Vice President Marshall wants to "send the wind squad in Congress to France with the aviators." Wouldn't do. Aviators can't fly in a gale.

A sensible man doesn't care for his wife having the last word. What gets his goat is for her to claim the first, too, and then all in between.

Yes, we are going to buy a liberty bond when the next call is made. Our delinquent subscribers have promised to pay up then. Now laugh darn you!

It's worrying us to determine how Europe, when this war is over, is going to play euchre with a deck from which the kings and queens have been eliminated.

Every time a great man goes out from the rear to view the Russian army, the bewhiskered troopers become so overjoyed that they rush right back to meet him half way.

I. W. W. and labor troubles generally are threatening many lines of industry. These matters must be settled by arbitration and not by strikes in a critical time like this. Radical leaders advocating violence should be locked up or sent to war where their fighting ability will be appreciated.

Send your washing to the Model laundry at The Dalles, Oregon, through P. B. Sisco, local agent. Basket leaves Tuesday morning and returns Friday of each week. -adv49:fc

HOW WILL IT BE RAISED?

In discussing the question of raising the enormous amounts of revenue necessary even during the coming twelve months, an exchange, after demonstrating the utter impossibility of raising the vast amount by taxation, and the corresponding necessity of resorting to bond issues, concludes as follows:

"In a sentence, unless the big loans are balanced with heavy taxes upon those who are making money out of the war, we will rapidly and inevitably reach a state of financial, industrial and social chaos."

The conclusion is inevitable to the candid person who will give the question unbiased thought. Based on the probability of a need of from fifteen to twenty billion dollars by this time next summer, the demand would mean from $600 to $750 for each of the twenty million families that make up the nation. It can be seen at a glance that this can never be even approximately distributed among the masses. Possibly a few more billions may be secured through popular subscription, but the great bulk of the required means must come, as our contemporary suggests, from those who are making money out of the war.

If the war continues for even two years longer there will be fortunes made that will dwarf any the world has yet seen, provided business is allowed to take its hitherto uninterrupted course.

While it is true we will spend prodigious amounts, it is equally true that we will make fabulous amounts. The allied nations are practically at our mercy for food and other supplies. Huge revenues are constantly coming from that source. Not a dollar's worth of any commodity that can be used by man need go to waste in the United States for want of a foreign market.

It is up to our government to correctly analyze the situation and place the burdens of taxation to meet these great national expenditures upon the shoulders of those who benefit by war prices.

Will our law makers arise to the occasion and make an equitable adjustment of these burdens? Along with some very common, we have some really good timber in our national legislature, and it is to be hoped that this material will insist upon a reasonable and just basis for working out this momentous question.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Thus far we have noticed no amendment in the food making it unlawful for a person to sell "licker" to a congressman.

The fellow who had a vacant lot and didn't cultivate it is now kicking himself every time he has to buy a few wilted vegetables.

John Wanamaker remarks that money isn't everything in life. Yet John has devoted a large portion of his life to annexing it.

Many people have not always agreed with Mr. Bryan in his views, but every true American will agree with his latest—that the way to end the war is to go through it.

THE Hermiston Herald

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
