

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor spent the week-end at Brownsville visiting with their son Milo and family.

Mrs. Mary McAllister visited her son James in Corvallis Sunday. Her daughter, Mrs. Melvin Johnson of Portland, and Miss Lucy Adams, of Gresham accompanied her.

F. N. Lasley of Taft, Oregon, was in Gresham Tuesday and a caller at the Outlook office. Mr. Lasley, who is proprietor of Lasley's Crescent cottages near Taft, was on his way to his former home at Corbett.

The store front of the Carlson building, housing the J. E. Metzger furniture store and the funeral parlor, has just been repainted. F. G. Gillett, who did the painting, put on the last coat the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Calkins spent last week-end in Longview, Wash., visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Robert Lambert.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weberg were visitors this week at the home of Mrs. E. E. Dean and daughter Irene. Mrs. Weberg, who until recently was Miss Margaret Hansen of Carlton, left Oregon a few months ago, for a visit to Indiana, where she met Mr. Weberg and later was married to him. They are touring the western states now and expect to return sometime next spring to Michigan, where Mr. Weberg is engaged in running a silver fox farm.

Fred Stager of Boring who recently purchased the Quinby garage on Powell street, has bought the I. B. Cone house on First street, and expects to move his family here soon. Another recent business transaction was the purchase of the M. D. Kern house on South Roberts avenue, by Andre Kehrl. Both transactions were made through Elkington & Brown, realtors.

Mrs. Ralph Brown, Mrs. Chester Phillips and Phil Hepp met with about 200 others at Turnverein hall in Portland Wednesday evening, when a philharmonic choral society was formed which will perform in conjunction with the Portland Symphony orchestra at some of the winter programs.

J. S. Bush and daughters, Miss Theresa Bush and Miss Juanita Bush, returned Tuesday evening from Wenatchee, Wash., where they have been working in the fruit for the past six weeks.

Eleven tables of progressive 500 were played at the Areme club card party Wednesday evening in the Masonic hall. High honors for the ladies went to Mrs. S. B. Hall and for the gentlemen to W. A. Hessel. Those on the committee for the party were Mrs. C. M. Quicksall, Mrs. Arthur Dowsett, Mrs. Benj. Cameron and Mrs. Geo. W. Page. This party is one of a series that will be played during the winter, having one party every month.

J. E. Staley, who underwent a major operation at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland about three weeks ago, is slowly recovering. An auction sale of farm equipment and some household goods is advertised for Saturday at his place on the Section Line road three miles east of Gresham.

Rev. H. V. Wilhelm and family have moved into the new parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is now practically completed. The house is most attractive both within and without. The main floor has a roomy living room and dining room, kitchen, breakfast nook and guest room. One of the most attractive features of the first floor is the sun porch so placed as to get the light from east, south and west. Two bed rooms, sewing room and bath are on the second floor. All the interior woodwork is finished in driftwood, and the walls are tastefully papered. The exterior of the house is white stucco with brown trim. The grounds are being graded and seeded to lawn around both new and old parsonage and church.

Blair Thomas, who has been working at the Copeland Lumber company, during the past three months, was transferred Wednesday to Vancouver. Mr. Thomas is to have charge of the books in the Vancouver office of the Copeland Lumber company.

The carpenters have resumed their work on the Joseph S. Chiodo residence on Powell street. They are adding a 16-by-14-foot extension to the living room and dining room and shingling the exterior of the entire house.

The Royal Neighbors met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. P. Wyant. The district convention, which will be held at Banks, Oregon, November 23, was the main topic of discussion during the evening. The next meeting of the Gresham lodge will be held at Mrs. Glen Davidson's home, November 15.

Miss Sadie Dotson has gone for a few days' visit with relatives to Skamokawa, Wash., and Astoria, Oregon. During her absence her place as housekeeper in the H. L. St. Clair home is being taken by Mrs. Benj. H. Davies.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ruesg are being felicitated over the birth of a son, Jack Robert, on October 21. Mother and baby are being cared for at the nursing home of Mrs. Carrie Powell.

Miss Stiles, a grade school teacher, accompanied by Miss Inez Lusted, were week-end guests of the former's parents, at Eugene.

Sergeant Hervey Ide of Headquarters company 1st battalion, 186th infantry, has been promoted to staff sergeant, according to the current issue of The Oregon Guardsman.

The general meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid will be at the home of Mrs. W. J. Cooper, Wednesday afternoon, October 31. An important business session will be held and later an entertainment program in charge of the So and Sew circle will be given.

Mr and Mrs. A. G. Cushman and children, Arthur and Elizabeth, arrived Monday evening from New York for an indefinite stay at the home of Mrs. Cushman's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson. They are considering making their home here.

Good progress has been made by the solicitors for the community chest in this vicinity. There are still some promised contributions out and some who have deferred decision. These are asked by the committee to send their pledges or contributions to C. E. Johnson at the Bank of Gresham. It is planned to give a complete list of donors in a later issue of the Outlook.

A new supply of Hoover badges and car stickers has been received at the Outlook office, also a few thimbles. There is a small supply of Hoover pictures. These are free for the asking as long as they last.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. W. C. Spence of Troutdale next Thursday, November 1, at 2:30. All ladies of the community are invited. The program will be announced later.

An 8 1/2-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Gantehelm Friday morning. Mother and baby are reported doing fine at their home.

Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Yates, Virgil Howell and daughters Edith and Ethel went to Portland Tuesday where they met with others at First Free Methodist church to pack dried fruit to be sent to mission stations in various parts of the world. Packages aggregating about a thousand pounds were made ready for shipment by the Foreign Missionary society of the conference to Africa, India, China and Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Markwart and family and Mrs. Edwin Lewis went to Dallas Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Quite Natural, but True

A woman who weds for love only is likely to advise her daughter to find out her suitor's financial rating before she ventures to say, Yes.

If you happen to be so inclined, you can squander the money you have banked, but you never can bank any money you have squandered.
