HERMISTON LOCALS

Dr. Alexander Reid was called to Portland on professional business Monday of this week, returning the day following.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander of Pendleton were New Year guests at the home in this city of their daughter, Mrs. E. P. Dodd.

Mrs. E. Hitt has accepted a position in the general store of B. S. Kingsley, having entered upon her clerical duties the first of the week.

Little Homer Epperson, who has been spending the holiday vacation at the home of his sister, Mrs. P. B. Sisoe, returned to his home and school at Hood River Thursday.

Mrs. J. F. Morfitt has resigned her position as assistant in the office of Dr. Prime and taken a situation as bookkeeper in the store of the Oregon Hardware & Implement Co.

The members of the local Baptist Ladies Aid will be hosts to Mesdames Shotwell and O'Connell next Wednesday afternoon at the latter's home on Ridgeway avenue.

Hal Ross returned to his home in Idaho Monday after a ten-day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. D. Ross. While here he made a purchase of 20 acres adjoining the parental ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hinkle have been in Portland several days this week, the lady visiting with friends while her husband, who is president of Oregon Irrigation Congress, is presiding at its sessions.

A few friends and schoolmates gathered at the Hooker home Friday of last week and had a surprise on Alvin, it being his eleventh birthday. Games and music were played and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Hooker. Covers were laid for 12.

B. F. Knapp returned from Richland yesterday, and brought with him news of devastation caused by floods in the Yakima valley that will mean a loss of many thousands of dollars to the settlers along the Yakima river from Richland to North Yakima.

E. P. Dodd has been appointed to issue a license to those handling explosives in the west end of this county, his territory covering all points between Umattilla and Echo. This work he has been commissioned to do by the department of the interior at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. P. S. Ward was the recipient of sad news the first of the week, when she received a telegram from the family home in Galax, Virginia, advising her of the death of her father. A minor ailment, coupled with his advanced age of 78 years, brought about his demise.

Mrs. R. A. Brownson proved herself a charming hostess Monday afternoon when she entertained the girls of her Sunday school class at her home. The time was spent in playing games, after which delicious refreshments were served. A very enjoyable afternoon is reported by those attending.

"Grandma" Stewart returned Thursday morning from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Wyckoff, at Tacoma. On the trip home she viewed many devastations caused by the recent floods in that part of the state of Washington, the estimated loss to stockmen and others being placed at thousands of dollars.

Miss Nola Magruder returned New Year's eve from her vacation visit to the home of her parents in Missouri and has resumed her duties as teacher in the grade school. She says it was severely cold in the "Show Me" state, the thermometer passing the 30 degrees below mark while she was there.

Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead and family, who have been here all summer and fall, during which time the gentleman was employed at the government concrete pipe factory, left New Year's day to take up their residence at Plummer, Idaho. The lady, who is a sister of Mrs. S. Carson, made many friends while here who wish the family new year prosperity in their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Barnes left Wednesday for their home in Baker City, Oregon, after a short visit with the gentleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barnes, at their ranch home near this city. Mr. Barnes had to curtail his visit owing to the pressing duties connected with his position as forest supervisor, this being a somewhat busy time of the year with him.

Mrs. F. M. Bryant and daughter Florence left Wednesday for Tacoma, where for a week they will visit with Miss Mildred, daughter of Mrs. Bryant, who is now holding a situation as telegraph operator in the Northern Pacific railroad offices in South Tacoma. This, it will be remembered, is the young lady who a few months ago graduated from a telegraphic school in Portland, and who, evidently, has already become quite conversant with her Morse.

Have you a sewing machine you could loan to the Red Cross? If so call Mrs. J. H. Strohm.

Circuit Court Judge Phelps and Mrs. Phelps came up from Pendleton and spent the New Year holidays as guests in this city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Phelps, the gentlemen being brothers.

Miss Naoma Wyland of Heppner, sister of Mrs. W. Giese, who has been visiting at the home of the latter and also with her friend, Miss Pearl Sullivan, left yesterday for her home after having had an enjoyable time here during the holidays.

A change in the railroad time table makes passenger train No. 1, west-bound, arrive here now at 10:10 instead of 9:55 a. m., as heretofore. This change went into effect last Monday. No other changes in time of trains were made.
