

Gresham Locals

A marriage license was issued last Wednesday in Portland to Earl Thomas McGinnis of Troutdale and Miss Irma Violet Hall of Portland.

Mrs. Alice Vuilleumier has returned to Gresham after an absence of a year. During that time she has been visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco and Los Angeles and a son in Escondido, Calif. She will visit with her sister, Mrs. George Tacheron, indefinitely.

J. W. Hudson is in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, recovering from an operation for cataract on his right eye. From all indications the operation will be successful. An operation will be undertaken on his left eye in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Pate and Andrew Pate, all of Hillsboro, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ward. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Winchester and children of Portland were also guests for that day at the Ward home.

A special meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft was held Friday afternoon at the local I. O. O. F. hall on Powell street. Mrs. Charles Lambert was taken into the order by obligation and Mrs. J. C. Turner, made a member of the Gresham lodge by transfer. Four other applicants were balloted on. Tonight there will be a regular meeting of the lodge with a social hour following.

J. R. Green and son, L. C. Green spent two days on a hunting trip near Mt. Hood on White river over the week-end. They returned Sunday evening with a good sized deer they had killed the day before.

Little Andre Kehrl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Kehrl, received a severely painful experience Monday morning when his arm was caught in the electric wringer. Although the arm was drawn into the wringer as far as the elbow, no bones were broken. Mr. and Mrs. Kehrl and family have moved to the Kern house on South Roberts avenue, recently vacated by the E. E. Welling family.

Miss Charlotte Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, and Miss Jean Iglis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Inglis, gave one of their best canning demonstrations Saturday afternoon before a crowded room in the auditorium of the Meier & Frank building. The girls, in company with two other prize winning teams, were among the teams that were especially invited to exhibit their skill at the Meier & Frank rooms, as a result of the showing they made at the state fair this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss enjoyed a very delightful trip to Bend and vicinity the past week. On Thursday they left Gresham for Bend by way of Wapinitia cut-off and the Dalles-California highway and returned Sunday by way of the Columbia highway. While near Bend, at Powell Butte, they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts and family. Mr. Roberts is harvesting a very fine yield of certified netted gem potatoes. He has a total of 5000 bushels, from 18 acres of land.

The Areme club will give a card party in the Masonic hall Wednesday evening. A general invitation is extended.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Coe have received word of the arrival of their first grandchild, Kathryn Marguerite, the 9-pound daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Mumford of McMinnville. The little girl was born October 19. Mrs. Coe visited her daughter Tuesday.

Among the University of Oregon students who came for the Oregon-Washington football game were Edward Stubbs, who spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Vida Stubbs. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers visited with relatives in Gresham and Portland Saturday and Sunday, returning to Eugene Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Clara C. Miller spent the week-end in Portland, the guest of Mrs. Saldie-Orr Dunbar.

The Munhnotu, annual of the Gresham Union high school, was given honorable mention in the contest conducted by the Oregon State chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity. The placings were on the basis of contents, make-up, cover design, originality, cost, printing and engraving.

Among Gresham people who heard the opening concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra last night were Mrs. H. L. St. Clair, Mrs. Benj. H. Davies and Phil Hepp. A splendid program was given to a crowded house.

Mrs. J. H. Wood of Gresham has received the announcement of the birth of her fifth great grandchild, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wood of Portland. Mrs. Will Wood, the grandmother, is caring for two other children of the Howard Wood family.

Miss Maud A. Hicks, county public health nurse, and Miss Jennie M. Niemela, her assistant in the county work, have visited several schools in this end of the county during the past few days. They report health conditions in the schools good. They are particularly pleased with the showing made by the primary children who passed through the pre-school clinics during the past few months. Mrs. Ellen Post, former worker in the county health organization, resigned her position September 1 and joined her husband at Roseburg, where he is adjutant at the old soldiers' home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Horning of Portland were guests of Troutdale chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at their regular meeting Saturday night. Mr. Horning teaches history, science and commercial law at Grant high school and is worthy patron of Sunnyside chapter.

Robert, the four-year-old son of Joe Exley, was severely injured Sunday afternoon when he was struck by a car on Main street driven by Mrs. Clifton D. Hillyard of Portland. The child's collarbone was broken, one of his eyes seriously hurt and he was bruised up generally. According to witnesses the little fellow started to cross the street near the Evangelical church and, seeing the car approaching, turned and ran back. Mrs. Hillyard made every effort to avoid hitting him but he was struck by the fender of the car. Reports from the hospital today are to the effect that Robert is improving rapidly and that injury to the eye seems to be clearing up.

