LET'S CLEAN UP

Now that the local Civic Club has declared all next week as cleaning-up day, let every one get busy and help make our little city appear as nice as possible, at least during the Dairy and Hog show, when many outsiders will come here to view the fair.

Let's get the rock off Main street, pull the weeds from along the sidewalks, knock a nail on the head here and there and slap a piece of board in a broken sidewalk wherever needed. We dare say the ladies will see to it that the residence portion of Hermiston will receive a thorough cleaning, for each one will take civic pride in the appearance of her lawn and yard, and we hope that the business portion will be looked after in like manner by the business men, who should take equal pride in having their stores and grounds surrounding looking spick and span.

EDITORIAL NOTES

That party of Artic explorers who have just returned to civilization after four years in the far north will be kept mighty busy if they undertake to catch up with the march of events during their absence.

Eight hundred telephone girls in Seattle who recently organized a union have voted to strike on October 19 unless their demand for higher wages and improved working conditions are granted. Wonder if the 0003 girls in the local telephone office are getting any such notion in their heads?

Here's a chance for Henry Notz and others to find out who sunk the Maine, for Captain Richard Pearson Hobson, the hero of the Merrimac and former congressman, was close by when it happened, and may tell them whether the disaster was caused by internal combustion or by the Spaniards when he delivers an address on war time prohibition in Pendleton next Monday.

FORESTS OF AUSTRALIA.

They Are Unlike Those to Be Seen in Any Other Country.

One readily understands why the Australian loves his trees. The groves of giant eucalyptus form pictures never forgotten, and the scent of the wattle brings a homesick feeling like the smell of sage to the westerner.

The flora is not only beautiful, it is unique, and has no counterpart in other lands. Of the 10,000 species of plants most of them are purely Australian and are unknown even in New Zealand. The general impression one gets of Australian forests is their total unlikeness to anything seen elsewhere. The great forests of timber trees are not damp and shaded and all of one species, but are well lighted and filled with other forests of shorter trees. In places the woods consist of large widely spaced trees surrounded only by bunch grass, and even in areas where water is not to be found on the surface for hundreds of square miles true forests of low trees are present.

Forms which may be recognized as tulip, lily, honeysuckle and fern take on a surprising aspect. They are not garden flowers, but trees, and the landscape of which they form a part reminds one of the hypothetical representations in books of science of a landscape of mesozoic times, a period antedating now by millions of years.

The trees are indeed those of a bygone age. In America and Europe shadowy forms of fossil leaves from the rock and studied with interest; in Australia many of these ancient trees are living. The impression that one is looking at a landscape which has forever disappeared from other parts of the world is so vivid that the elms and maples and oaks in some of the city streets strike a jarring note. The transition from Jurassic to modern times is painfully abrupt.—National Geographic Magazine.

A FINANCIAL QUANDARY.

Uncle Joe Cannon's First Tussle With Domestic Economy.

Representative Cooper of Ohio invited Uncle Joe Cannon to go to his home town, Youngstown, and make a speech. Uncle Joe said he couldn't go, he wasn't in speaking trim, but that he had rather go to Youngstown than anywhere he knew. And as he said it Uncle Joe's eyes got sorter dreamy, and he surprised the congressman by wandering off into the following story:

"Cooper, I got my wife out of Youngstown. Seems like yesterday when we stepped before that justice of the peace and were married. I was just starting out to practice law in Illinois, and besides our railroad fare back home I just had $100 in the world. I handed that $100 to my little new wife and told her to go to the nearest store and buy what we actually needed while I stepped around to the courthouse.

"In about an hour when I went to join her I saw her coming to meet me much perturbed. She had spent $0 over the $100 at the store and had come for me to straighten things out. Right then and there I was up against my first big responsibility. I wanted my wife to have those goods that she had selected, but I couldn't have produced another dollar to have saved my life. So I went in the store and told the young clerk who had waited on her just how it was. And he believed in me and shipped us the goods.

"Do you know who that young clerk was, Cooper? It was Marshall Field." And Uncle Joe walked off, with a smile in his eyes.—Washington Herald.

SURE THING, IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

A widow in town lost a hog last week, says an exchange. We do not refer to the death of her husband. She lost a real hog and advertised for it. The widow says the hog must have read the paper, for he came hiking home on the dead run as soon as it had left the office. This is not the first instance where a hog read a newspaper—and incidentally forgot to pay for it.

Limburger cheese laid away in cupboards and refrigerators will drive away ants, says a recipe. No doubt of it. It will drive a hog out of a tan yard; it will drive a spike in a brick; it will drive a tramp away from a meal of victuals; it will drive a mule through a barbed wire fence; it will drive a herd of cattle over a precipice; it will drive a negro away from a chicken roost or a man to insanity who stays five minutes within ten feet of its unsavory presence. And yet some men will sit up and eat the stuff and profess to like it.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR UMATILLA COUNTY

vs.
J. E. Keefe Jr., and Summons
Keefe, his wife, defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in said court within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons and on or before the 25th day of October, 1917, and you are further notified that if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead in this cause within said time, the plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the above entitled court for the relief prayed for in his complaint herein, to-wit: for judgment against the defendant, J. E. Keefe Jr., for the sum of $463.05 with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from March 2, 1917, until paid, and for the further sum of $5.00 for extension of abstract and for the further sum of $100.00 attorneys fees, and for plaintiff's costs and disbursements of this suit; and for a further decree declaring the mortgage described in plaintiff's complaint herein upon the N½ of NE¼ of section 2, Tp. 3 N. R. 29 E. W. M. to be a valid and subsisting lien upon said property and that said mortgage be foreclosed and said property sold as by law required and the proceeds arising from such sale applied to the satisfaction of the amounts due plaintiff, including principal, interest, cost of extension of abstract, attorney's fees, costs and increased costs, and that the plaintiff may become a purchaser at said foreclosure sale and that the defendants and each of them and all persons claiming under or through them or any of them may be barred and foreclosed from all right, title or interest in and to the said premises, save the statutory right to redeem, and particularly may be barred and foreclosed of all equity of redemption, and that in the event said mortgaged premises do not sell for sufficient to pay and satisfy said demands, any deficiency remaining may forthwith be satisfied from any other property of said mortgagor, J. E. Keefe Jr., and for such other and further relief as to equity may seem meet.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Honorable Gilbert W. Phelps, judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on the 10th day of September, 1917, and the first publication of this summons is made on the 15th day of September, 1917, and the last publication thereof shall be made on the 27th day of October, 1917.
