In other words, while the costs of most commodities have been increasing by leaps and bounds, lumber and the products of lumber have been among the last to feel the effect of the changed conditions and the advances in prices have been but nominal.

THE CROP DOLLAR IS BIGGER TODAY THAN IN YEARS. INVEST IT IN BUILDINGS.

But, will prices not go down when peace is declared? Can't I save by waiting? are the questions asked by every builder. The answer is that no one in a position to judge intelligently believes that prices will go back to the old low basis for a long time—because of the enormous demand abroad for building material to rebuild Europe, and the immense demand at home.

Come in Today. Our Experience in the Lumber Material Business has been put into the form of Pictures, Plans, Estimates of Costs, and are yours for the asking. Build Now, Save Money

HERMISTON LOCALS

Harry Straw, local manager of the Inland Empire Lumber Co., made a business visit to Pendleton Wednesday.

Mrs. L. L. Waller of this city enjoyed a few days visit this week at the ranch home in Columbia district of her son Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Phelps are the proud parents of a cute little baby daughter, the date of her birth being Friday, October 12, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Upham left Monday for their home in Chicago after spending the summer at the home of their son, C. L. Upham, and family.

Miss Nola Magruder, local school teacher, was a guest at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pearson, five miles east of Hermiston, Sunday last.

John Campbell, who bought the Seibert place two miles northeast of town, has moved with his family from the Butter Creek district onto the place.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hahn and son Gerald left Monday for Flora, Walla Walla county, Ore., where for the next three weeks they will enjoy a visit with brothers and sisters of the gentleman residing there.

James Catron, who a short time ago bought 20 acres adjoining the Simmons place on the west, is having a residence 24x24 feet in dimensions built on the tract by Contractors Reeder and Correll.

R. C. Hillman, a real estate man of Culver, Oregon, was here a couple of days the first of the week on business with B. F. Knapp, local real estate dealer, and together they went to Richland, Wash., for a few days visit.

Attorney J. T. Hinkle left Tuesday for Salem, where on the following day he argued a case in behalf of the formation of the North Unit irrigation district in Jefferson county against Links, et al., who seek to squelch the organization. The case was taken before the supreme court on appeal from a decision of Circuit Judge Duffy. Mr. Hinkle expects to return home today.

Dr. A. Reid, who is O.-W. R. & N. physician and surgeon for the district between this city and Echo, was notified by wire Monday night to meet a special train here and give first surgical aid to Harry Reynolds, a switchman who sustained a badly broken leg while on duty in the yards at Umatilla a short time before. After being treated by the doctor and made as comfortable as possible, the special went on to Pendleton, where the patient was taken to St. Anthony's hospital.

Cyrus Williams an extensive rancher from Union, Oregon, passed a couple of days here the fore part of the week negotiating for a trade of his Union property for the Hall tract of 110 acres north of Hermiston. He was shown over the land by R. W. Hall, who made a special trip from Great Falls, Mont., for the purpose of negotiating the deal in behalf of his father, who with himself is owner of the big tract. Should the trade materialize Mr. Williams will come here and immediately begin the task of preparing the huge area for the reception of alfalfa seed. This land adjoins the tract that Mr. Skoner is now putting in for Tillamook dairymen, being on the eastern boundary.

Now is the Time to Get Your Mackinaw Coats

We are showing a good line of all-wool kind from $9 to $12.50, the Blizzard coat and Gordon & Ferguson's Field and Stream coats. These are the kind that will last you five years with ordinary care. No shoddy stuff carried here.

Boys' Mackinaws, $6.00 to $10.00. All-wool coats, good styles.

Mens' Sweaters and Coats

$1.50 to $3.50. Children's Sweaters $1.00 to $2.50, all wool.

We have a few Ladies' Sweaters, out of style, that we will close out at much less than the yarn is worth. They are warm and fine all wool garments, $1.50 to $3.50, were sold at $3.50 to $8.

Our Stock of Ladies' and Children's Underwear

Is quite complete in last year's stock which will be sold at old prices while they last; could not be bought for less than 50 per cent advance this season.

We are Showing a Good Line of Stationery

At popular prices 5 and 10 cent tablets, linen paper in tablets at 15c in note and letter widths. Just the thing to write to the boys at the front and in the army camps.

O. P. Brigham, conductor on a North Bank passenger train between Spokane and Portland, visited with his family here a couple of days the first of the week at the ranch home west of town.

E. Johnston of Madras, Ore., who recently purchased ten acres from Charles McElroy a few miles from town, has let a contract to Boynton & Longhorn for the construction of a residence house and barn on the place.

Messrs. Davis & Shafer have moved their bee hive factory from the Davis farm to the old Donovan building next door west of the Farmers' Exchange store, and have opened up a shop therein for the manufacture of bee fixtures and light cabinet work.

W. J. Emery, former resident of this project, was shaking hands and visiting with old friends here a couple of days the first of the week while on his way home to Nampa, Idaho, after accompanying Mrs. Emry to the family home of the lady near Heppner, where they attended the funeral of her mother, who passed away after a short illness.

Frank Stone was here from Wasco Monday and Tuesday visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stone. The gentleman is a large wheat rancher of the Wasco district who has been drafted, and his visit was in the nature of a farewell to his father and mother before being called to the training camp. Mr. Stone was accompanied by his little son, who had a good time with his grandparents while here.

J. L. Waller, assistant to Manager Harry Straw of the Inland Empire Lumber Co., discarded "Old Dobbin" Wednesday morning and came in from his ranch east of town all dressed up in a new Ford car. He says it is a little speedier than the old boss, but that every once in a while when he wants to go a little faster he forgets himself and hollers "giddap" and makes a motion to reach for the whip. When he "comes out of it" and realizes that he is driving an automobile instead of Dobbin he opens the throttle a little and gets the desired results.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR UMATILLA COUNTY
L. O. White, Plaintiff, vs.
J. E. Keefe Jr. and— Summons
Keefe, his wife, defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in said court within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons and on or before the 27th day of October, 1917, and you are further notified that if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead in this cause within said time, the plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the above entitled court for the relief prayed for in his complaint herein, to-wit, for judgment against the defendant, J. E. Keefe Jr. for the sum of $400.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from March 2, 1917, until paid, and for the further sum of $5.00 for extension of abstract and for the plaintiff's costs and disbursements of this suit; and for a further decree declaring the mortgage described in plaintiff's complaint herein, upon the N. 1/2 of NE 1/4 of section 2, Tp. 3 N. R. 23 E. W. M. to be a valid and subsisting lien upon said property and that said mortgage be foreclosed and said property sold as by law required and the proceeds arising from such sale applied to the satisfaction of the amounts due plaintiff, including principal, interest, cost of extension of abstract, attorney's fees, costs and increased costs, and that the plaintiff may become a purchaser at such foreclosure sale and that the defendants and each of them and all persons claiming under or through them or any of them may be barred and foreclosed from all right, title or interest in and to the said premises, save the statutory right to redeem, and particularly may be barred and foreclosed of all equity of redemption, and that in the event said mortgage premises do not sell for the sufficient to pay and satisfy said demands, any deficiency remaining may forthwith be satisfied from any other property of said mortgagor, J. E. Keefe Jr., and for such other and further relief as to equity may seem meet.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Honorable Gilbert W. Phelps, judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on the 10th day of September, 1917, and the first publication of this summons is made on the 10th day of September, 1917, and the last publication thereof shall be made on the 27th day of October, 1917.

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With The Oregon Farmer
Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
