Quite a number from here attended the Horse Show at Pendleton last Saturday, among them being H. J. Stollings, A. N. Raymond, W. J. Dowver, L. D. and Phillip Lay, the latter winning second money on the best exhibit of a driving team.

District Game Warden George Tonkin was here Sunday giving the hunters the once over. One fellow got it twice over, for the warden discovered him down the river toward Umatilla hunting on a fishing license and took his gun from him. Besides this the law violator had to pay a fine for trying to switch the cut on Mr. Tonkin

HERMISTON LOCALS

Mrs. H. T. Fraser enjoyed a visit with friends in Pendleton Wednesday.

A. P. Ayers, homesteader of Boardman and school director, was in Hermiston Thursday on business.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McMillin in this city on Thursday evening, Oct. 4, 1917, and the proud parents have announced that the young lady's name will be Dana Jean McMillin.

The Misses Elizabeth and Rachel Leek passed last Saturday pleasantly in Pendleton in company with their sister Marion, who is teaching school in one of the rural districts near the county seat.

A. W. Agnew, a well known young rancher of this neighborhood, went to Pendleton Monday and accompanied Mrs. Agnew and their new born daughter home that evening.

A. Wright has returned from Helix, where he has been harvesting during the summer. Mrs. Wright and their two daughters came with him from Heppner, where they were visiting relatives for some time.

Miss Maud Minnick, niece of Mrs. F. M. Bryant, is in the city from Appleton City, Mo., on a week's visit. At the conclusion of her stay here Miss Minnick will go to Portland and Oregon City to call on brothers residing in those places.

Mrs. Harry Reese, a music teacher of Stafield who is instructing a class here, was in the city Tuesday attending to her duties in this connection. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. Walker, chief telephone operator in the neighboring town, who visited between trains with the local hello girls.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hansen returned to their home in Dayton, Wash., the latter part of last week after a short visit in this city to A. S. Anderson, butter maker at the local creamery. Mr. Hansen is proprietor of the creamery at Dayton, and himself and Mr. Anderson have been friends of long standing.

Real estate taxes became delinquent Friday last, and now interest at the rate of one per cent a month is charged against all unpaid 1916 taxes. If payment is not made by November 4, a further penalty of five per cent is assessed in addition to the interest charge.

Now is the Time to Get Your Mackinaw Coats

We are showing a good line of all-wool kind from $9 to $12.50, the Blizzard coat and Gordon & Ferguson's Field and Stream coats. These are the kind that will last you five years with ordinary care. No shoddy stuff carried here.
 Boys' Mackinaws, $6.00 to $10.00. All-wool coats, good styles.

Mens' Sweaters and Coats

$1.50 to $3.50. Children's Sweaters $1.00 to $2.50, all wool.
 We have a few Ladies' Sweaters, out of style, that we will close out at much less than the yarn is worth. They are warm and fine all wool garments, $1.50 to $3.50, were sold at $3.50 to $8.

Our Stock of Ladies' and Children's Underwear

The ladies aid of the Methodist church will hold a silver tea at the parsonage next Wednesday afternoon. The entertaining committee consists of Mesdames Jones, Prime, Locke and Graham.

There was a fairly large attendance at the annual experiment farm demonstration Monday, and under Superintendent Allen's guidance all learned interesting things regarding the growing and taking care of root and other crops.

Quite a lot of interest centered in the stove drawing contest advertised by the Oregon Hardware Co., and as a result there were many bids put in on the Cole's Hot Blast heater before the contest closed Saturday. When the numbers were all drawn it was found that L. A. Stone was the highest bidder, securing the $25.50 elegant stove for $22.22.

Tonight at The Movie Ella Hall will be screened in "Polly Redhead" and on Wednesday evening of next week "Pearls of Paradise" will be shown, Margarita Fischer assuming the leading role. On the evening of the opening day of the Dairy and Hog Show Marguerite Clark will star in "Miss George Washington."

School statistics show that in Umatilla county there is $8,617 in taxable property for each child of school age. This county ranks seventh in that respect, Sherman county being highest with $12,926 for each child. Umatilla county spends $36.50 for each school child within its limits, while Morrow county spends $66.70. Of the Umatilla county pupils who enroll in the elementary school only 2.6 per cent graduate from the eighth grade. Umatilla county ranks very low in this respect, only three counties having a poorer record.

An exchange gives an incident that illustrates the impossibility of telling where the trouble resulting from a mortgage will end. A man mortgaged his farm to buy his wife a pair of earrings. The wife took in washing to pay the interest on the mortgage, and the first day lost one of the diamonds in the suds and tried to hang herself in the barn, but the rope broke and she fell on a $150 Jersey cow, breaking its back.

Many good positions can be had by any ambitious young man or young woman in the field of railway or commercial telegraphy. We want a number of young men and young women to prepare for the telegraph service to fill vacancies caused by unusual drafting of young men for the Signal Corps. Prepare to help your country.
