HERMISTON LOCALS

The Baptist Ladies A. d. will meet at the church next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Callbeck spent Monday visiting in the county seat town of Pendleton.

Manager Tom Marxen of the Auditorium will hereafter accommodate all those desiring to dance by ticket.

Mrs. W. T. Lambert and Miss Mabel Smith, Umatilla school teachers, passed Saturday last pleasantly visiting with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Penny, parents of Mrs. G. Ellison, who have been here all summer on a visit, returned to Salem Sunday.

Attorney J. T. Hinkle returned from Pendleton Monday evening after passing the day at the county seat transacting legal business.

George Hettel, owner of a tract of land in the Western Land & Irrigation Co. project, was here Sunday on a visit to his property.

Mrs. Vernon Jones brought her baby up from Bailey, Oregon, Monday for examination for infantile troubles by a local physician.

Grant Skinner, who has chosen dentistry as the profession he will follow, left last Saturday for Portland to enter a dental college in that city.

Father Edwards, a well known Catholic clergyman of Portland, visited a couple of days in this city the first of the week with Father Butler.

Mrs. F. J. Thomas and daughter Genevieve will return from Portland today, and Monday next the young lady will become a permanent scholar in the Hermiston schools.

Harry McMillan, who for some time held a mechanical position in the local garage, left for Bremerton, Wash., Saturday last to assume the duties of assistant electrician in the navy yards at that place.

Mrs. R. E. Weaver and children and her sister Miss Ida, came from Pendleton and visited during the week at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shaw, three miles north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Anderson, proprietors of the Hotel Oregon, accompanied by their daughter Mary, returned Sunday from a month's visit to relatives and friends in The Dalles and Portland.

W. W. Rogers has begun work on his contract for the erection of a handsome residence on the ranch of C. E. Keller near the Columbia school house. The building will be 24x36 feet in dimensions and contain five rooms.

Mrs. Geo. Holland and daughter Dorothy are expected home today from Pendleton, where they have been the past week, during which time Miss Dorothy has been taking treatment from a specialist for an ailment that has caused her parents much worry.

Frank Auseon enjoyed outdoor life most of this week working on his ranch north of this city. During his absence from his tonsorial business his barber friend F. J. Thomas is taking care of those having hirsute adornments which they wish removed.

R. L. Jay, who has been in the employ of the Warren Construction Co. doing street and road paving around Pendleton the past two months, resigned his position and returned home Tuesday in order to attend to fall work on the ranch of his parents east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Giese of Vancouver, Wash., departed for their home Sunday after a week's visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Giese and family, the gentlemen being brothers. The visitors formerly resided in this valley, and they were much surprised at the progress of both town and country since their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Macer, Boardman merchants, Misses Clara and Glean Duntun, school teachers of that town, and Clifford Blackman, a government employee, constituted an auto party that motored to Hermiston last Sunday on a visit. Before leaving in the evening they were dinner guests of Druggist E. W. Mack at the Hotel Hermiston.

Mrs. E. P. Dodd had as guests at her home Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander, her sister, Mrs. E. W. Collins, and brother, Roy Alexander, all of Pendleton, the little visit being made prior to the departure of the latter gentleman for American Lake training station Tuesday night with another contingent of Umatilla county's quota.

Grandma Nation and son George returned Tuesday to their Nebraska home after a ten-day visit at the home of her son, B. J. Nation, on Butter creek. Mrs. Nation is so taken up with this country that she says she cannot be much longer kept away from sunny eastern Oregon. This is her third trip here. George says he, too, has good reason to return.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cochran returned to their home in Seattle last Saturday after a most enjoyable two week's visit at the home of the gentleman's sister, Mrs. J. L. Waller, and family, three miles east. Mr. Cochran was much taken up with the prosperous conditions he found here, and is contemplating the purchase of alfalfa land and becoming a permanent resident of the project.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR UMATILLA COUNTY
vs.
William Ivie, Defendant.
To William Ivie, the above named defendant: In the name of the state of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to answer, plead or otherwise appear within said time the plaintiff above named, for want thereof, will apply to the court above named for the relief demanded against you in the complaint filed in the above entitled suit, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable. This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Honorable Gilbert W. Phelps, judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on the 3rd day of August, 1917, and the first publication hereof is made on the 26th day of August, 1917.
