LOCAL BRIEFS

Mrs. B. Haneline visited friends in Boardman several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Agnew are in Spokane this week visiting relatives and friends.

E. I. Carson has bought 34 more acres of land adjoining his former holdings southeast of this city.

B. S. Kingsley is away to Culver, Oregon, passing a few days with his son, who operates a general store there in which both are interested.

Mrs. Della Bushnell and family departed Monday to join Mr. Bushnell in Spokane, near which place they will make their future home.

Mrs. M. A. Reeder, who has been visiting at the home of her son, L. Reeder, in this city, left Thursday to make a call on her daughter, Mrs. Klair, at Florence, Mont.

Dr. R. G. Gale has returned after a week's absence from the city. He has moved his offices from the Hotel Oregon to the upstairs story of the local bank building.

John McElroy, who is operating 20 acres three miles southwest of town, this week purchased an adjoining 20 acres from the Umatilla Farm Lands Co. of Hermiston.

Thomas Campbell and E. P. Dodd went to Pendleton Wednesday and got the Pendleton people favorably interested in boosting for the establishment of an army camp here.

Ladies of the Red Cross, do you know that there are three sewing machines and plenty of sewing in the balcony of the drug store, and that these garments must be finished by Nov. 1st.

A seven and one-half pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Rees Friday morning, October 12, 1917. Already possessed of two sons, the appearance of the little lady made the parents exceedingly happy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hale of Diamond, Wash., together with their children, left Friday of last week in their auto for California to spend the winter. The party visited here a week with Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Carson, the ladies being sisters.

Ninety-nine pigs, all born within twenty-four hours apart, is the record made this week by eleven sows owned by George Strohm, a rancher one mile east of this city. They were all sired by one Duroc-Jersey boar raised on this project from Illinois stock.

Mrs. E. T. Eriksen took her departure Thursday for Orland, Calif., to join Mr. Eriksen for the time being. Mr. and Mrs. Eriksen, who have large property interests here, expect to return just as soon as the gentleman completes work in that state which he has been commissioned to do by the government.

A. L. Larson, cashier of the local bank, has been in Portland all week attending the annual convention of the Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge, being a delegate from the local order. While there he attended the big Liberty Loan conference, at which Secretary of the Treasury W. K. McAdoo was the principal speaker.

Mayor and Mrs. F. C. McKenzie took their eldest son George to Pendleton the latter part of last week to undergo treatment for an acute attack of pneumonia. Mr. McKenzie returned Tuesday evening, and reported that the little fellow was past the crisis and getting along nicely.

G. W. Tilden, who has an interest in the land that Mr. Skinner is seeding to alfalfa, was here Monday and Tuesday from Tillamook, Ore., looking over the large area that is next year expected to produce enough fodder for all the Tillamook dairymen interested in the tract. The gentleman was much pleased with the way the work is progressing, and was rather surprised to view green swards of alfalfa just starting where so recently sagebrush grew. Mr. Tilden's son Lyle accompanied him and will remain and probably attend school here during the winter.

ADDITIONAL PRIZES FOR THE DAIRY SHOW

The Dairy Show committee has decided to offer a first prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 for general displays of farm products grown by any one exhibitor. Last year these exhibits showed what a wonderful array of products could be raised on the project and attracted considerable attention and much favorable comment. Canned goods, fruits, melons, vegetables, grasses and seeds may be included. This class makes a splendid display for outside visitors. Farmers having a variety of products are strongly urged to enter the competition. The attractiveness in arrangement will be considered in judging the exhibits.

Prizes have also been added to the list for displays of Burbank, Nested Gem and Early Ohio potatoes, squash and onions of any variety.

FIFTEEN CARS OF MUTTON TO CHICAGO

Fifteen cars of sheep were loaded out of Hermiston Monday under direction of R. N. Stanfield, one of the largest sheep owners of this section of the county. They were consigned to the Rosenbaum Sheep Co. of Chicago, where they will arrive after being fed in transit at Mikhalo, this state, in order to fatten them a little more before being placed on the Chicago market.

A marriage license was issued in Pendleton this week to Clem S. Floyers of Pendleton and Ida M. Shaw of Hermiston.

A pretty funny joke is being told on one of our townsmen this week, but he says if he could get the rest of his things home he would be willing to keep two shirts on.
