LOCAL BRIEFS

Everybody is going to the Round-Up next week, from all reports.

Ninety-nine days without rain up to the time of the little shower the first of the week.

Orville Dawson, wife and baby, came up Sunday to visit home folks at the S. L. Carson ranch.

Duncan Campbell motored to Pendleton on business Tuesday, returning Thursday.

The Methodist conference at North Yakima has returned Rev. Graham to the church here for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Belscamper from the Columbia district were out west of town Tuesday looking for a ranch to rent.

Henry Hitt, proprietor of Hitt's confectionery store, transacted business in Portland several days this week.

Mesdames J. J. Casserly and Geo. Kendler motored to the Henry Sommerer ranch Wednesday in quest of grapes.

Clarence Carson arrived home from Fricco Sunday, where he joined the marines. Clarence will dig "spuds" while at home.

Harry Todd, member of the marine corps at Goat Island training station in California, is here this week on a visit to his parents.

Mrs. G. Hansen and son Elwood of Dayton, Wash., friends of A. S. Anderson of the Hermiston Creamery, are in the city on a week's visit.

The dance held last evening in Auditorium hall under the supervision of Tom Marxen was a very nice affair and up to the usual standard.

Tonight "The Boy Girl" will be presented at The Movie, and next Wednesday evening Mary Pickford will appear in "The Eternal Grind."

C. B. Johnson is home on a short visit from Portland, where he has been in the employ of the Union Meat Co. since his graduation at the O. A. C.

It is understood that Mason Bros., local hay balers, have secured a contract to bale 1000 tons of alfalfa in the vicinity of Umatilla.

A most enjoyable dance was given Thursday night at Auditorium hall in honor of Mrs. C. O. Wainscott, who left yesterday for Los Angeles to join her husband.

The Woodmen neighbors of Sam Carson, headed by C. R. Myers, ably seconded by S. D. L. Ross and followed up by J. J. Casserly, took over their mowers Sunday and cut Mr. Carson's hay.

At the meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. West in this city the following officers were elected: Mrs. Walter president, Mrs. West vice president, Mrs. Chapman secretary, Mrs. Longhorn treasurer.

Charles G. Burke came in from Monana early in the week seeking a location on a farm, with the result that he is now owner of 75 acres of choice improved land in the Columbia district adjoining the Taber ranch on the north. This he purchased from Dodd & Knapp, the local real estate men, and his next move will be leveling the land and seeding it to alfalfa.

The Parent-Teachers' meeting held in the assembly room of the high school Thursday afternoon was fairly well attended. A good program was rendered, following which a little time was spent introducing the new teachers and indulging in social converse. The officers elected to serve until the first of the year were: Mrs. H. A. McKeen president, Mrs. J. T. Hinkle vice president, Miss Kate Barton treasurer and Mrs. Peimulder secretary.
