HERMISTON LOCALS

Father Butler returned Wednesday from a short visit to Pendleton.

A baby boy arrived at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Huffman on Sunday, August 5, 1917.

Miss Bessie McPherson, accountant at the local creamery, visited in Portland a few days this week.

Mrs. Ralph Richard, who had been visiting with relatives in Portland for a few days, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. F. M. Callbeck left for Spokane Wednesday, where she will enjoy a short visit with a married daughter residing there.

Col. Newport arrived home Thursday morning from a two weeks business trip to Condon, Portland and other Oregon points.

Miss Fern Corey of Irrigon, who has been visiting here at the home of her brother, C. S. Corey, for several days, returned to her home Thursday.

Miss Laura C. Glover arrived Wednesday from her home in Portland to enjoy a two weeks' visit in this city at the home of her sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Root.

Miss Faith Vince returned Thursday to her home in Lewiston, Idaho, after a three months visit at the ranch home of her sister, Mrs. C. S. Corey, three miles north of town.

At The Movie tonight little Marie Osborne will appear in "Shadows and Sunshine," and Wednesday night next week Mary Pickford will characterize "Poor Little Peppina."

Professor Deneaf, who is traveling over Eastern Oregon in the interests of Mount Angel College, was a visitor to Hermiston Wednesday, and while here was a guest of Fathers Butler and Killian.

R. W. Allen, superintendent of the Umatilla Experimental Farm, went to Cove, this state, Tuesday, where on Wednesday he acted as judge of exhibits at the cherry fair held there on that day.

Mrs. T. G. Sinclair returned Thursday from a vacation visit to coast cities. Mrs. Sinclair, who is a telegraph operator, assists her husband in conducting the station on the O. W. cutoff at Hinkle.

L. S. Ainsworth, field man and buyer for the Wittenberg-King Co. of The Dalles, was looking over the peach proposition in the district this week and delivering lug boxes to customers of the evaporating concern.

The advance guard of salt water beach visitors began to arrive home the first of the week, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fraser and Mr. and Mrs. Carl McNaught, who report having had a most glorious time at Beach Centre, the Coney Island of the Pacific.

The red and blue Sunday school contest being held at the Baptist church closes tomorrow, so all members and their friends are requested to attend and help their side. The losing side will furnish entertainment at a picnic the following week, place to be announced Sunday.

R. C. Challis, the local butcher and merchant, made a business trip overland in his Ford truck to Pendleton Tuesday, returning the following day with a load of foodstuffs to replenish his grocery stock. He reports the roads as not being the best between the two towns, although not near so bad as has been reported by some tourists traveling over them lately.

Col. Shotwell arrived home Wednesday from a trip to Condon where he went a few days earlier to look after some business matters connected with construction work in which he is interested in that section of the state. While away he took time to run over to Vancouver, Wash., to visit his son Arnold, who is in the chemical department of the U. S. army at the barracks located there.

George Challis, assistant to Mr. Anderson at the local creamery, took Wednesday off to attend the wedding in Stanfield of Miss Verl Muncey to Mr. Lester Wilson, both of whom are particular friends of his. The nuptial knot was tied at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford in the above city, and after a wedding dinner the young couple went to Baker City on their honeymoon. On their return they will be at home to friends at the Sunrise ranch southeast of Stanfield.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Shipley and son Newton arrived Tuesday from Forest Grove, this state, to settle on the ranch situated three miles north of Hermiston formerly owned by Dwight Sellers. Near Forest Grove Mr. Shipley operated a big dairy ranch, and this he sold to Mr. Sellers, taking the gentleman's farm here in as part payment. Lack of rain has been a serious handicap to dairymen and farmers in that portion of the state this year, for according to Mr. Shipley there has been no precipitation in or around the section he came from during the entire summer months.
