sandwiches, rice pudding, and milk.

A number of tables, with brightly shining tops, were in readiness for the youngsters as they approached with their steaming bowls of soup, received from the serving tables.

The Parent-Teacher association, with the very much appreciated assistance of the school board, has been working earnestly on this cafeteria for some time. It is felt that the project will surely be a success and that it will not only be a benefit to the youngsters, but will be a credit to Gresham.

Any donations of fruits or vegetables, will be acceptable for the cafeteria, and anyone having a contribution should call Mrs. C. E. Johnson or C. M. Quicksall.

JAMES P. NEAL TELLS OF KIWANIS HISTORY

Over 30 members of the Portland Kiwanis club were present last night at the dinner served in the Gresham grange hall, and almost all of the members of the Gresham club. A very interesting program was given, under the direction of the visiting men.

An address was given by James P. Neal, vice president of Kiwanis International and a member of the Walla Walla organization of Kiwanians. Mr. Neal gave an interesting as well as instructive talk on the history and the birth of the Kiwanis club, and the principles for which it stands.

Near the close of the meeting President Art W. Stone, of Portland, called Mr. Neal to the floor and requested that he present Roy E. Cannon, Gresham president, with a gold Kiwanis pin, that was given to Mr. Cannon, by the local members.

Next Monday evening the wives and lady friends of the Gresham Kiwanians are extended an invitation to be present at the meeting.

Worker's Convention One of Helpfulness

The semi-annual meeting of the Pleasant Home District Sunday School association which met at the Methodist church at Pleasant Home Sunday was pronounced one of the most interesting and successful Sunday school conventions of the history of the association by those who have been regular attendants of these sessions during the past. Rev. Andrew Johnson and the corps of officers and committees had the program in charge.

Features of the day were the two very splendid addresses given by Rev. R. D. Everett, a Presbyterian Sunday school missionary with headquarters in Portland, who discussed very ably various phases of the Sunday school problems and goals; and Rev. Henry L. Weiss, of the Fremont Community Methodist Episcopal church of Portland, who discussed in a fine and helpful way the teaching task of the church; the round table discussion led by Rev. J. S. Nordell of the Haley Baptist church and Prof. Willard Shattuck, superintendent of the Boring Sunday school; the song service led by Rev. Gordon Johnson of the Pleasant Home Baptist church, and the special musical numbers presented by the junior choir of the Pleasant Home Methodist church; and Miss Martha Hagberg of the Gresham Baptist church, and last but not least the basket dinner furnished by the delegates of the convention and served by the Sunday school department of the entertaining church.

A committee consisting of G. H. Bickford, G. Nasshahn and Rev. John S. Nordell, presented resolutions which were adopted by the convention, which called upon citizens to "do their full duty in voting and to uphold the laws of the land, including the 18th amendment, which is today before the people as a national issue for acceptance or rejection." A resolution was also adopted favoring the continuation of the week-day Bible school, which is endorsed by all evangelical churches and against which strong opposition is being made. The entertaining church for the convention was thanked by a resolution.

Pleasant Home Locals. Alice Melton is confined to her home under a physician's care, suffering with a severe case of tonsillitis.

The Methodist Sunday school has received a very acceptable gift to the primary department in the form of an organ, given by Mrs. Anna Miles. Mrs. Robert Lundbom is the superintendent of this department.

Dancing.

Elnora Fay Fleck will hold her dancing class at Masonic hall, Gresham, Friday, at 3:45. A class will also be organized for high school girls. Those who would like to have information regarding the classes should be at the hall by 3:30.—Adv.

TEMPERANCE WOMEN HAVE ANNUAL MEET

Mrs. W. F. Honey and Mrs. Hattie M. Wolfe, delegates from the Gresham Union to the 45th annual convention of the Oregon State Woman's Christian Temperance Union, returned Friday night. Mrs. Frank Peak remained longer for a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Brooks and family.

The delegated attendance at this meeting was the largest in the history of the state. The banquet room the first evening was filled, and the welcome from officials and citizens of Eugene was royal. On the second evening the motion picture "Deliverance," was shown and Miss Maud Aldrich of Gresham delivered an address, both of which were well received.

Fifty children from the Children's Farm Home, under the direction of their instructor in music and sewing, rendered many musical selections and two readings. The salute to the flag was in perfect unison and was given lustily.