Mrs. J. H. Wood had as callers today Rev. A. B. Calder of Boring and his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Hudson and her little son Milton Willard of New York city. Mrs. Hudson recently made the trip by automobile from New York to San Francisco and from the latter city to Portland in company with her brother, A. B. Calder Jr., and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Calder have returned to San Francisco from which place they expect to sail Friday for Peking, China. Mr. Calder has been for some time United States trade commissioner in China but is now promoted to the position of assistant commercial attaché for the United States government. He has spent the greater part of the summer in this country.

Rev. E. Horstmann left today for Seattle on church business. Mr. Horstmann is chairman of the district mission board. He goes to a meeting of the board.

Bert Gibson, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Portland sanitarium, returned home Saturday. Earl Calkins, a recent patient in the same hospital is at home and is now able to be on the street.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lane are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wright and their daughter, Mrs. Nina Laird of St. Johns, N. Dak., and Clyde Anderson of San Francisco. The Wrights are en route to California to spend the winter with a daughter at Costa Mesa. They are driving through, visiting many places. They are much impressed with this part of the country. Mr. Anderson has spent the summer in the middle west and is returning to his home in California.

Benj. H. Davies, who has been for more than two weeks in the United States Veterans' hospital in Portland, is showing marked improvement and is looking forward to an early release from the hospital.

Mrs. Wendell Cleveland and son of Heppner spent the week-end here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland. Mrs. Jesse Reddick and children of Reseda, Calif., is visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carothers. Mrs. Reddick came last Saturday and will remain the rest of this week.

PLEASANT HOME

Two real estate transfers have taken place in Pleasant Home recently. Mrs. Ben Fritsch has sold her home and five acres of ground to John Keveny for a consideration of $2000. Mr. and Mrs. Fritsch will reside on his place which consists of five acres, set to strawberries.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rybnick have sold their well improved berry farm of seven acres to Mr. and Mrs. M. Evans and son Homer of Portland for a consideration of $3500. Mr. and Mrs. Rybnick bought this tract about eight years ago. At that time it was mostly a tangle of evergreen blackberry vines, brush and stumps. A small shack provided living quarters. During the eight years they have put the land in first-class condition, have it planted to raspberries and strawberries with a small part for general use and have erected a neat five-room cottage which, surrounded by a lawn and flowers, makes it a very attractive home. The Rybnicks have stored their furniture and are undecided as to their future. Their friends hope they will decide to remain in the community.

The Baptist ladies are promising many good things to eat and an interesting program at their Halloween dinner next Wednesday evening, October 31, in the church basement. The general public is invited to attend.

Friends of the Fairweather family will be glad to know the two children who have been so ill with diphtheria are making very satisfactory recovery.

"Grandma" Waybill, who has been among the ailing ones, is reported much improved.

Tonsillitis is making a tour of the community. Mrs. H. C. Nelson and Alice Melton are two recent victims.

Mrs. D. D. Jack was a recent week-end visitor at the home of her grandson, Harold Jack.

Many of those who have been engaged in the apple harvest at Hood River are home again. The sorters and packers are still away.

Mrs. Roy Dickinson was here Saturday from Portland moving her furniture from the Baptist parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rokes and children have moved into the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Guthu and family and Mr. and Mrs. Herrington called at the Shrine hospital Sunday to see Harold Guthu who is a patient there. Earlier in the day the Guthu and Herrington families enjoyed a dinner in honor of "Grandpa" Herrington's 76th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Fern C. Mulkey and daughter Geraldine, who have been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. House for the past six weeks, have moved to Gresham, where Mrs. Mulkey is a member of the Outlook force.

Robert Shumway and Bud Moulton returned to their homes Saturday from Hood River where they have been working in the apple harvest.

Fisher's BLEND BRAND FLOUR

Takes the Guess-Work Out of Bake Day

The wonderful exhibits at last week's Cooking School Contest demonstrate the wisdom of using FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR—and prove once again that it's as good for cakes and pastry as for bread. Dorothy Mae Hubbs, the Cooking School Demonstrator, used it exclusively in all demonstrations and you will be wise to follow her example every day in the year.

FISHER'S BLEND is used in more northwest homes than any other one brand of Flour.
