

VELNA HILLYARD WEDS EARL L. RETHERFORD

The marriage of Miss Velna Marie Hillyard, daughter of W. J. Hillyard, of Boring, to Earl L. Retherford, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Retherford of Canby, took place October 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hillyard of Rose City Park, with the Rev. F. B. Culver, officiating.

The living room was beautifully decorated with fernery, autumn leaves and asters in pastel shades. The bride, who was attended by Miss Dorothy Burpee as bridesmaid, and Barbara Lee and Virginia Lou Retherford as flower girls, was attractive in a gown of white satin, bodice waist with full skirt and uneven hemline, and carried a shower bouquet of opelia roses and lillies of the valley. Miss Burpee wore a gown of pink taffeta made in bouffant style and carried a bouquet of opelia roses. Harold V. Retherford, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Nova Hedin of Maupin played the wedding march and preceded the ceremony, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Newton Hedin.

Mr. and Mrs. Retherford motored to eastern Oregon and upon their return will be at home in the San Mateo apartments in Portland.

PLEASANT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bell and children were honor guests at dinner Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carroll. The Bell families are leaving soon for the east.

The program to be given by the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church Wednesday, October 31, promises many interesting features. Two which are already announced are the presence of the Miller Tracey quartet for musical numbers, and readings by Miss Florence Notz, teacher in the Orient school. The supper is to follow on the Hallowe'en idea and will precede the program.

Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock Multnomah grange will convene for its regular monthly meeting. All members are expected to be present.

The regular Sunday services will be held next Sunday at the Pleasant Home Baptist church. Rev. Gordon Johnson will be present for both morning and evening services at 11 and 8 o'clock. Bible school convenes at 10 o'clock and Junior B. Y. P. U. at 7:30 o'clock.

The Fairweather children who have been at the Nelson home for two weeks have returned to their home in Portland. All the children have now had diphtheria except Paul and it was feared Thursday he might be taking the disease as he was showing some symptoms. In order to have him near the doctor for careful observation it was decided to take him to his own home. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have fumigated their home to make sure no germs are there and will soon consider themselves out of "unofficial quarantine."

Many of the returned apple pickers have gone to work on the bulb farm which was formerly Crisey's Alpine Gardens. A California firm has purchased this sightly place and has gone into bulb production on a large scale.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinski are especially proud these days because a little daughter, named Betty Jean, has come to reside in their home. The little miss arrived Saturday, October 20. Mrs. Klinski is at Portland sanitarium.

LUSTED

The Hallowe'en party and pie social which is being planned for next Tuesday night at the schoolhouse will be a masquerade. Ladies are asked to bring pies and all are urged not to forget the paper drive the same night. Everyone is cordially invited to enjoy the games and fun.

POWELL VALLEY

The Bible school of Saron Lutheran church will meet at 9:45 Sunday morning and will be followed at 11 by Reformation festival in English. At 7:30 in the evening the pastor, Rev. Enoch Sandeen, will tell the story of Pilgrim's Progress, illustrated by 100 slides. These are copies of the original illustrations of the book and not the modern drawings.

The Sunday program for the North Pacific Missionary conference in session at the Mission church will begin at 9:30 with a brief prayer service. The Sunday school will meet as usual at 9:50 and will be addressed by Rev. H. Lundberg of Seattle. The sermon at 11 o'clock will be by Rev. C. R. Martin of Selah, Wash. Rev. A. J. Bard, a district evangelist, will speak at 3 o'clock and Rev. Gust E. Johnson of Seattle tabernacle will preach in the evening at 7:30. All services of the day will be in English excepting the one at 3 o'clock.

A Hallowe'en harvest festival will be held at the schoolhouse Saturday evening at 8 o'clock by the Luther League of the Saron Lutheran church. Booths are being arranged, to be added features of the entertainment program promised for the evening. Refreshments will be served.

MRS. JAMES RUSH OF EAGLE CREEK PASSES

Mrs. Ella Rush, wife of James Rush of Eagle Creek, died at her home in Eagle Creek Thursday afternoon, October 18. Mrs. Rush, who was 70 years of age, was born in Michigan, July 9, 1858. She moved to Eagle Creek about 10 years ago and has been a resident there since. Besides her husband she leaves a son Richard of Eagle Creek and a daughter, Mrs. Mollie R. Troupe, also of Eagle Creek.

Fuerial services were held in the Eagle Creek church Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock with the sermon by Rev. Mr. Kirkwood of Springwater. Interment was made in the Odd Fellow's cemetery at Estacada, under the direction of the Gates Funeral Home of Gresham.

Mrs. Rita Lantz and sons Walter and Chester of Redmond, Oregon, spent the greater part of last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Lantz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pullen. Walter the eldest son, is an experienced electrician and owns an electrical shop in Redmond.

Mrs. Alfred Brunner is the possessor of a fine new electric sewing machine, the gift of her uncle, Fred Brunner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor and children, Jack and Dick, of Olympia, Wash., spent several days visiting at the home of Mrs. Taylor's father, G. B. Stockton.

G. B. Stockton met with what might have been a serious accident last Monday when his car was run into and wrecked just as he was returning home from Gresham. The three young men in the heavy sedan did not notice Mr. Stockton's signal or his slowing for the turn until it was too late. The driver applied his brakes and after skidding several feet struck the rear of Mr. Stockton's car. Both cars were damaged quite badly but no one was seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Werling and children, Nelson, Anna May, and Catherine, have just moved into the Jerry Stanley home. Mr. Werling is now working for the General Foundry at Gresham.

K. Kaser recently presented his family with a fine new Buick sedan, purchased through the agency of Walter W. Metzger.