Gresham union received the highest honors in point of subscriptions to the Union Signal in proportion to its membership, and Mrs. Lulu Horning of Gresham, who is state director of circulation and official papers, won a special prize for the most efficiency points. The prize was a silver pencil awarded by Mrs. M. Frances Swope, corresponding secretary for the state W. C. T. U. Mrs. W. F. Honey and her committee, secured enough new subscribers to fill the quota for the county, namely, one subscriber for every six members. Incidentally, Multnomah county had 40 more than its quota, and Gresham, the highest, has a record of more than 50 per cent subscriptions to its membership. Mrs. Horning was re-elected director of this department for the state and will also be local director.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS JUDGE LOCAL STOCK

Several groups of boys from high schools maintaining Smith-Hughes vocational agricultural departments judged Percheron and Belgian horses at the Ruby stock farm on the Base Line road, and Holstein cattle on the S. B. Hall and J. Luscher & Sons farms at Fairview. All the instructors appreciated the excellent stock which were available for judging.

The instructors, schools and number of boys in each class are as follows: Herman Lafky, Canby, 8 boys; Warren E. Crabtree, Silverton, 11 boys; C. A. Thompson, Independence, 10 boys; Walter Leth, Newberg, 13 boys; Ronald E. Burnett, Woodburn, 9 boys; William F. Cyrus, McMinnville, 9 boys; Edward B. Starkey, Gresham, 10 boys.

Ralph McCullough Sees Historic East

Details of the trip of Ralph McCullough and his safe arrival in Philadelphia were told in a telegram received by S. F. Ball, principal of Franklin high school, last week. The telegram, read to the student body, told of Ralph's receptions at Omaha, Chicago and Buffalo, where he was met in each city by the fire chief and officials and taken on a sight-seeing tour. At Buffalo, after seeing the city, he was taken to Niagara Falls, where he had the pleasure of an aeroplane ride. From Buffalo he went to Philadelphia.

A telegram received Friday from C. A. Bigelow told of Ralph's having delivered his address before the international convention of fire chiefs, about 2000 being in the audience. Those from Portland who were present felt that Ralph had acquitted himself in a very creditable manner and that the address was a "great success."

While in Philadelphia, Ralph visited the many historic places of that city, including Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell and the Betsy Ross house. Saturday morning he left Philadelphia for New York City, where he spent the week-end, going on Monday to Washington, D. C. to visit President Coolidge.

Edward Grenfell, fire chief of Portland and C. A. Bigelow will accompany Ralph in the homeward journey, which will be made over the southern route. From Washington they will go to Atlanta, New Orleans, Houston, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Stops will be made at each of these cities.

FAIRVIEW

The Women's Society of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church will hold a tea and work meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Homer Campbell on the Columbia river highway.

Miss Loretta Bridge of Canby, Oregon, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Anna Swank.

Mrs. Laura Painter and son Hallic of Portland were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Eliza Stone.

Little Albert Stone, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stone met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon when he attempted to cross Fairview avenue. Albert stepped from the rear of his father's car directly in the path of a passing automobile, which struck him and dragged him for a number of yards before the driver was able to stop. The boy was taken to Gresham where X-ray pictures were taken. No bones were broken but he is suffering some severe bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoyt of Pacific Grove, Calif., visited at the homes of Mrs. Minnie Stone and Mrs. Eliza Stone. Mr. Hoyt is a cousin of the late A. L. Stone and H. S. Stone. While here the Hoyts and Stones enjoyed a trip over the Columbia highway.

A family reunion was held last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Person of Big Lake, Minn. Thirty-three relatives were present. Those coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Guilford of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. J. Downing, Amboy, Wash., and Dan Robertson, Longview, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moore have returned to their home. Mr. Moore has been working in the orchards near Hood River and during his absence Mrs. Moore has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Downing of Amboy, Wash., and with other relatives in Portland. They have been away about three weeks.

CLUB MEETS AT HOME OF MRS. J. C. TURNER

The Thimble club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Turner last Tuesday. The afternoon was spent in doing fancy work and in piecing quilts. Mrs. Turner entertained informally with a few selections on the panatrophe. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Jas. McBain, Mrs. Richard Beadle, Mrs. C. E. Van Slyke, Mrs. John Bliss, Mrs. L. P. Manning, Mrs. T. B. Huff. Out of town guests were Mrs. C. Humphrey of Boring and Mrs. Nellie Hall of Portland. CORBETT RESIDENTS SEE U. S. AND CANADA

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burba, of Corbett, returned Sunday from a six-week vacation spent in visiting the most important and interesting places in the southern part of Canada and in the eastern and southern part of the United States.

When Mr. and Mrs. Burba left Portland six weeks ago, they went directly to Vancouver, B. C. and from there boarded the Canadian Pacific train which took them to Banff, Alberta. They remained in Banff for a day or so, taking sight-seeing trips to the Rocky mountains and at one time visiting Lake Louise. Then on to Winnipeg where they were guests at the home of relatives who lived in and near there. They soon resumed their trip and went on to Toronto. From there they crossed back into the United States at Niagara Falls.

