NOTICE

Due to the fact that to maintain now and in the future as large or a larger stock of supplies than in the past and due to the fact that all auto part houses supply no garage except on a C. D. D. basis, we find that it is taking at least 50 per cent more capital to maintain a stock of goods equal to the demands of the territory, than was necessary when prices were lower. This change in conditions has made it necessary that our terms on open accounts be more uniform, so we have established terms as follows, which we will ask all customers to adhere to in the future.

All bills payable on or before the 15th day of the month for the previous month's purchases, or where this cannot be met, we will take a note in payment. We would kindly ask customers to arrange their funds along this line.

HERMISTON LOCALS

R. Alexander of Pendleton was a Sunday guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. P. Dodd.

Mrs. F. H. Wilson, former landlady at the Hotel Hermiston, has been here from Portland on business during the week.

Mrs. J. H. Strohm left Tuesday for Walla Walla, to remain a week as a guest at the home in that city of her friend, Mrs. C. W. Morrow.

Mrs. J. S. Mettoon left Tuesday to spend a few days in Boardman with Mr. Mettoon, who has land leveling contracts in the vicinity of that town.

Mrs. M. D. O'Connell arrived home Sunday evening after an absence of several days visiting and looking after property interests in Richland, Wash.

J. T. Embry is again looking after his North Ridge ranch after having substituted a few days this week on the rural route for J. A. Reeves.

The stork made his appearance out on Butter Creek Thursday morning, November 15, 1917, and left a cute little baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Gardner.

Father Butler came home Thursday morning from a business visit to Bend, and on the same day went to Heppner on official business connected with the church.

B. F. Knapp was over in the Richland valley the major portion of the week looking after extensive farm property that he owns in that neighborhood.

Miss Bessie McPherson, the amiable bookkeeper at the Hermiston creamery, passed several days this week visiting at the parental home in Pendleton.

Adolf Skovbo, who has had charge of Robb Bros.' orchard near this city this season, left for Boardman Monday to make his future home. Near the little city on the banks of the Columbia Mr. Skovbo has forty acres of fine land, which he will level and prepare for seeding next spring.

Mrs. H. A. Herman, owner of the Pierce property on the corner of Main and Third streets, which is occupied by Chief of Police Salsar and family, was a visitor here Thursday while on her way from Moscow, Idaho, to visit a daughter residing at Enterprise, Ore.

F. R. Harrison, who has held the position of purchasing agent in the reclamation service here for a number of years, has upon request been granted a twelve month leave of absence. W. P. Bauschard, general clerk in the local offices of the service, has also been granted a temporary vacation and will spend the winter in Portland.

Thad Robinson, the Tillamook banker who is interested with a number of dairymen in that part of the state in the tract of land on the south western outskirts of the town which is being prepared for crop next spring, was here several days ago paying the monthly wages to the large crew of men working on the place under Mr. Skinner. He was much pleased with the manner in which the work is progressing.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilson had as visitors this and last week Mrs. A. J. Richardson of Joseph, Oregon, Mrs. F. E. Pritchard and child of Asotin, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bodner and child of Paradise, Oregon. All of the ladies are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, and this is the first time in 22 years they have met together in one place. Had a son who is in Arizona been here the family reunion would have been complete.

Mrs. M. J. Mumma arrived home Tuesday from a short visit with her daughter Golda, who is teacher of music in the schools of Grass Valley, Oregon, this season. Mrs. Mumma took with her six choice apples, which she displayed with much pride to the friends of Miss Golda's in that city. The delicious flavor of the fruit evidently captivated for Mrs. Mumma was prevailed upon before leaving to promise to ship over to Grass Valley at least six boxes of these apples on her return to Hermiston—which promise the lady has fulfilled.

Miss Margaret Ann Sapper entertained a few of her little friends at a birthday party last Wednesday at her home. Those invited were Joe Scroggs, Sammy Rees, John Scroggs, Richard Hitt, Lee William Larson, John Knapp, Edmund Briggs, John Carson, Dorothy Straw, Mary Brownson, Gladys Norquist, Shirley Brownson, Nell Young, Marian Pelmulder, Helen Woughter. The afternoon was spent in games and one great feature was the fishing pond where all received a present. Then just before they sat down to a little table where the color scheme of pink and white was carried out, there was a grand march, and all having on pink and white paper hats, they marched around the table to the music. At 4:30 the auto was at the door in readiness to take the tired but happy little folks home.
