LOCAL BRIEFS

Col. Newport showed the right spirit of public improvement when he had nearly all walks owned by him and his son Ross in this city repaired this week.

Charles H. Skinner spent a few days this week at Brewster, Mont., where he went to look over the prospects of that country and see what inducements it could offer to prospective settlers.

The bazaar held by the Catholic ladies in the office of the electric light company last Saturday was well patronized, the proceeds from the sale of cooked foods, fancy dry goods, etc., being $38.90.

B. F. Knapp went to Portland Tuesday evening, where he received a bunch of stock cattle from R. C. Hillman, and continued with them to Richland, Wash., where they will be wintered.

W. S. Egbers, a progressive rancher operating north of town, left Monday for Ritzville, Wash., to attend to business matters pertaining to a large wheat ranch which he owns there and has rented out.

Dr. Alexander Reid returned the latter part of last week from a few days' business trip to Portland. During his absence Mrs. Reid visited in Stanfield with their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Everett.

Dr. W. S. Newitt, a Portland dentist, arrived in this city this week and will remain until after the Christmas and New Year holidays, during which time he will assist his friend, Dr. F. V. Prime, with his holiday rush of dental work.

Residents of North Ridge will miss the genial companionship of Judge Embry for the next couple of weeks, for he departed Tuesday for Clarkston, Wasp., where he will remain until after the holiday season visiting with relatives.

F. B. Swayze and F. C. Parks have heeded the call of the city engineer with regard to repairing sidewalks in this city, for early this week both gentlemen repaired and rebuilt walks on property which they own on the south side of East Main street.

Rev. W. S. Pritchard, field worker for the Armenian relief fund being raised throughout the United States, was here Tuesday in furtherance of this commendable cause. While here he conferred with Thomas Campbell, manager of the local Red Cross campaign, who assured him that Hermiston's quota to the fund would be fully provided.

J. R. Johnson, a Boardman homesteader, was here Monday with his little son for surgical treatment for a lacerated wrist which the youngster received by being bitten by a dog. While it was not believed the animal was infected with rabies, the boy's parent thought it best not to take any chances, so brought him to Hermiston for treatment as quickly as possible after the happening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bell, ranchers north of this city, are home from a visit of several weeks to coast cities, and Mr. Bell is now busily engaged getting 40 acres of the 80 that they own ready for spring sowing. For the present they will reside in the residence of the lady's brother, William Kik, on an adjoining 80, until the residence house which they have under contemplation shall have been built.

The Opposing Room.
If you had spent fifteen of the best years of your life listening to the composing room tell "why they can't set it," had grown hollow in the cheeks listening to linotypers tell you you didn't know what you were talking about and had grown the stringhalt from standing first on one foot and then on the other while you listened to the foreman make objections, you wouldn't have blamed us for hugging a dirty faced kid, with freckles bigger than a nickel, who looked up into the editor's whiskers and said, "Mister, where is the opposing room?"—Buffalo News.

Take This Any Way.

You would not allow another man to snub you, to be discourteous to you, without resenting it. Neither will the other fellow permit you to treat him shabbily without letting you know what he thinks of it. Some days you feel cross, cranky and irritable. And did it ever occur to you that on these very days you seem to see others as others seem to see you? Did it ever occur to you that others are bound to treat you as you treat them? Take this any way you want to, but take it.—Silent Partner.

His Needs.

"If you please, mamma," asked Clarence, aged ten. "will you kindly lend me a pencil?"
"But," said mamma, "I left a pen and ink for you to do your lessons with on the nursery table. Why don't you use those instead of a pencil?"
"Well, you see," Clarence explained, "I want a pencil to write and ask the editor how to remove ink stains from a carpet."—Pearson's Weekly.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE

W. L. Suddarth brought Mr. and Mrs. Frick to Irrigon again Sunday and the church is at last on its proper foundation.

H. Wolf was hurt in the moving of the church Sunday.

Mrs. W. W. Caldwell was down from Hermiston between trains last Wednesday.

Mrs. C. W. Caldwell and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Townsend, went to Hermiston Saturday last, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rand and son were Hermiston visitors Saturday to see the foot ball game. The Irrigon team were represented by Ralph Walpole, Baly Rand, Lyle Seaman and Harry Davis.

Geo. Samson and daughter Lois came down from Umatilla Saturday and spent Sunday with the family at this place.

The road men are giving an oyster supper at the E. & W. hall Wednesday night.

Mrs. Christian and daughter May spent the week end with Mrs. Lane.

Mr. Harrington bought a 40 acre tract near Boardman through W. R. Walpole.

Baly Rand and Paul Stockard were out joy riding with the "Cosmos" Sunday last.

What's wrong with Irrigon? Nothing at all. She all right when the wind don't blow.

L. A. Doble has just completed his new house, his former dwelling having been burned last spring.

W. G. Cerry and family are permanently located in Seattle this winter and all like that burg fine.

Irrigon is enjoying(?) some fairly hard winds lately. It blew the road men in Friday last and it is so much like spring that the peach and poplar trees are sending out new leaves. We will be able to pick peach blossoms by Xmas and ripe fruit in March, unless, of course, the regular winter arrives.

Peace and Goodwill

THERE is a tinge of sadness in the Christmas season this year because Peace is not world-wide.

We of America have much to be thankful for. May we use our prosperity to such a good advantage that it may be maintained indefinitely.

Please accept our hearty good will and best wishes for the season.

THE Hermiston Herald

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
