Don't Get Excited

There will be plenty to go around in this country and some for Europe.

Don't speculate. If you have money to speculate with-buy a government bond.

Buy what you need, as you need it, from your regular dealer. Pay as promptly as possible. It costs a lot to do business now and your dealer needs the money.

We carry a staple line of goods to choose from at the right price, and a safe place to trade.

EXCHANGE OF RECIPES

A column open for the exchange of recipes, to which all are asked to feel free to contribute. Recipes printed under this head are all tried and in many instances have been requested.

CAKE WITHOUT SUGAR

Mrs. Jay Pelmulder

Cream until very light half a cupfull of butter and add, a little at a time, 1 2 3 cupsfull of thick honey. Have two eggs beaten lightly; add these to the butter and honey with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder sifted with two cupsfull of flour. Beat the batter well, turn into a ring mold that has been well greased and dredged with flour and bake about 35 minutes.

ONION SOUP

U. S Dept. Agriculture

2 large onions or 4 medium ones.
3 level tablespoonfuls fat, butter, or a mixture of the two.
3 pints boiling water, or water and skim milk (half and half).
1½ teaspoonfuls salt.
¼ level teaspoonful pepper.
2 tablespoonfuls flour for thickening if desired.

Melt the fat and when hot put in the onions, which have been cut up fine; cook slowly until the onions are soft, then over a hotter fire until the onions are brown—but not at all burned. Add the boiling water or water and milk, thicken with the flour stirred up in a little cold water, if it is desired to give the soup a little more "body;" boil up well and serve. It is a common custom to pour the soup over pieces of browned bread before serving. A mild cheese, grated, is a good addition to the soup, particularly if it is made with water.
