MEN OF RAINBOW DIVISION GET BIBLES

The spiritual as well as the physical welfare of the men of the famous "Rainbow" division of Guardsmen, training for service in Europe at Camp Mills, Mineola, L. I., is being looked after. The New York Bible society recently distributed a great number of service Bibles to the men of the division. The picture shows men of the One Hundred and Seventeenth regiment receiving their Bibles.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Mrs. N. Livermore left yesterday for Portland to spend the winter.

There will be a baptismal service Sunday morning at the Methodist church.

Mrs. H. D. Newell and little son Herbert visited a couple of days this week with relatives in Pendleton.

C. W. Hoffman of Roseman, Mont., who has been visiting Frank Allen, left Friday morning for Portland.

Mrs. Geo. Patterson and daughter of Irrigon are guests this week at the home west of town of Mrs. Frank Harrison.

Mrs. J. Prindle is substituting this week at the local telephone office for Miss Laura Boynton, who is taking her vacation.

The school children of Misses Hummel and Klindt's rooms will sell American flag letter seals for the benefit of the Red Cross during the Fair.

Mrs. Orville Dawson, nee Miss Elsie Carson, with her baby "Jack," came up from Irrigon Monday to visit her parents and also with Mrs. Casserly. They return home today.

The food study classes are held every Saturday afternoon in the rest room from three to four, under the direction of Mrs. Jones. These meetings are open to all.

Rev. H. F. Pemberton, the new district superintendent of the Methodist church, will preach in the hall next Thursday night and conduct the first quarterly conference of the year.

P. B. Sisco, proprietor of Sisco's confectionery store, left Wednesday for a few days visit to his parents in Wasco and relatives in The Dalles, Oregon.

Richardson and Talbert's attractions are coming to the Auditorium on Thursday and Friday, November 1 and 2, with a capable company of dramatic performers.

W. T. Rotkin this week purchased a beautiful New Edison phonograph of the Hermiston Drug Co., and himself and family are now enjoying the excellent music it produces.

At the home of A. F. Anderson last Sunday in the presence of a few friends Rev. T. A. Graham baptised the infant daughter of Mr. Anderson according to the Methodist church ritual.

The 50-ton silo which C. E. Baker has had erected on his place east of town was completed last week, and Monday and Tuesday of this week it was filled with silage. Shortly Mr. Baker will install a milking machine.

Mrs. J. Frank Spinning and Mrs. William Jones of Echo were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. Reid in this city Tuesday, and Mrs. J. Kilburg of Stanfield spent the following day here with Mrs. Reid.

J. A. Reeves, Hermiston's rural mail carrier, is taking a well earned vacation which he is passing "recreating" on his ranch just east of this city. J. T. Embry is substituting for the gentleman during his absence from the route.

Manager Tom Marxen of the Auditorium will see that the public is entertained by dances on both evening of the Dairy and Hog Show next week. Special music has been secured for the occasion, and all who wish may enjoy themselves in the mazy waltz.

Attorney W. J. Warner leaves today for Chemawa, Oregon, where he will coach the football team at the Indian institution located there up to Thanksgiving. During his absence Geo. Dayhill will act as secretary of the local Water Users' Association.

A benefit dance will be given by the Hermiston auxiliary of the Red Cross in the Auditorium on Tuesday evening, October 30. Music will be furnished by the Pendleton orchestra. Let everyone turn out and assist the Red Cross on this occasion.

J. D. Kerby, formerly of this city but now residing in Pendleton, was here a few days this week looking for a suitable five acre tract to purchase. When Mr. Kerby lived here some six months ago he operated a five acre tract which he owned a little over a mile south of town. This he sold to a Mr. Parson, and since he done so he has not been contented, and now longs to be back in Hermiston on another five acres.

The "Lingerlongers" out in Columbia district, lingered long Monday night at a surprise party sprung by them on Mrs. W. A. Leathers, whose 60th birthday fell on that day, and as a result the Buena Vista ranch home of herself and husband was the scene of much merriment by the self invited guests. But the lady was equal to the occasion, and ere long progressive games were in progress and later all partook of luncheon prepared by the hostess. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames W. D. Fritts, H. A. McKeen, J. H. Reid, F. P. Philips, Jack Waller, W. H. Warner, W. W. Felthouse, Geo. Briggs.

S. D. L. Ross has completed a concrete floor in his garage and otherwise improved it.

Don't forget the patriotic service at the Methodist church next Sunday night. Join the crowd and come out and increase the patriotic spirit.

Miss Mildred Percy spent Monday night with her friend, Miss Marie Casserly, and together attended basket ball practice.

No wonder time is represented as haggard and worn out. A watch keeps time, the chorister beats time, the clock strikes time; the train runs on time sometimes; the forman lays out time, people threaten to do things if they get time; soldiers mark time; criminals serve time; everybody now and then tries to kill time; and perhaps your subscription is behind time, says one of our artful exchanges.
