HERMISTON LOCALS

Mrs. V. A. Hamer of Milton, Ore., is a guest this week at the ranch home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Rodda.

Mrs. E. Mumma arrived home Wednesday from a visit to her daughter in Grass Valley, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maher and family departed Sunday for their new home on a farm near Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy and family left Sunday for Elgin, Oregon, where they stay until spring.

Frank Auseon has been spending a week attending to necessary fall work on his North Ridge ranch, Mr. Thomas meanwhile operating the barber shop.

Mrs. H. T. Fraser and Mrs. C. S. McNaught returned home Monday evening from a short visit to friends in Walla Walla, Wash.

A. F. Alexander, publisher of the Up-to-the-Times Magazine at Walla Walla, was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday.

The town girls beat the high school girls in the double-header basket ball game Thursday evening, and the high school boys defeated the town boys.

Mrs. J. W. Campbell and family are enjoying a visit from the lady's mother, Mrs. F. H. Taylor, of Palo Alto, California, at their ranch home in the southern part of this city.

Miss Ella Dodson of Irrigon and Walter Caldwell of this city were united in marriage in Pendleton Saturday of last week. The happy young couple will reside in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Stone have received word from their son Frank to the effect that he has been transferred from Camp Lewis to the aviation service at San Antonio, Texas.

M. O. Rymerson returned last Saturday from Byron, Wash., after an absence of two months, during which time he superintended the work of harvesting his apple crop on orchard tracts which he owns there.

Art Spinning was lucky goose hunting Tuesday, and Wednesday evening Mrs. Spinning served a wild goose dinner at their home on Ridgeway avenue, Veterinary Surgeon J. A. Peed being a guest at the delicious repast.

Irrigation Superintendent M. D. Scroggs and family are now comfortably housed in their new dwelling just recently completed by the contractors. This fine residence enhances the appearance of their orchard tract on the south side.

H. D. Newell, head of the government reclamation service in this project, has the distinction of having purchased the first war saving certificate after they were put on sale in this city, and John Mack, son of the local druggist, bought the initial thrift stamp.

J. T. Embry has rented his 20-acre ranch on North Ridge for the coming year to R. C. Sprague and others. Mr. Embry has moved to the Schorn property for the present, but expects to leave next week to spend the Christmas holidays with his son Clay at Clarkston, Wash.

Henry Hitt was incapacitated and remained at his home a few days the first of the week as a result of losing a few teeth by coming violently in contact with the back of the front seat of an auto in which he was riding after being bounced to the top by the jar from a bump in the road which the machine went over at fair speed.

The regular meeting of the Hermiston volunteer fire department was not very well attended Monday evening. This apparent lack of interest should not be in a progressive town like Hermiston, and an effort is to be made to reverse this condition and have representative meetings hereafter.

Word has come that Ed. Hitt and Bert Hiatt have successfully passed into the army service, but as yet no word has been received from Harry McMillin or Robert Bunch as to what luck they had since leaving here Monday night for Portland to enlist. Wayne Boynton is another Hermiston boy that went to Portland for examination Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Frick motored to Irrigon Sunday, where they took part in the church moving exercises. They say the edifice was moved from its old location to the new by a large number of willing workers in this good cause, and that in turn they were amply rewarded by the appetizing and most delicious chicken dinner prepared for the occasion by Irrigon ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hilsley came home from Brewster, Wash., Monday, whither they went last week to attend the funeral of their son's wife, Mrs. Howard Hilsley, whose death came after a lingering illness from tuberculosis. Their son Howard accompanied them and is now visiting in this city. They came home by way of Camp Lewis and called on Dr. Hilsley, whom they found in ward 21 of the base hospital administering to 34 pneumonia patients.

Maizie Riseling of Stanfield spent Wednesday and Thursday at the Boynton home.

Mrs. Bert Hiatt left Wednesday for Dayton, Wash., to visit until after Christmas with her mother and sister residing there, when she will enter the employ of the Pacific Power & Light Co.

All who attended the lecture of Dr. DeQuer in this city Thursday evening on "The Growth of Civilization" declare it to have been a masterpiece. The gentleman held the large audience in rapt attention during his entire talk.

Two delightful parties were given last week at the Percy and Kelly homes in honor of Vane Boynton and Harry McMillan, the two boys who went to Portland this week to enlist. The evenings passed pleasantly with games and music.
