Flies are Here...
And will be harder to keep out of the house as the nights get cooler than they have been.
Our screen doors were bought before the high prices and we have not raised the price on them.
Don't try to get along till another year.
Buy a Screen Door
That will last ten years at last year's prices and have a house free from flies this year.

HERMISTON LOCALS

Do not fail to attend the next meeting of the Hermiston Commercial club.

Attorney W. J. Warner went to Echo Monday and transacted legal business between trains.

Miss J. Creasy, who has been holding a position as nurse in a Pendleton hospital, is home on a visit.

Mrs. Wilson of Boardman returned last Saturday to her home after a few days' visit to her friend, Mrs. S. Mattoon, in this city.

J. W. Messner, president of the Western Land & Irrigation Co., returned the fore part of the week from a short business visit to Walla Walla.

V. O. Brunner, one of the quota of operators for the local railway company stationed at Unatilla, was sightseeing in this city Saturday last.

W. H. Skinner came home Monday from Portland, where he went last week on business connected with the recent big land deal he made here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Furnas enjoyed an outing at Meacham Springs last week, returning home Saturday evening. During their absence W. M. Friend looked after operations on their large ranch.

Harry L. Chapman, who holds a position as machinists' helper in the O. W. R. & N. Co. shops at Pendleton, was visiting at the parental home in this city a couple of days the first of the week.

Miss Lois Samson was in Hermiston from her home in Irrigon again Monday, having to come to the local doctor for treatment of another felon which appeared on the next finger on the same hand that troubled her when she was here a short time ago.

F. C. Alten, one of the most extensive ranchers in the neighborhood of Unatilla, was a business visitor in this city Monday. Mr. Alten operates 714 acres all told, 115 of which is in alfalfa and the balance at present orchard, garden and pasture land.

W. J. Crandall, who has been here visiting his parents the past three weeks, expects to return to Los Angeles, Calif., about the 15th of this month to finish the balance of a course he is taking in medical science consisting of osteopathy, medicine and surgery.

Soren Jensen arrived home Sunday from Helix, where he has been for over a month working in the harvest fields. He says that while the wheat in that part of the state does not come up to the average this year on account of the long dry spell, nevertheless it made what was considered a fair crop for an off year like the present, running from 20 to 25 bushels to the acre.

W. M. Hubbs, who is the owner of a choice tract of land close to this city, left for his home in Silverton, Oregon, Monday, after having been here several days making arrangements for its improvement. Before taking his departure he dropped in and subscribed for The Herald, saying that he wanted to keep posted on what was going on in this neighborhood and become more familiar with conditions, as he intends sometime in the not distant future to come here to reside.

Miss Lillian Kik of Seattle, who has been a guest at the ranch home of her brother William the past week, has decided to remain and keep house for her relative. The amiable young lady, while being city bred, believes that she can quickly adapt herself to farming conditions as she has longed for a change from city to country life for some time. Mr. Kik is a young man who is doing well in this valley, operating eighty acres of land north of town, having a large part of the acreage in alfalfa, and making arrangements to add more thereto next spring.

The greatest aggregation of world's champions ever seen in one contest will compete at the Round-up, September 20, 21 and 22. The contest will be the biggest things the world has ever seen. All former champions will meet and compete for the supreme title. In the cowgirls relay race Ruth Partos, Mable DeLong, Bertha Blancett, Mrs. Parsons, Lilla Smith and Josephine Sherry will ride against each other. In the cowboys' relay Sleepy Armstrong, Darrell Cannon, Allen Drumheller, Paxton Irwin, Kasp Lynch, and Bob Anderson will ride. These riders are all champions. In the steer roping Geo. Wier, Charlie Wier, Joe Benson, Henry Yabeny, Sammy Garret, Tom Grimes, Ed McCarty, Dan Clark and John Judd, and former winners, will compete. In every other one of the competitive events it will be the same thing, champion against champion and then some outsiders. The Directors say it will be the biggest Round-up ever pulled off. These people will all positively be here, as the Round-up never makes such an announcement until it is a sure thing. Indications are that the crowd will be up to normal. The seat sale opens Sept. 1, and the advance sale is already above 1915.

Our New Fall and Winter Book of Samples

The Ed. V. Price Line is in and we are surprised at the moderate price for strictly all wool suits in view of the price of raw material at this time. We would advise those contemplating having a winter suit made, to do so now as prices are certain to be higher and the good patterns closed out early.

A Gordon hat in the new blocks and colors is in order now for early fall wear at $3.50. We have to arrive this week our new fall Gordon caps, 75c to $1.50.

New Cretones in very pretty patterns for cushions and fancy work at 25c to 35c. We are showing some pretty colors in Messalines and Fahey Silks suitable for waists at $1.50 per yard.

Outings will be in order now and white prints will be high quality and good price at 15 to 18c

We are Prepared for Your Wants in Fruit Jars

And the extra covers and rubbers, covering almost all the different makes. Canning season will be on in a few days now. Parowax at the old price, 15c per pound.

All local vegetables and fruits will be in abundance and at reasonable prices.

Mrs. Benedict and family have moved to town.

Miss Marie Casserly is spending the week with her friend, Miss Mildred Percey.

Tonight at The Movie "Southern Justice," a Kentucky screen story, will be shown, and Wednesday evening of next week Pauline Frederick will appear in "Audrey."

Mrs. Gunn and daughter Jane visited in Pendleton one day the first of the week, having accompanied Mrs. Gunn's sister, who has been their guest here for a time, that far on her homeward journey east.
