

Coming to Chautauqua

Julius Caesar Nayphe to Be Feature Attraction of Second Night

J. C. Nayphe, the Athenian, presents a great dramatic spectacle on the second night of the Chautauqua Festival. Aided by costumes of his native country, his lectures will give you a new conception of the orient and he will give you too in an inimitable manner the oriental's conception of America.

Born in Athens, the ancient seat of culture, and reared in Caesarea Philippi, he has both the blood and the temperament of the far East, its life and its learning.

Nayphe is a royal entertainer. He has a musical voice of great richness and power, and his story is as beautiful as a poem. Nayphe tells it with great eloquence, with dramatic intensity and with superb grace. It is not right to characterize his program as simply a lecture. It is a dramatic spectacle, totally unlike anything you have seen or heard. It has been one of the greatest successes upon the Chautauqua platform in recent years.

Season Tickets $1.65 for 6 Programs.

Chautauqua Facts

This Chautauqua is made possible by the local patriotism and public spirit of a group of business men and citizens of this community. They have personally pledged themselves to the sale of the tickets necessary to bring the Chautauqua here. They are doing this without the hope of a cent of financial gain, but solely to upbuild the community and make it a better place for you to live.

Season Tickets $1.65

A limited number of Season Tickets will be placed on sale February 20th at the following places:

Echo Mercantile Company
R. R. Lewis & Co.
George & Miller Co.
Spinning's Drug Store.

These season tickets will be sold at One Dollar and Sixty-Five Cents each, war tax paid. These tickets entitle the holder to admission to the six performances.

Sale of Season Tickets closes at Noon Wednesday, February 27th, and after that time the advertised single admission price will have to be paid.

Phone your application for season tickets to any of the above places at once, as only 225 season tickets will be sold.

Read the program carefully. See what a splendid three days of instruction, entertainment and information there is in store for you. Think how little it costs to attend on the season ticket plan.

Hawaiians at Chautauqua

Waikiki Hawaiian Quartet to Bring True Music of the Islands

One of the rare treats in store for Chautauqua Festival patrons is a short afternoon program and a full evening concert by the Waikiki Hawaiian Quartet. This group of Hawaiian musicians is finely educated and finished in music. They have been one of the favorite stringed quartets of the Hawaiian Islands for many years and are said to be the most musically accurate in their reproduction of Hawaiian music. With ukeleles and guitars they play the beautiful, soothing and wistful melodies of the islands in a manner that grips the heart of every one in the audience.

J. SHERMAN WALLACE ON CHAUTAUQUA FESTIVALS

Prominent Author and Educator Lectures on the Second Day.

J. Sherman Wallace, well known western educator and writer is coming to the Chautauqua Festival on the afternoon of the second day. Formerly head of the Department of Public Speaking of McMinnville College in Oregon, he achieved an enviable reputation as an educator and is peculiarly fitted to deal with the problems of education from the platform.

J. SHERMAN WALLACE

During the past summer he was one of the feature lecturers on one of the largest Chautauqua circuits in the country.

His lecture, "The Salvation of America," is a subject of interest to every man, woman and child in this community. Mr. Wallace presents it in a manner that will hold and grip every person in the audience. It is a sound constructive lecture and yet one illumined with flashes of splendid humor. A highly interesting message—hear it!

SPLENDID MUSIC AT CHAUTAUQUA

Ladies' Festival Orchestra Presents Two Programs First Day

The Ladies' Festival Orchestra, which comes to our Chautauqua Festival on the opening day, is a company of six charming young ladies who offer a program which is a delight to the general public and a pleasure to the most musically critical. With the use of supplementary instruments the variety and quality of the program is equal to that of a much larger organization.

For the last few years they have been one of the standard Chautauqua attractions of the Middle West. Individually they are finished musicians. Their entertainment consists of orchestra selections, instrumental solos, vocal quartets, duets, solos and readings.
