W. F. Honey has completed the sale of 60 acres of second growth timber to the Alder Creek Lumber Co., of Sandy. There is approximately 750,000 feet of lumber to be cut from this wooded acreage. The 60 acres of timber is located about two and one-half miles east of Sandy.

Miss Grace Welch, who was transferred from the Portland P. E. P. Co.'s office about two years ago to assist in the local office, returned to the Portland office the first of the month. Miss Welch is employed in the accounting department. Richard Shroy, of Troutdale, is here to fill the vacancy caused on the Gresham force.

On account of Armistice Day, the Areme club meeting will be postponed from Monday afternoon to Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. V. Cogswell will be the hostess. She will be assisted by Mrs. U. G. Smith, Mrs. C. C. Yager and Mrs. Roy E. Cannon.

Hessel Implement Co. has recently installed a Myers water system in the Wm. Sales home on Base Line road.

The office equipment and auto supplies of the Chevrolet company were moved this week to the new location on Powell street and Maple avenue.

Wm. Kneffel has installed a Myers water system in his new home on Fairview avenue, opposite the Speed Bowl. The system was purchased from Hessel Implement company.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rannow of Sandy, Tuesday morning at the Bushong Nursing home. The little Miss, who weighed 8 1/4 pounds, has been named Christina Ramona.

Wm. E. White, signalman first-class in the United States navy, was in Gresham Wednesday in an effort to secure recruits in this vicinity for the navy. He plans to spend three or four days here about the second week of each month recruiting and will be glad to give information here or at the naval recruiting headquarters in the Panama building, Third and Alder, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Comstock and children came from Hood River to attend the funeral of Schuyler C. Jones. Mr. Comstock has returned to his work but Mrs. Comstock will remain for a few days' visit with her mother, Mrs. A. W. Easton.

Another real estate transfer to be negotiated in Gresham recently, was the purchase by Geo. W. Hale of a four-room house, garage and four lots of property bordering Ridge avenue. The previous title to the property belonged to Mrs. Margaret Bunting and George Reynolds. The deal was transacted through Elkington & Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and children moved Thursday to the house on Linden avenue belonging to Mrs. Wilma Rogers and Mrs. Clarence Bateman, of Portland. Mr. Johnson has been employed for the past four weeks at the Sanitary Meat Market, and his family has been living in Portland. The Johnson family came from North Dakota about six weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Splawn, Roy C. Cole, Mrs. Geo. Staffanson and children have returned from Yakima, where they spent the past two months working in the apple harvest or at potato digging.

Mrs. Mark Niekerson, Mrs. Clara C. Miller and Mrs. P. Lenard, members of the local Y. W. C. A. committee spent the day Sunday in attendance at the council held at Rock Creek camp on the Clackamas river of "Y. W." workers in Oregon and southern Washington. A large number was in attendance and inspiring sessions were held. Among the leaders present were Miss Zale French, national secretary, and Mrs. P. P. Lawrence of Portland, national committee woman.

The Gresham library will be closed Monday in observance of Armistice Day. All those having books due on that date are urged to bring them in before that time.

Mrs. Edwin Ross of St. Helens and Mrs. Douglas Wright of Portland were callers Thursday at the homes of Mrs. Clara C. Miller and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse.

The Royal Neighbors will meet on Tuesday evening instead of Thursday as previously announced. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Lundquist. A good attendance is desired as important business matters will be brought up.

THE RELIABLE MATE

This sturdy, accurate and dependable strap model is just the watch for the active man. It is built to withstand the hard knocks of everyday life. Built of the finest materials by the same master craftsmen who produce the high grade Illinois railroad and 12 size watches.

Supplied in a small, attractive 14K gold filled case. The dial is two-toned, full luminous. The Mate is a good timekeeper and an exceptional value.

Miss Edith Wood spent Thursday visiting with her cousin, Mrs. E. R. Walser. In the evening Miss Wood returned to her home in Yacolt, Wash.

The Auxiliary Sewing club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. C. Gray Tuesday afternoon, November 13. Work will be completed on the layette the members of the club have been making for the child welfare department of the auxiliary. Mrs. W. H. Baillie will assist the hostess.

Officers of the Gresham Garden club have announced that the regular meetings have been suspended until February. The club is planning to do some improvement work on the city's property around the city hall. The intention is to plant shrubs and perennials there next week. Persons having such plants to donate are asked to report the varieties and numbers to Mrs. W. F. Honey or Mrs. Chas. Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts and daughter Ina of Powell Butte visited with friends and relatives in Gresham the first of the week. The Roberts family came from the Deschutes county town to attend the stock show on Sunday and Monday. While here Mr. Roberts wished to correct the statement that had been given the Outlook a few weeks ago in regard to his potato crop. He says that 12,000 bushels of potatoes were harvested this year from 18 acres of land instead of 5000 as previously reported.

Mrs. W. H. Baillie entertained informally at a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. W. D. Kinder of Boise, Idaho, who has been visiting here. Mrs. Albert Camp, Mrs. B. A. Miller and daughter Dorothy, all former friends of Mrs. Kinder's, were guests.

There will be no school at either the high school or grade school Monday in observance of Armistice Day. A program was given at the high school this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Camp received word this week of the arrival of their second great-grandchild. A 7 1/2-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of Hood River on November 3. Miss Moore has been named Betty May.

Among Gresham people to take in the stock show at Portland on Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. George Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Towle.

Vern S. Wilson of Portland, a former resident of Iowa, visited yesterday at the county agent's office in Gresham. Mr. Wilson is a second cousin of Herbert C. Hoover and had many commendatory things to say of his distinguished relative.
