LOCAL BRIEFS

Miss Ida Eldridge of Pilot Rock left Tuesday after a few days' visit here with her friend, Miss Leah Percy.

The mother of Mrs. Clarence Roberts is here from Colorado enjoying a visit with her daughter and family.

Miss Pearl Martin of Stanfield was a guest in this city Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. R. C. Challis.

Dr. and Mrs. Wainscott and Mr. and Mrs. Rayhill are home from Long Beach. They report having had a very fine outing.

Alderman Harry Straw, manager of the Inland Empire Lumber Co., has joined his family at the sea beach on his summer vacation.

Another carload of lug boxes have arrived at the Umatilla Storage & Commission Co. warehouse for distribution among local peach growers.

Another of those dances which have become so popular among the young people of this community will take place at the Auditorium Friday evening of next week.

Mrs. F. V. Newman and daughter Katherine arrived in Hermiston Tuesday from Seattle, and are guests of the first named lady's sister, Mrs. F. L. Dufley, owner and operator of the Hermiston hotel.

Jack Gorham returned the first of the week from Greeley, Neb., where he went two months ago to be at the bedside of his father, who at that time was critically ill and who later passed to the great beyond.

Albert Crossland, who operates the big dairy ranch on the Boone place west of town enjoyed a visit last Sunday and Monday from his brother, who is a well known wheat rancher of Union, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yancey, who conduct a confectionery store at Wasco, Ore., returned to their home Wednesday after a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McMillen, the latter lady being a sister of Mrs. Yancey.

A teachers' meeting will be held in Supt. Gunn's office in the high school Saturday, Sept. 1, at 4 p. m., at which time all the local instructors will assemble for the purpose of becoming acquainted.

Tonight (Saturday) at The Movie will be staged "A Modern Monte Cristo," and Wednesday evening of next week John Barrymore, the celebrated stage and screen favorite, will appear in "The Lost Bridegroom."

As will be noticed by an advertisement elsewhere in this issue, The Herald has entered into a clubbing agreement with the Oregon Farmer whereby patrons who pay in advance can receive the two papers for the price of one.

A meeting of the Hermiston Commercial Club will be held Monday evening, Sept. 3, at which time it is urgently requested that all members and others interested in the town's advancement be present, for business of more than usual importance is to come before the meeting.

Miss Leah Percy leaves today for Portland, accompanied by her mother, to spend some time in a millinery house in that city. While there she will buy a stock of millinery for a store she will open in the small building recently bought by her father from Dr. Wainscott.

Dr. Andrew Warner of Walla Walla, Wash., the district superintendent, was present and held the fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist church last Thursday night at the parsonage. There was a good attendance, and the outlook is encouraging for the coming year.

William Kennedy, formerly in the real estate business in this city, but now holding a position in the customs house in Portland in the inheritance tax department, spent the greater portion of the week here attending to personal business matters and looking after residence and country property which he still owns in this valley.

PROJECT MANAGER RETURNS FROM EAST

H. D. Newell, manager of this government reclamation project, accompanied by Mrs. Newell and their little son, arrived home Monday from a trip to the old home in the state of Massachusetts.

During their absence they visited in many eastern cities, during which time they say they suffered from the heat more so than if they were at home here, and for that reason they are glad to be back to the Hermiston valley.

The visit to the old home, though, was most enjoyable, the time passing all too quickly attending social functions and conversing with old and forming new acquaintances.

During Mr. Newell's absence the management of the project was ably handled by M. D. Scroggs.

KINGSLEYS RETURN FROM IOWA JOURNEY

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Kingsley, who attended a family reunion at the former home of Mr. Kingsley away back in Shellrock, Iowa, came home Monday, and since then the above gentleman has been at his accustomed place in his general store in this city, evidently feeling fitter for work than before taking his vacation.

On the return trip himself and wife made short stops in cities in northwestern Iowa, Minnesota and North Dakota. In all of these states Mr. Kingsley says he noticed that the wheat crop was exceptionally good, and that the financial condition was accordingly in the best condition. They report having had an immensely fine time.