While in Canada the noted northwest mounted police, seemed to impress Mr. Burba very much. As is customary, the policemen that he saw were six feet or over in height. He says that Canada does not choose a policeman under six feet in height and the average is about six feet, four or five inches. Other things that were of much interest, besides the beautiful scenery, were the different animals they saw during their visits in the Rocky mountains. At one time three mountain goats were in view and at other times moose, elk and deer, could be seen.

From Niagara Falls the Burbas took passage on the Baltimore & Ohio railway to New York, the greatest little town in the United States, according to Mr. Burba. Mr. Burba had lots of fun showing his wife many familiar scenes that he had occasion to remember from experiences received while he was stationed there for a time during the war.

The next place of interest, and perhaps the most interesting of all, was the nation's capitol. At Washington, D. C., guides conducted them to different places of historical interest. Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington, attracted especial attention. Mr. Burba states that they, with other visitors, found everything just as George Washington was supposed to have left it. The monument in memory of the "Father of his country," a remarkable structure almost 600 feet high, was particularly impressive to the Oregon visitors.

From Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Burba left by way of Cincinnati, Ohio, for Mr. Burba's childhood home in Cadiz, Ky. In Cadiz they visited with two of Mr. Burba's sisters and an old schoolmate whom he had not seen for 25 years. From there they went by way of the Illinois Central railway to the southern part of Louisiana, in and near New Orleans. The Southern Pacific brought them across the desert route through Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, into the beautiful state of California, and thence home to Oregon. While in El Paso, Texas, they made a brief trip across the Mexican border to the little town of Juarez.

Mr. and Mrs. Burba returned to Corbett Sunday evening very much pleased with this part of the world and all their fellow citizens. They found in general a very strong feeling of good fellowship throughout the many different places they were in. However, Mr. Burba feels that there is "no land like Oregon."

MISSION CHURCH TO HEAR MANY SPEAKERS

Local plans for the ministerial and district North Pacific Missionary conference to be held at the Mission church at Powell Valley during the rest of this week, beginning Wednesday evening, and continuing over Sunday are well in hand. Swanson of Tremont, Seattle. On Thursday forenoon the speakers will be Rev. A. N. Anderson of Ballard, Seattle, and Rev. A. R. Anderson, a traveling missionary. Rev. Sundquist of Selah, and Rev. J. J. Huleen of Aberdeen, Wash., will be the speakers in the afternoon, and Rev. W. Westlund of Tacoma in the evening. Speakers on Friday's programs will be Rev. O. P. Larson of Damascus, Rev. M. E. Anderson, a traveling missionary, and Rev. Arvid Johnson, of Everett, Washington. Saturday will be taken up principally with business conferences. In the evening Rev. W. Hawkinson of Portland will speak. This will be in English.

New Lutheran Church To Build in Gresham

Important action was taken by the Saron Lutheran church at a business meeting last Friday evening, when it was voted to locate the new church, which that congregation is to build, in Gresham. The matter has been under discussion for many months. The votes cast numbered 40 and the majority in favor of the Gresham location was eight. It was explained, however, that this did not represent the true sentiment of the entire congregation, as many of those present said they would support the building project in either case, so refrained from casting their vote on the question of location.

A finance committee composed of Dr. J. G. Sture of Gresham, David Palmblad of Oak Grove, Ernest Lundbom of Pleasant Home, Lillian LeKander of the Hillside district and Rinar Mattson of Powell Valley was appointed to investigate the possibilities of raising the necessary funds.

Walter Kelly, architect of Portland, has submitted plans for a structure costing $25,000, to provide auditorium, parish hall, Sunday school facilities, and built with basement, main floor and second story. The plans have not yet been adopted by the congregation.

QUINTON H. KUMMEL MARRIED SATURDAY

Miss Florence Norma Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Willis of Gearhart, was married Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, to Quinton H. Kummel, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kummel of Gresham. The wedding ceremony was performed before a bank of beautiful asters and gladiolas, in the prospective home of the happy couple, at Arboleda, by Rev. H. V. Wilhelm, of Gresham.

The bride was dressed in shimmering white satin and wore a silk tulle veil. She carried a beautiful arm bouquet of rosebuds. She was accompanied by two bridesmaids, Miss Laverne Francis and Miss Lydia Gormick, both of Portland. The wedding march was played by a sister of the groom, Miss Mildred Kummel, of Gresham. Harvey Willis, a brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was enjoyed at Withrow's restaurant. Mr. and Mrs. Kummel then left immediately for the coast for a few days' honeymoon. They are now located in their future home at Arboleda.

Only intimate friends and relatives were present. Among those were the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Willis of Gearhart, and son Harvey of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hoyer and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hoyer, all of Castle Rock, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peters and daughter Marie, Theima and Vernone, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Haydes, Miss Margaret Dubendors and Will Dubendors, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rennick, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kummel and daughters Lucille and Mildred, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson, of Gresham.
